SATURDAY, APRIL 22, 1911.

THE cases tried before the Court this week all together do not amount to $400!

THE NEWS has been compelled to omit the Fair Grange Premiums this week for lack of space, but same will appear next week.

THE NEWS is in receipt this week of a finely bred Democratic organization rooster which came through the battle in Baltimore and is ready for the conflict in Kent. He adorns the NEWS sanctum. Come in, George, and take a look at him.

THE present Grand Jury is one of the best ever assembled in Kent. They have given serious thought and consideration to the business before them and examined a large number of witnesses. Their clerk has preserved the testimony in excellent shape for use of State's Attorney.

IF the Democrats in the United States Senate will be as wise as those in the House there will be no doubt of the election of a Democratic president next year. The House has carried out the wishes of the people, now let the Senate do likewise, at least as far as they are able.

THE city papers are at last awaking to the importance of a closer bond of friendship between the counties and city. A gathering in Baltimore last week, at which Hon. James S. Harris represented Kent, decided to hold "Maryland Week" this coming fall or winter, and to have a tremendous exhibition of farm products, &c. Reunions are proposed of various kinds and a grand affair is being arranged. Kent will surely be there.

IN order to encourage our local ministors not to grow weary in well doing, and as an example to men of means, the following item is published:

"The eloquence of Rev. Walter Howard Frere, of London, known as Father Frere, who has addressed thousands of persons in mission services during the last two weeks, moved one who heard him to donate $100,000 as an endowment fund for perpetuating the missions, according to an announcement just made from the pulpit of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, in Brooklyn. The giver wishes his identtty to be kept secret. The donation was made to the Order of the Resurrection, which Father Frere represents."

THE Barroll faction are still searching for candidates to finish their bob-tailed ticket. Mr. George S. Biddle, that valiant organization worker, was corralled and a collar placed before him, but he refused to wear it and the hunt is still going on. All the time this hunt for candidates is going on the Barroll organ is whistling to keep up courage and yelling "bob-tail ticket" to the organization. We repeat our inquiry of last week, "What's the matter with Simpers, Nicholson and Mann? Too independent of Bossism! This should be rather commendable and attractive to the voters of Kent.

AFTER two busy days the forty-second annual convention of the Junior Order United American Mechanics adjourned at Frederick Wednesday to meet next year at Havre de Grace. The annual election of officers created much interest and resulted as follows:

State Councilor—James A. Young, Cumberland.
Vice-Councilor—Geo. E. Garrett, Baltimore.
Assistant State Secretary—John Cassell, Baltimore.
State Treasurer—Wm. L. James, Baltimore.
Warden—Albert Vanderlinden, Baltimore.
Conductor—John Neder, Baltimore.
Inside Sentinel—E. H. Gale, Caroline county.
Outside Sentinel—E. C. Shank, Hampden.
Chaplain—M. R. Etchison, Jefferson, Frederick county.
National Representatives—George W. Webb, Baltimore; H. N. Willis, Wilmington, Del., and Eugene H. Albaugh, Frederick.

WE heartily second the suggestion of the Sun that a convention of practical oystermen be held to discuss the oyster question. The Shellfish Commission advocate the following changes in the Haman law:

That planters may lease 30 acres in areas where tongs alone may be used on the natural bars and 500 acres where scrapes and dredges may be employed.

That planters may take oysters from their lots with scrapes or dredges from September 15 to June 15, when the lots are located not less than one-eighth of a mile from the nearest natural bar.

That tongers may take up oysters of any size from any natural bar in tonging districts in September for the purpose of using the oysters for seed for private lots.

That the sliding scale of rentals for oyster lots be held back six years from April 1, 1912, so that the new planters may have a longer period, with a rent of $1 an acre in which to establish their beds.

NECESSARIES ON THE FREE LIST.

The Democrats in Congress are losing no time in carrying out their program of tariff reduction. On Wednesday the Canadian reciprocity bill was introduced and at the same time a bill was presented placing upon the free list a large number of articles upon which there is now collected a heavy duty. These articles are nearly all among the necessaries of life, and a removal of the tariff will make a reduction in the cost.

Among these articles are all kinds of farming implements upon which there is now a duty of 15 per cent. Cotton bagging &c., with a duty of about 10 per cent. Leather with a duty of about 7 per cent. Brass and shoes made of leather, 10 per cent. Harness &c., 20 per cent. Barbed wire and other wire for fencing, average about ½ cent per pound. Fresh meat of all kinds 1½ cents per pound. Salt meats 25 cents per pound. Lard 1½ cents per pound. Wheat flour and buckwheat flour, 25 per cent. Cornmeal 40 cents on the 100 lbs. Sewing machines 45 per cent.

All these articles will, by the provisions of the bill, be placed upon the free list, and in addition lumber, except that used in fancy articles and non essentials, will also be free of duty. Many of these articles can be obtained in Canada and elsewhere at much less cost than they can be produced in this country and with the removal of the tariff, the cost to the consumer should be greatly lessened.

It is understood that the Republicans will fight this bill with all their strength, but there is every indication that the Democrats will stand as a unit upon it and push it through, it having been approved in caucus without a dissenting vote.

All of which is most encouraging news. It really seems now as if the longed for breach in the high tariff wall had at last been made, and that the era of the favored classes will shortly come to an end.

A DELIGHTFUL OCCASION.
