Our large purchase of Ladies' Suits for this season are now completed and the final lots have arrived, and are ready for selling. These Suits are just what you are looking for. Our strong argument is that you get them just a "little cheaper" than elsewhere. These specials should sell at sight.

Prettiest Wash Fabrics

We say prettiest, for surely there never were any prettier Wash Fabrics than these we are showing. Organdies, Dimities, Batistes, French Ginghams, Lawns and Voiles crowd each other for room, and when you consider that the prices are so very low the goods become very tempting.

There are All-Overs, Edgings and Insertions—baby width, medium widths and flounce widths. Patterns from a fraction of an inch to a half yard, with unusually liberal margins. The designs are beautiful, artistic and diversified. Neat exquisite effects for baby clothes and women's lingerie, dainty styles for trimming waists and showy elaborate combinations for flounces and ruffles.

Improvements consist of a 10-room dwelling, part brick and frame, bay window front, 3 large porches, 16x26 feet, cellar, 4-room iframe dwelling also situated along shore and in good condition, white family tenants; 8-stall stable with large loft, large granary, cribs will hold 1500 bushels of corn and large loft, carriage house and wagon shed with loft, every thing in good condition; 87-foot well and wire fencing. This property is very desirably situated on the Chesapeake bay, within 500 yards of steamboat wharf, steamer stops there making regular trips to Philadelphia and Baltimore. This property at $10,000 is the cheapest proposition on the Chesapeake; location, improvements and soil would be difficult to surpass.

No. 110. Napley, a beautiful water front estate, on Chester river. Napley is beautifully situated on Chester river, in Kent counsy, Md., and contains 448 acres of well-improved land, 340 acres tillable, 108 acres in good timber (easily $6,000 worth of timber can be cut off this farm); 4,000 peach, 800 pear and about 80 apple trees in good bearing. Large 12 room frame dwelling, newly papered and painted, 2 large porches and fine shade, 6-room tenant house and another smaller tenant house; 10 stall stable, granary and other necessary outbuildings in excellent condition; 2 pumps fine water and good fencing. This is one of the most desirable water front on Chester river; the dwelling is erected on a high knows, affording a most beautiful view of up and down the river; fine harbor for motor boats. This property is extremely pleasant in summer, high and healthy, and for a summer home on the water it difficult to surpass. FROCKS FOR JUNIORS.

Adult Styles Reflected in Girlish Gowns—Importance of Hosiery And Footwear—Musquetaire Bags And Sashes.

Never has there been a prettier showing in junior attire, or more variety of styles to choose from. Many of the prettiest frocks are extremely simple to cut and make, their attractiveness depending upon the material, coloring, and small trimming details. A few buttons placed effectively, or a contrasting collar, and matching belt furnishing the needed style.

BORDERED GOODS.

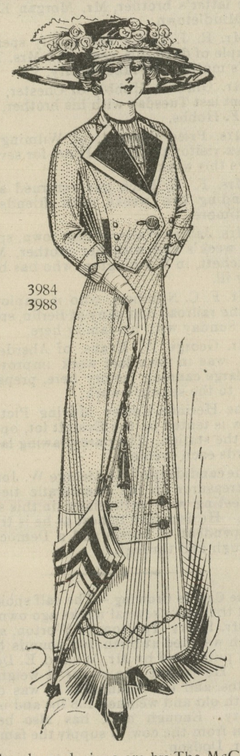

The bordered cotton and challies that the shops furnish in endless variety of coloring at various prices, help very much to lighten the labor of making up the many little garments needed to keep an active growing child neatly attired. All fitting is loose and easy and many of the prettiest frocks have the sleeves cut in one with almost all the usual seams, and requiring no buttons or other fastenings. Wide embroidered flouncings, with more muslin than embroidery, make up well in these models, and there is a liking for colored embroideries rather than all white, though the latter are always popular, and color can be introduced by the sash or ribbon runnings through the openings in the embroidery, or by colored underslips though these are not much employed for girls under twelve.

GRADUATION DRESSES.

While all white holds first with people of conservative taste for graduation gowns, delicate colors are quite permissible, and pretty printed mull and organdy make charmingly becoming frocks that require little trimming. The material itself is so ornamental that the more simply it is made the better for its best effect. White Marquisette is a favorite material for dress occasions with the girls as well as for their elders, and hems of the same stuff in rose, blue, lilac or pale yellow headed by insertions of eluny or filet lace make smart appearing frocks that can be worn on many occasions as well as for graduation. Sashes of all sorts are very much worn, the bows if tied in the back being well up toward the shoulders. Some very pretty shaped girdles have made their appearance, that lend a very stylish note to a simple frock.

A DIMITY DRESS.

A girlish frock of Irish dimity printed in a tiny yellow flower design had a shaped belt of yellow satin that ran up in sharp points almost to the top of the shoulder in the back and sloped down toward the front where it finished in a cross over effect that suggested the old time strappings of peasant bodices, black velvet piped with rose color was similarly used on a rose color and white striped cotton voile.

THE LINGERIE

The lingerie hat that is such a fitting finish for a filmy frock, comes this year in rather small shapes, many of them frankly bonnets with ribbon strings tied under the chin. Where the hats are big and flaring they are apt to be of lace stretched smoothly over a wire frame, and trimmed only with a huge ribbon bow of coral or some other fashionable tint. Many of the smaller shapes are covered with row after row of lace ruffles either softly gathered or done in small knife pleatings. Sometimes the top of the crown is covered with roses, or other flowers, sometimes little sprays are cunningly introduced here and there among the frills, sometimes a tiny border of button roses follows the line of the brim which is often bound with black velvet or satin.

CHARLOTTE CORDAY HATS.

Charlotte Corday hats with their puffy crowns of all over embroidery or lace, their pleated frilly brims headed with wreaths of many hued silk blossoms go too perfectly with the prevailing fichus of lace and linen, to be dropped, even though they have been so long with us. Few styles are more universally becoming to the girl of any age from five to twenty-five.
