COL. S. L. WRIGHT refuses to be a candidate for town commissioner.

IT looks as if Mayor Mahool would be renominated for Mayor of Baltimore city. If not, why not?

IF the same energy spent in factional politics by newspapers and people was devoted to trying to further the best interests of Kent county and the county towns, there is no doubt the county would advance faster. If Kent's own citizens become disgusted with conditions we cannot hope to attract strangers. Quit croaking and give a help.

OF all unhappy mortals the one who always sees the bad in everything must be the unhappiest. We mean the person who takes a big crop as a sure sign of a storm, or a day of rest as one that will make the next day that follows only that much harder. These remind us of the old woman who, according to the story, claimed that it always made her feel worse to feel better, because she always felt worse afterwards. For instance, there was a good law passed at the last legislature, drawn by the intelligent attorney of both Water Board and Town Board, authorizing the town commissioners to appoint an auditing committee, and because the appointees, Messrs. Eben F. Perkins and James W. Crouch, were not named by the Barroll organ it comes out in a long article "croaking" over the bill of these gentlemen and of the law. The law is all right, the appointees are capable, and if there is any neglect it is on the part of those who employed them. It was in their power and it was their privilege to exercise precaution and specify the cost of same. Certainly something can be left to the good judgment of officials. In the audit of the county commissioners' work so much per day was allowed before the men started. In the audit of the Kent Building & Loan Co.'s books the directors specified that so much money should be paid for the work, and it was done very satisfactorily. In the case of the audit of the Water Company's books, the authorities should have specified the charge, and we would advise them hereafter to do so.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

Mrs. B. H. Coburn has been quite ill for more than a week. She is on the improve now.

There seems to be active preparation on the part of many hereabout for the grand ball in Junior Hall next Wednesday evening.

A special service will be conducted by Pastor Northrup in the M. E. Church to-morrow (Sunday) morning, a feature of which will be a Roll Call of the membership. This will be interesting and well worth the efforts of the entire membership to be present.

Owing to the inability of District Sugerintendent Dr. Watt to meet the M. E. officials in Piney Neck, on Sunday, to conduct the fourth quarterly conference of the pastoral year, Rev. Mr. North, by request of the superintendent, performed that duty on Sunday afternoon.

Elmer, the young son of Mr. Moses Legg, of Quaker Neck, died on Monday night after a long illness, of consumption. The funeral, conducted by Rev. Mr. Smith, took place Wednesday; interment at Wesleyan cemetery. A number of family relatives reside here.

Very much sickness of various forms prevails in this section. Our doctors are constantly on the go. The homes of Town Officer Clarence Culley, Wm. Collison, Fred. Carter, W. T. Harrison, R. J. Harrison, J. W. Harrison and others have from two to four sick members, Mumps are on the rampage in Skinner's Neck.

Miss Biddle, one of the popular teachers in our High School, who has been at her home in Quaker Neck a victim of mumps, returned to her duties in the school on Wednesday. The janitor, Mr. Satterfield, had her department in splendid order, but in a short time she was taken ill again and compelled to go to her boarding house and later was taken to Mrs. Wilson's. She is something better at this writing.

Hello, Bro. A., of the Fairlee pencil, did you become disgusted with the recent addition to your cognomen? Were it not for the familiar tone of your pencil we wouldn't have known whether last week's budget from your town was "West End's" or "Haps." All right, friend and brother, as we do not wish to be classed among the pencil pushers of the ancient days of the 70's, we will stick to the 90's.

The Wells Medicine Company closed their exhibition here on Saturday night and are now over in Piney Neck repeating their programme. They sold an immense quantity of drugs, &c., in this section, some of our people getting as much as $8 or $10 worth; and yet many of us still have our aches and pains and the doctors and local druggists are very busy. It is estimated that the Wells Co. took in from $800 to $1,000 of the hard-earned cash of our residents. If these figures are correct the company ought to be well pleased with their sojourn in our midst.

Motor Vehicle Commissioner John E. George was operated on Wednesday morning last by Dr. Hugh H. Young at John Hopkins Hospital. The operation was successful and the Commissioner is expected to leave the hospital in three weeks.

BUSINESS MEN of Chestertown, don't neglect the meeting in Firemen's Hall next Tuesday night at 8.30. Its to your own interest to attend.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mrs. Mary E. Deal, widow of the late George F. Deal, formerly of this county died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wilson Smith, in Baltimore, last Friday aged 71 years. The deceased was before marriage a Miss Winchester.

His funeral was held Tuesday from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Whitle in Baltimore; interment in Western cemetery. The deceased was the son of Mr. James A. Kirby and a brother of Messrs. J. W. and Charles E. Kisby and Mrs. S. T. H. Pfeffer, of this town. All of the last named attended the funeral services.

Mr. Elmer Legg, aged 19, died at the home of his father, Mr. Moses Legg, near Cliffs, on Monday, February 13, of tuberculosis. Funeral was held on Wednesday morning, at Mowbray Chapel, at 10 30 o'clock; interment at Wesley Chapel, Kent county, Rev. Tilghman Smith, pastor, in charge. He leaves the following relatives: His father, Moses Legg; two brotners, Arthur and Randolph Legg; two sisters. Mrs. Emma Dickerson and Miss Elsie Legg. The pall-bearers were Philip Vansant, Paul Vansant, Lester Crouch, W. A. Perkins, Edward Brown, Wm. White; Chas L. Dodd, undertaker.

William Arringdale, a former resident of North East, died on Monday at the Emergency Hospital in Easton, aged 71 years. He was a native of Easton and was greatly interested in church work. About twenty years ago he went to Africa as a missionary with Bishop Taylor, but his health failed him and he returned to Easton. He is survived by one son, Ford Arringdale, of Philadelphia; a stepmother, Mrs. James H. Covington, of Betterton, who is also the stepmother of Congressman J. Harry Congressman, and a half brother, John A. Arringdale, a lumber merchant of Miami, Florida.

Mrs. Mary J. Rasin died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. J. Hackett, in Still Pond, Thursday night, aged 91. She was a woman of lovely character and beloved by all who knew her. She leaves one daughter, Mrs. Hackett, and two sons, Thomas and Wm. G. Rasin. The funeral will take place Sunday at 2 o'clock, interment at Still Pond Cemetery, Rev. J. H. Beauchamp, officiating; undertaker, W. H. Krusen. The bearers will be Wm. T. S., Loten and Howard Rasin, C. P. Severson, Chas. Jewell, A. J. Hackett, Jr.

Mrs. Della Spry, wife of Irving Spry, died at her home near Sassafras, on Wednesday morning, after a short illness She was about 24 years of age and leaves an infant child. The funeral took place on Friday, interment in the Sassafras M. P. Cemetery. Rev. C. M. Cullum, officiating.

At the big athletic meet in Baltimore last Saturday Coach "Mike" Thompson was referee. The News says "he was everywhere. One of the things for which the Amateur Athletic Union is to be commended is its rules for demanding the gentlemanly conduct of its members while in competition. The athlete who finds himself unable to live up to the letter of the law in this respect soon finds himself suspended, and the summary action of the proper authorities Saturday night in the case of a contestant who acted in an offensive manner to Referee Thompson was an example. Indefinite suspension was the punishment meted out, and the case will be acted on later. Without discussing the merits or demerits of the little incident, it is a mighty good thing to impress athletes with the fact that tactics common among thugs will not be for a moment tolerated during a set of games. The severest punishment within the power of the proper authorities is none too severe for this sort of action."

THE Fairlee Grange Minstrels will show in Stam's Hall, Chestertown, next Wednesday night, Feb. 22nd. Go and have a good laugh.

Celebration of Washington's Birthday at Washington College.

President Washington's intimate connection with Washington College will be marked by the usual anniversary celebration at the college on the morning of the twenty-second. In recent years these anniversary exercises have been held under the auspices of the Mt. Vernon Literary Society, but the college authorities feel that the life and patriotism of Washington and his relation to the college are matters of interest to all those connected with it and that the observance of this anniversary should be one of the most formal and dignified functions of the college year. Mr. Jas. M. Munroe will be the principal speaker. Mr. Munroe is well known as a speaker of unusual force and charm, and the purity of his own private and public life makes him peculiarly fitted to speak to young men on the theme he has selected. The music for the occasion will be furnished by the Washington Glee Club and the orchestra of the First Regiment Infantry Band, of Wilmington, Del. The public is cordially invited to these exercises, which will be held in William Smith Hall on the morning of the 22nd, at 10.30. The programme is:
