ARMY WEDDING IN NEW YORK

Bridal-Dress of Spanish Lace—Yellow and Blue Wedding Colors Shown in Bridesmaids' Dresses—United States Flags Decorate The Church.

At a recent military wedding the Fifth Avenue Church was elaborately decorated with United States Flags, while the gala uniforms worn by the groom and his fellow officers, added much to the attraction of this exceptionally pretty wedding.

THE BRIDAL COUPLE.

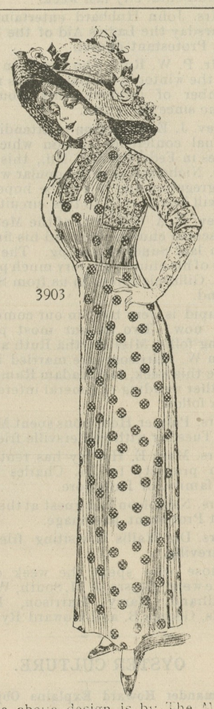

The bridal gown was an innovation, being a close fitted Princess of white satin completely covered with Spanish lace applied flatly. A voluminous tu'le veil with orange blossoms applied over the top of the coiffure, was draped over the dark hair like a cap, the frills outlining the face. No jewels were worn and the bouquet was of white roses and valley lillies tied with white satin ribbon.

THE MATRON OF HONOR.

The bride's sister as matron of honor wore a trailing gown of golden yellow satin, with a tunic of pale blue spangled net. Large hat of brown straw faced with pale blue tulle; shaded brown willow ostrich went around the crown, and a spray of gold roses appeared at one side. An armful of golden yellow flowers was carried.

THE BRIDESMAIDS' DRESSES.

The bridesmaids, six in number, wore short gowns of blue chiffon over striped yellow and blue satin and showed high heeled gilt slippers and matching silk hose. Their small, round mushroom hats, of blue straw were banded in blue marabout, and trimmed with pleatings of blue tulle. Wide bows of blue hemmed satin stood out behind and a small cluster of gold roses and blue forget-me-nots was at one side near the back. Gold braid trimmed the edges of the wedge shaped necks and gold cords of hair inch width formed the girdles. Each girl carried a long handled high gilt basket filled with yellow jonquils.

The above design is by The McCall Company, New York, Designers and Makers of McCall Patterns.

THE BRIDE'S MOTHER.

The bride's mother wore a gown of white marquisette over white satin trimmed with touches of black velvet and jet fringes. Black velvet faced hat with black ostrich plumes. The bridegroom's mother was in pale gray embroidered crepe with black hat and gray ostrich plumes.

THE GOING AWAY GOWN.

Coat and skirt of black and white serge, one of the new narrow striped effects more white than black. Collar and reveres of black satin with just a touch of red in the finishing. Waist of white marquisette embroidered in white and coral and elaborately inset with Cluny lace, black tie. Red straw hat with black velvet facing and black ostrich quills.

PURPLE AND CERISE.

Royal purple and Cerise or coral red are the two prominent colors used for contrast just now. Both combine well with the black and white stripes, and deep marine blue, serges used for tailored suits and dresses and relieve admirably the sombreness of an all clack dress. Not only are these colors used seperately but they are much lided in combiuation thus a hat of coarse in royal purple has a crown covered with wide open Russian violets and a strw bow with the loops faced with cerise velvet. Cerise cloth coliars and cuffs are put on linen suits of white, tan, blue and brown. Cerise stockings with white pumps or black with a dash of the same color in the hat placed, quite at the back, if it is not a becoming tint to the wearer.

"It Cured My Back"

"For twenty-nine years I have been at intervals a great sufferer from rheumatism. During that time, no telling how many gallons of the various kinds of liniments and oils I have used and with but little relief. Recently, I was confined to my bed helpless. I tried Sloan's Liniment and used it with such satisfactory results that I sent for two large bottles, and I have up to this time used about half a 50 cent bottle with splendid success."—JAMES HYDE, Beebe, White County, Ark.

Got Ease in Less Than Ten Minutes.

MR. JAMES E. ALEXANDER, of North Harpswell, Me., writes:—"I am a horseshoer and subject to many strains in my back and hips which has brought on rheumatism in the sciatic nerve. I had it so bad one night when sitting in my chair, that I had to jump on my feet to get relief. I at once applied your to the affected part and in less than ten minutes it was perfectly easy. I think it is the best of all Liniments."

Sloan's Liniment does not need any rubbing. It's a powerful penetrant. Try it for Rheumatism, Sciatica, Sprains, Chest Pains, and Sore Throat. It gives almost instant relief.
