IN MEMORIAM.

In loving remembrance of J. A. COPPER, who died three years ago, May 8th, 1908.

Three years have passed away
Since we were forced to part;
But time and space cannot efface
Thy memory from my heart.

How slender is life's silver cord,
How soon 'tis broken here;
Each moment brings a parting word
And many a falling tear.

My son's troubles now are past,
His pains disturb him no more;
But Jesus in his arms at last
Bore him to the Heavenly shore.

BY HIS MOTHER.

Gone in the best of his days,
Blighted in manhood's bloom,
Gone from the hearts that loved him,
To sleep in the silent tomb.

Oh, God, how mysterious and
How strange are thy ways,
To take from me my husband
In the best of his days.

BY HIS WIFE.
