LOCAL NOTES

P. G. WILMER is greatly improving his home and yard on Washington avenue by removing a number of shade trees.

MR. STINCHCOMB and wife, of Upper Falls, Md., were in town Tuesday looking for a location for a bakery. They were impressed favorably with the town and secured an option on Mr. Wm. L. Fowler's new store room. They will return in a few days and make a decision. There is certainly an opening here for a good bakey.

THIS has been the coldest March in the history of the weather bureau.

THE outlook for lambs in Kent is fine. One farmer near Betterton reports 32 lambs from 19 ewes. B. W. Townsend, of Cordova, bought 20 lambs last week for $5 each, but this price is way above what the market will be, so we are informed.

A BIG LAND deal is on in Worton and will likely be consummated next week. Its right handy sometimes to have a summer home.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18th, is the date for the benefit library entertainment at Firemen's Hall, Chestertown. Make your arrangements for being present.

A VISITOR arrived in town Saturday with his wife and several children on the hunt for a farm. They secured rooms in the Sparks building. The gentleman said he heard he could get good land here for $10 per acre and that vegetables in gardens were well advanced. Can you imagine his disappointment? However, the hustling real estate men here did their best.

THE Richard Groves farm at Lankford, advertised in the NEWS, was sold at mortgagee's sale Monday to Mr. Richard Groves for $4,000. There were a number of bidders and quite a number of others present interested in the sale.

THE Rich Neck Farmers Club could furnish Dr. Hill with several good lecturers who could speak from experience.

THERE are rumors of a wedding in this vicinity shortly. But rumors are so plentiful.

THE high wind of Thursday prevented the Tolchester boat from stopping at Tolchester.

WM. R. STRONG, of the Fifth District, has filled his ice house with snow owing to the scarcity of ice and thinks it will keep well as it is well-packed and firm.

MR. ALEXANDER MARRIED.

A wedding of much interest to the residents of Northeast Baltimore and Rock Hall took place Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when Miss Augusta Pauline Loewner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Loewner, 1319 North Broadway, became the bride of Mr. Max Alexander, of Rock Hall. The ceremony which was held in the parlor of the bride's home, was performed by Rev. Henry Schneeberger. The bride, attired in a gray traveling dress, entered the parlor upon the arm of her father, by whom she was given in marriage. She carried a large bouquet of violets, and was attended by Miss Sarah Strauss as maid of honor. Mr. Isaac Strauss acted as best man. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Alexander left for a week's tour of the North. They will return to the home of the bride's parents next Wednesday, where they will be given a reception, after which they will go to their home at Rock Hall. Congratulations, Max.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. Romie McCauley, the well-known tenant on the Cochran farm, near town, anticipates removing next year to the McCauley farm near Galena. He has made many friends here.

Miss Alice Carpenter, of Baltimore, and a frequent popular visitor to Mrs. Sutton's on Cannon street, is the holder of a Peabody scholarship won in competion with professionals and others. She gave a free organ recital Saturday at the Peabody Conservatory presenting a program devoted largely to Mendelsohm.

Miss Mollie O'Connor, superintendent of A. L. Sparks' millinery department, has returned for the spring and summer trade.

Mr. Marion deK. Smith, of Bedford, Pa., was in town Monday on business. He says his mother and sister will likely return home about April 1st.

Mr. George Vickers, of New York, spent Sunday at "Lauretum Place," the home of his parents.

Mr. Joseph C. Kendall, one of the most highly respected citizens of the Fifth district, is critically ill at his home in Rock Hall.

Thomas, the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. H. Whiteley, was bitten on the face by a dog one day last week. Under the skillful care of Dr. H. Benge Simmons the little fellow's injury is healing nicely, and no serious results are expected.

Among the men of mark published in the Baltimore Sun was an excellent photograph of Mr. Harry C. Busick, well-known in Kent. The Sun says: "Mr. Busick, hotel manager, is above all else a hustler and a representative of the type of young men most desirable in any municipality. He is always willing to help in any enterprise which means civic betterment. He manifested this a few weeks ago when he contributed $1,000 personally to the Democratic National Convention fund. He is a native of Kent county, and his first employment was in a shoe store at Chestertown. For three years before the fire of 1904 he directed the old Carrollton Hotel, which was famous in that day. At present he is manager of the New Howard and the Caswell Hotels."

An engagement of much interest to society of Baltimore, Washington and in naval circles just announced is that of Miss Eunice M. Westcott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Westcott, 906 St. Paul street, formerly of Chestertown, Md., to Ensign Russell Willson, U. S. N., son of Mrs. Willson and the late Mr. Sidney L. Willson, of Washington. Miss Westcott, who made her debut at the first German of the Bachelors' Cotillon Club several years ago, is one of the most popular girls in the younger set and has been much admired. Ensign Willson is a graduate of the Naval Academy in the class of February, 1906, and is at present aid to Admiral Vreeland on the flagship Louisiana, which has just arrived at the Norfolk Navy Yard. Ensign Willson has spent the greater portion of the time since his graduation in and about China. Although no date has been set for the wedding, it will probably take place in the late spring.

Mr. Frank Ruth, of Galena, was in town yesterday.

A DELIGHTFUL PARTY.

A delightful party was given at the home of Mr and Mrs. William Rodney, near Smithville, in honor of Mr. Nelson Walbert, March 11th. The delicacies of the season were served at a late hour. Those present were as follows:

THE following item concerning Westminster's streets will be interesting at this time when Chestertown is beginning to improve Main street:

"The improvement of Main street has been completed. The length of street which has been covered by a bituminous macadam bed, with three layers of stone, is about 1¼ miles, and its width averages 35 feet. The cost of the work has been about $14,000, which, considering the fact that the 14-foot ordinary macadam roads being constructed for the State Roads Commission cost from $10,000 to $15,000, is considered remarkably moderate. The work has been done under the constant supervision of Road Engineer Ahles, of the road division of the United States Agricultural Department."
