Splendid for the Blood

"Being all run down last spring I was advised to take Pinkham's Blood Purifier. I tried one bottle, and got such quick relief that by the time I had taken three bottles I felt like a new person. After taking the medicine I gained twenty pounds in three months." — AARON WINSLOW, 60 Washington Street, Lynn, Mass.

At this season of the year almost every one needs a reliable blood purifier or spring medicine. This is indicated by that tired, "dragged-out" feeling — humors and eruptions which appear on the face and body, — and unless the blood is purified and enriched more serious consequences are liable to follow.

Pinkham's Blood Purifier

The best spring and blood medicine, is prepared by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, of Lynn, Mass. You know this Company. You know that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard medicine for women; your common-sense tells that the company which owns so successful and valuable a medicine as that could never afford to risk its reputation by putting on the market any other medicine not of the same high degree of excellence. When you buy medicine prepared by this company you get the best, and Pinkham's Blood Purifier is The Best.

KENNISTON - MILLER WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

A. R. Miller and Miss Nellie Kenniston Nuptials Wednesday Evening At 8.30.

A. R. Miller and Miss Nellie Kenniston, both of Oelwein, were united in marriage at eight-thirty Wednesday evening at the M. E. parsonage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. G. Crowder. The ring service and ritual of the Methodist Episcopal Church were used, and as usual it was very impressive.

The bride and groom were attended by Mr. and Mrs. John L. Ervin, and at the conclusion of the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Miller received the congratulations of the friends present. Later the wedding party adjourned to the Best where an elaborate supper was served.

Mr. Miller came to Oelwein from Chestertown, Md., and is employed in the Great Western shops. He is a young man of sterling integrity, who is highly regarded by his friends. The bride has been a resident of the city for nearly all her life, and is a young lady esteemed for her sweet womanliness and unfailing courtesy. She has been employed as a clerk in business houses and has a large circle of friends. With their numerous friends The Register joins in wishing this young couple a large measure of success and happiness.—Va. Register.

The home of the Rev. J. E. Nicholson at Crumpton was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday, April 19th, at noon, when his daughter, Miss Ella Virginia, became the bride of Mr. Frank Pierce Nickerson. The bride was attired in white satin and carried bride roses. They were married by the bride's father. Miss Lulu Boggs played the wedding march. After a luncheon they left in an automobile for Clayton, Del., where they took the train for a northern tour. Their many friends extend congratulations. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wallen and daughters, of Clayton, Del.; Mrs. Muse, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. J. W. Hubbard, Misses Ethel Ryland and Lulu Boggs, and Mr. C. W. Nickerson.

Friday seems to be a lucky day for one farmer in Texas. Last Friday he was enriched by the arrival on his farm of twin colts, twin calves, sixteen little pigs, nineteen new chickens and sixteen turkeys, while a setter, which had disappeared three weeks before, came back with seven puppies valued at fifty dollars each. Texas is truly a great state.
