DON'T THROW THAT STONE

"For we have all sinned and come short of Thy glory."

Don't throw that stone—just lay it down,
Go look upon that sand;
And read the words that Jesus wrote,
Traced by His sacred hand.
He said—if any sinless be,
Just cast a stone to-day;
But not a single stone was thrown,
But each one walked away.

PRESIDENT TAFT has stumped the Republicans in Baltimore.

WELCOME to Chestertown, Dr. Little, yea five times welcome. May this be your most successful year.

THE Board of Trade went before the Board of Control and Review Thursday and presented strong reasons for reducing the high assessment of town property and especially unimproved lots.

EASTER brings to the bereaved heart HOPE. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive! He is not here, for He is risen, as He said. So with those who have departed, for "as I live so ye shall live also."

STRANGE the Shelifish Commission never invite some of Rock Hall's practical oystermen to their conferences. Our watermen could tell them in ten minutes what they would never find out though they lived a century.

IN another column will be found the census figures for the whole state by counties. It is regretted that Chestertown and Millington each fall off from the last census. We think this is due to the large number of young men who have removed to the cities and to the negroes who have left for New Jersey and Pennsylvania. That Chestertown is spreading out and growing better no one will deny but in numbers the town as lost over 300.

THE Barroll organ, in its desperation, tries to distort the sacred scriptures in such a way as to make them applicable to the present political situation in Kent county. To say the least it is certainly ridiculous, if not sacreligious. To intimate that "Thy ways" should mean the people's ways, or the Boss' ways, has no credence even with the most ignorant reader. Better not try to make Holy Writ conform to our ways, but conform our life to its teachings, for we find these awful words: "And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book."

HE IS RISEN!

The glad Easter festival is here again, and with its coming brings new hopes and new aspirations. The gladness of the Easter celebration will never die out—it is eternal.

But in order to get out of the world's festival more than usual we must make it our experience. Our own resurrection can be now. The promise, "Because I live ye shall live also," means now is the time, and right here is the place, for us to live—for us to have our resurrection. Is our business planned and controlled in harmony with our belief in Christ's great sacrifice for us? Do we rise above self and enter into the great joy of doing for others rather than doing others, all for self?

Christ is risen, indeed; and he came, as he said, that we might have life, and that we might have it more abundantly.

THE Circuit Court for Talbot county has just handed down their decision in the injunction case of J. Frank Turner John W. D. Jump, and others, against the Mayor and Council of Easton, restraining them from laying a grade and curb on Goldsborough St., which might possibly necessitate the cutting down of the shade trees in front of their residences on said street. The case was heard before a full bench, consisting of Chief Judge James A. Pearce, and Associate Judges William H. Adkins and P. B. Hopper. It is said that an appeal will be taken from their decision to the Court of Appeals of Maryland.

CONFESSES ANOTHER THEFT.

Ralph D. Anderson, the young man from Lincoln City, Del., who confessed to the Middletown authorities on Saturday that he stole horses to get money to study ministry and was held by Magistrate Cox in $300 bail for court, was on Monday arranged on another charge.

In this case he was accused of the theft of a horse from George Rhoades, of Middletown, and was held in an additional $500 bail. He confessed to this theft and also to stealing a horse from James R. Sudler, of Smyrna, Del. He was driving the latter animal when arrested.

It was learned that the young man is the son of one of the wealthiest farmers in Delaware. The father is expected to arrive shortly and give surety for the release of the accused. He has returned $125 to Frederick Marvel, which he received for the sale of the Rhoades horse.

Some of Anderson's friends say he exhibits signs of mental weakness. This young man also plied his business in Galena.

SOME of the daily papers quoted Dr. Rose, of Easton, as stating that 125 persons sold their votes in Talbot county last year. Dr. Rose denies making such a speech and says he only referred to past elections!

SEARCHING FOR CANDIDATES

Trying Hard To Put A Tail To The Barroll Bob-Tail Ticket—George Carries A Rake.

The Barroll ticket is still as bob-tailed as ever, notwithstanding another week of diligent search. Mr. George Hudson, the Sixth district leader, even carries a rake about with him hoping to scratch up someone willing to be a victim!

Messrs. Harry Davis, Jesse R. Copper and John Comegys, all prominent citizens of the First (2) district and "Children of Hope," made a special trip to the home of Mr. John S. Newnam, near Millington, a few days ago with instructions to ask him to serve as a candidate for Orphan's Court on the Barroll ticket. They were kindly and politely received by Mr. Newnam for he would not treat anyone otherwise, but he was too independent a man to accept any such proposition. After dining the visitors left with discouraged spirits, but with a high regard for Mr. Newnam.

Mr. Newnam is a representative citizen of the First district and has always been arraigned on the side of the people against bossism. He could have had offices in the past but preferred the quiet of his home and to giving his influence to his friends and on the side of the people. What's the matter with Simpers, Nicholson and Mann? Are they too independent?

STILL POND ITEMS.

Miss Mary Hyland, of Washington College, is spending Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Hyland.

Mr. Chas. Ford, who has been on the sick list for some time is very much improved and was able to drive over to Kennedyville on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Medders visited Baltimore the past week.

Miss Marghuerita Dodd, of Chestertown, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. J. Howard.

Mrs. Fred Ford and daughter, Velma, of Baltimore, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thompson.

Mrs. Geo. Atwell is visiting friends at Townsend, Del.

Miss Anna Parson, of Baltimore, is visiting her cousin, Miss Ethel Robinson.

The Still Pond Grange gave a five o'clock supper and entertainment afterwards in Harper's Hall on Tuesday evening. Everyone had an enjoyable time. Let's have another jolly time soon.

Mrs. Lavinia Harper has had the millinery store moved across to the opposite side of the street next to Schofield's store. Mr. Harry Cannan of Chestertown, moved the building. It will be occupied by Mr. John Robinson who will have a meat market.

After the regular communion service last Sunday morning, Wm. T. Hepbron and John W. Bennett joined the Methodist Episcopal Church at Still Pond.

Next Sunday morning there will be roll call in the Sunday School. All the teachers are requested to insist that their scholars be present and invite new members. At 10.45 the pastor will preach an Easter sermon, subject, "Man Immortal." There will be special music and decorations for the occasion. The evening service will be in charge of the Epworth League; a short sermon by pastor on subject of League.
