Splendid for the Blood

"Being all run down last spring I was advised to take Pinkham's Blood Purifier. I tried one bottle, and got such quick relief that by the time I had taken three bottles I felt like a new person. After taking the medicine I gained twenty pounds in three months." — AARON WINSLOW, 60 Washington Street, Lynn, Mass.

At this season of the year almost every one needs a reliable blood purifier or spring medicine. This is indicated by that tired, "dragged-out" feeling — humors and eruptions which appear on the face and body, — and unless the blood is purified and enriched more serious consequences are liable to follow.

Pinkham's Blood Purifier

The best spring and blood medicine, is prepared by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, of Lynn, Mass. You know this Company. You know that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard medicine for women; your common-sense tells that the company which owns so successful and valuable a medicine as that could never afford to risk its reputation by putting on the market any other medicine not of the same high degree of excellence. When you buy medicine prepared by this company you get the best, and Pinkham's Blood Purifier is The Best.

MILLINGTON ITEMS.

Mrs. L. A. Hurtt spent a part of last week with friends in Smyrna, Del.

Miss Corolyn Hobbs, of Denton, Md., and Miss Evelyn Marshall, of Stockton, Md., were the guests of the Misses Ahern last week.

Misses Ruby Ahern and Marie Gillespie are at home with their parents on account of the Chestertown High school being closed.

Mrs. R. J. Taylor and Dorothy are visiting her mother at Franklin City, Virginia.

Mrs. Kate Tonkin and son George, are spending sometime in Wilmington where they will attend the sessions of the Wilmington Conference.

Mrs. Mollie Aydellotte is spending a few days at the home of her mother in the country.

Mr. and Mrs. David W. Percy, of Massachusetts, the son-in-law and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Britton, have moved into the Manning property on South Crane St. this week.

Rev. Wilmer Jaggard and wife left on Tuesday for the Wilmington Conference. We are hoping for his return to this charge.

Miss Flora Tolson is filling for the present the vacancy at Wilson's store caused by the departure of Mr. Clyde Robinson.

The Millington town election held last Saturday passed off very quietly there being no contest whatever. Only 20 votes were cast 17 of which bore the name of L. Wilson, a prominent and enterprising merchant of our town, and the other three were complimentary. Mr. Wilson has served the town in this capacity in the past and made a very efficient official. A plan is under consideration which, when put into effect, will greatly improve the appearance of our town, as well as the condition of our streets. Mr. Thomas E. Harris has been appointed bailiff, and will police and maintain good order within the town limits as well as perform other duties.

The baseball festival and pie social held on last Saturday was well attended and a goodly sum realized.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Porter, of Clayton, Del., were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Porter last Sunday.

Mrs. W. B. Hilyard, of Georgetown, Del., spent a few days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Tolson.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society was entertained at the home of Mrs. C. M. Hurtt on Thursday, March 9th, at which time the mite boxes were opened and a good report made.

Mr. Clyde Robinson, the efficient clerk of L. Wilson left on Tuesday morning for South Dakota where he has a nice position awaiting him.

KENNEDYVILLE NOTES

Saturday afternoon last, the 11th, was a great time for the Kennedyville Grange, Twenty-one new candidates were received into the order by taking the third and fourth degrees, thus becoming full-fledged Grangers. The weather was charming and the membership of the local grange was largely represented. Among the visitors present were Dr. and Mrs. Kelley, of Still Pond; James T. Anthony, of Queen Anne's county, and T. D. Bowers, of Chestertown. In the public meeting following the initiation of the large number of ladies and gentlemen into the splendid order, in Weer's Hall, a very interesting program was rendered, in charge of John Medders, lecturer of the order. First in order was a most interesting address by Mr. Bowers, of Chestertown, who, in connection with his own good words, read a most excellent paper prepared by Mr. Abel, of Cecil county, on the best way of farming, how to enrich the soil and get the largest crops. Next in order was a most interesting recitation by Miss Margaret Brinsfield, one of the popular teachers of Kent county. Last in order of the entertaining programme—but not least by any means—was a charming recitation by Miss Sarah Hessey, of Worton, and another of Kent's splendid teachers. This last ended the draught or aftercourse. At this juncture the lecturer proposed that the ladies hurry the preparations of the banquet supper. The table was a sumptuous one and the many good things thereon exquisitely prepared. Near one hundred partook of the bounteous repast. Besides all other benefits of the Grange the social part is most delightful.

Mr. William Archibald made a trip to Westminister, on Friday last to see his nephew, Harry Hill, who is recovering from an attack of pneumonia at Western Maryland College. Harry is doing nicely and expects to be in his college class by Wednesday. His mother, Mrs. Rachel Hill, of Kennedyville, is still with him. Mr. Archibald returned on Saturday evening reporting a very pleasant journey.

Rev. Mr. Mullineaux made a hurried trip to Baltimore and Carroll county to see relatives on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. He reports about six inches of snow fall in Baltimore and the Western Shore.

Services at Kennedyville M. P. Church Sunday, March 19th—9.30 a. m., Sunday School; 10 30 a. m., sermon by the pastor; 2.30 p. m., Junior C. E. Service; song service and sermon in the evening at 7.15. All most cordially invited. Come and help praise the Lord and glorify His Kingdom.

On Monday morning, at 9.30 o'clock, the 20th, an adjourned quarterly conference will be held in the above named church. The pastor, Mr. Mullineaux, is solicitous for a large attendance at said conference preparatory to the gathering of the Maryland Annual Conference in Federalsburg on Wednesday, April 5th. Let all the members take due notice and govern themselves accordingly.

A DELIGHTFUL PARTY.

A delightful party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Rodney, near Smithville, in honor of Mr. Nelson Walbert, March 11th. The delicacies of the season were served at a late hour. Those present were as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. William Rodney, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Price, Mr. and Mrs. Alford Crouch; Misses Mary Smith, Mamie Carroll, Ida Mason, Pearl Dodson, Lizzie Toulson, Pearl Rodney, Edith Rodney, Edith Dodson, Mamie Rodney; Messrs. Nelson Walbert, Bruce Usilton, John Biggers, Grover Coleman Hope Dill, Willie Miller, Eddie Carroll, Clarence Pinder Arthur Mason, Charles Miller, Willie Cable, Wilbur Rodney, Willie Parsons, Walter Rodney, Medford Jones, Earle Godwin, Philip Jones, Allen Joiner.

Despair and Despondency

No one but a woman can tell the story of the suffering, the despair, and the despondency endured by women who carry a daily burden of ill-health and pain because of disorders and derangements of the delicate and important organs that are distinctly feminine. The tortures so bravely endured completely upset the nerves if long continued.
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a positive cure for weakness and disease of the feminine organism.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG,
SICK WOMEN WELL.

It allays inflammation, heals ulceration and soothes pain. It tones and builds up the nerves. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. Honest medicine dealers sell it, and have nothing to urge upon you as "just as good." It is non-secret, non-alcoholic and has a record of forty years of cures. ASK YOUR NEIGHBORS. They probably know of some of its many cures.

If you want a book that tells all about woman's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing only, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to date edition, in paper covers. In handsome cloth-binding, 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N.Y.
