WASHINGTON COLLEGE BEATS WESTERN MARYLAND.

In a game full of dash and excitement, Western Maryland College was defeated Saturday by Washington College, 2 to 1. The contest was wholly a pitchers' battle between Twigg for Western Maryland and Jarman for Washington.

The hitting was light on both sides, the fielding sharp and for the most part clean. The errors on each side did not count for runs. The victory came as a surprise to Western Maryland, owing to the fine showing the team has made this year. The home nine seemed to find itself today. The season opened badly for the locals, the University of Maryland cancelling its game and Hopkins' being postponed on account of rain.

Every man was in the game, everybody getting a chance to distinguish himself. Perhaps the bright star in the infield for Washington was Kelley at second and at the bat Captain Porter. Meekin gobbled up everything that came his way and Garrett, in center field captured some difficult flies.

Western Maryland at times showed weakness in the field, but Twigg generally delivered the goods when men were on bases. Perhaps the visitors' most fatal error occured when Beale dropped the ball on a squeeze play that failed to connect and Porter scored the first run of the game.

Two or three bunts in succession by Washington in the early part of the game seemed to rattle the visitors and after that it was hard for them to settle down. There was a large attendance at the game, visitors coming from nearby towns. Score:

TODAY'S GAMES

Double Creek at Chestertown
Centreville at Church Hill
Millington at Barclay

Chestertown High was defeated last Saturday by Millington on the latter's grounds by the close score of 8 to 7. The game was close and exciting from start to finish and was marked by a few brilliant plays, although it was next to impossible to pick up a hard struck ball in the diamond. Chestertown failed to score in the first session, but Millington scored one run on a base on balls, an error and a hit. The next scoring was done in the fourth inning, and again it was Millington who did the "stunt," rallying once more on a hit and some loose fielding. In the fifth inning the C. H. S. lads hit the spheroid hard for five safe hits and crossing the rubber plate with four men. Then Chestertown scored again in the seventh inning; but Millington scored twice in their half of the same inning. The score stood thus—5 to 4 in favor of Chestertown—until the ninth inning when Millington was at bat; with two out, two strikes on the batter and a man on first Robinson threw the ball to second base to cut off the steal, the ball went wild over Russell's head and into center field, where it was fumbled by Ford. Then it was that Millington scored again, which, of course, made the score tie. In the tenth the Chestertown boys scored two runs, but when Millington came to bat in their half they "soaked" the ball hard and crossed the rubber three times. Ahern, of Millington, played a good game and made a long hit over right field fence. Gibbs, who put 'em over for Chestertown, pitched a good game until near the end when he showed signs of weakening. The score:

Double Creek lost the sixth straight game of the season on home grounds last Saturday to Church Hill by score of 17 to 12. The feature of the game was the hitting of Carroll, Double Creek's shortstop, he getting two three-base hits, two two-base hits and a single out of as many trips to bat. Batteries—Double Creek, Sparks and Stevens; Church Hill, Bowers and Clark.

Clark; pianist, Miss Lillian Matthews; organist, Miss Daisy Barnes.

Preaching at Westminister Presbyterian Church 10.30 a. m. Grace Church 3.00 p. m. Worton Church 7.30 p. m., by the Rev. J. Gilfillan on Sunday May 14th.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

Mr. A. A. Tolson has been appointed sexton of the M. E. Church.

Mr. E. E. Leary has constructed a new pile-driver to be used on the wharf in repair work.

Mr. John M. Hersch, of the Maryland Dredging Co., is spending a season with his family at this place.

Mrs. Ella Levey and son, of the city, are guests of their sisters and aunts, the Misses Ryan, for the summer.

Mrs. Annie M. Boyer, of the city, is a visitor at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Nettie Harrison, South Rock Hall.

At the town election last Saturday Messrs. J. A. Casey, Jos. Downey, John Joiner, Max Alexander and Henry Urie were elected councillors for the current year.

Mr. Henry R. Beck, of Rock Hall, visited his brother, Mr. Wm. Beck, of Betterton, this week. Although nearly 77 years old, he made the entire trip on foot, and can keep up with most of the younger men now when it comes to a day's work. His brother, William, is 72, and can still hoe a day now with very little fatigue.

A few weeks ago a lot of us greatly complained about so much wet weather. Now the dryness of the weather is racking our nerves. How unreasonable we mortals are!

Mr. Alexander's store in South Rock Hall, which has been closed for a number of years, has been restocked with new goods of a general line and reopened, Mr. A. having personal charge, and promising a "square deal" to all comers.

Mrs. Mary Harrison has applied a new coat of paint to her dwelling, which makes a fine improvement. Owing to the greatly increased price of paint, a number of dwellings in this section, which need new coats, will go without, or a substitute for paint will be used.

There was a large assembly at the M. E. Church Sunday morning and the pastor, Rev. Mr. Corkran, delivered a fine sermon on the subject of Light in the World, from the text, "Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your Father who is in heaven."—Matt. 5: 16.

These Grange reports in each issue of the KENT NEWS make interesting reading sure. The farmers of this section are neglecting the opportunity to put themselves in touch with one of the most instructive and enlightening features of the present day educational institutions in the agricultural field.

Born we are and still on life's journey. We know not what may buck up against us, therefore let us suspend judgment on floating rumors until a fair and impartial investigation reveals the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth. The Book says "Judge not that ye be not judged, for with what judgment ye judge ye shall be judged, and with what measure ye mete it shall be measured to you again."

Spiritual Unity, Harmony and Accord, the grand means of advancing Christ's cause and saving sinners, was the theme of a forceful sermon preached by Dr. Sheridan in Wesley Chapel last Sunday night, before a large congregation. His text was, "They were all with one accord in one place."—Acts 2: 1. The President seemed to be at his physical best, in a strong clear voice. It was a splendid treat to listen to him. He gave a glowing report of the work accomplished in the Maryland M. P. Conference the past year. He also paid a high tribute to Wesley Chapel congregation and their pastor.

SOCIETY VAUDEVILLE

A delightful entertainment was given in Stam's Hall two nights this week for benefit of Town Improvement under the direct management of Mrs. Hope H. Barroll. The committees comprised: dramas, Mrs. Hope H. Barroll, Mrs. Finley, Misses Ruby Ahern, Louisa Urie and Mr. Hopkins; music, Misses Ethel Price, Helen Boyd, Ruby Ahern, James Bacchus; caromels, Mrs. Allen Harris, Mrs. W. B. Copper, Mrs. C. R. Twilley; ushers, Rebecca Toulson, Lillian Stam, Estelle Anthony, Edith Harley, Susie Dunbracco.

The program Monday evening included a cute recitation by little Miss Cora McWhorter, a sketch entitled, "William" by C. T. Ryan, H. P. Ray, Mrs. Mary Fitch, Misses Louisa Urie, Marghuerita Dodd; also a farce "Truth" by Misses Lucy Branhan, Ruby Ahern, Elizabeth Russell, Joseph N. Wheatley, J. P. Wilkinson.

Drills in which the following participated were especially enjoyed: Morris Barroll, Edna Kirby, Anna Little, Lillian Anthony, Helen Connelly, Irene Kirby, Rebecca Kendall, Grace Nickerson, Anna Duyer, Grace Bennett, Mary Virginia Jones, Emily Lusby, "Billy" Usilton, Harriett Reed, Helen Simpers, Estha Urie, Harriett Welch, Margaret Smith, Irene Kirby, Claude Parks, Jr., Lloyd Connelly, Merritt Page Beck, Mary Rogers Hynson, Sarah Coleman, Grace Bennett, Rebecca Kendall, Grace Nickerson, Anna Duyer, Elizabeth Reed.

Selections from Mikado made a hit by the following: Messrs. J. H. Thompson, Dan Hall, Emerson Sparks, Arthur Madden, D. B. Ford, Misses Ethel Gale, Alberta Cornelius, Lulah Harrison, Estalena Derringer, Carmeta Russell, Ida Smith, Ruth Clendaniel, Marie Jervis, Marie Gillespie, Josephine Wheatley, Marian Horn, Anna Jones. The suffragette speech by Miss Louisa Urie was great, her advocates being Misses Rebecca and Gladys Aldridge, Addie Gale, Marie Jervis, Helen Urie and Elizabeth Connelly.

The Spanish dance by Miss Derringer and Mr. Morris Barroll under the training of Miss Miriam Hubbard was specially enjoyable. Daniel H. Hall and Miss Lillian Anthony sang appreciative solos.

Tuesday night's program included a beautifully rendered solo by Mrs. Fitch, a recitation by Russell Wheatley, well-rendered solos by Miss Ida Smith, A. B. Madden and Daniel H. Hall, together with a sketch, "The Bowery Night School," by Jas. L. Bacchus, J. A. Hackett, J. P. Wilkinson, D. H. Hall, J. N. Wheatley, J. A. Ciminera, A. B. Madden, H. W. Krantz, C. M. Stauffer. "I'm looking for a Sweetheart," by Misses Lucy Branhan, Addie Gale, Gladys and Rebecca Aldridge, Joe Hackett. Morris Barroll, Lee Ford, Paul Wilkinson, was also a feature besides other numbers. The Society cleared about $250.

Another specially fine program will be presented next Saturday evening in Firemen's Hall, May 20th.

STILL POND ITEMS.

Professor Hanz. Bornshein and wife of the Peabody Institute, who are to give an entertainment in Harper's Hall on Monday eve, May 15th, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Harris, at Howell's Point, near Betterton.

A treat is in store for all who will attend the M. E. Church next Sunday. Sunday-school at 9.30, preaching at 10.45. Prof. Franz Bornschein, of the Peabody Institute, and his wife, Mrs. Hazel Knox Bornschein, an elegant reader and reciter, also an accomplished singer, will render service with vocal and instrumental music with the violin to the glory of God. The preacher, Rev. J. H. Beauchamp, D. D., will preach, his subject being "Christ's Cure for the Blues." Text, Matt. 11: 4, 6. Epworth League at 7.30, led by Mrs. Wm. Medders. Subject, "The Evidence of Divine Blessing and Prosperity." Public invited. The Sunday-school is preparing for Children's Day with the Methodist Book Concern program. It is desired that all the children be present Sunday morning for that purpose.

Thursday of last week at the Ladies' Aid meeting at Mrs. Julian Jones', Mrs. J. H. Beauchamp received as a token of love and appreciation from the ladies of tho Aid, church and community three pieces of handsome cut glass. It was presented by Mrs. J. Horton Kelley in fitting words for the occasion, to which Mrs. Beauchamp responded with gratitude and appropriate words.

Don't miss the recital Monday night at Harper's Hall. For the Ladies' Aid.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mrs. Margaret McGugan, wife of Mr. John McGugan, of Shrewsbury Neck, this county, died on Monday afternoon last at two o'clock of pneumonia, aged 81 years. Reqiem Mass was celebrated at St. Dennis church, Galena, on Friday morning at ten o'clock. Rev. J. A. Daily, assisted by Rev. J. C. Connely officiating. Interment was in St. Dennis cemetery, near Lambsons. Undertaker W. H. Krusen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Mrs. Eva P. Schwatka died at Union Hospital, Elkton, April 12th, after three week's illness of peritonitis, aged 21 years and 6 months. She is survived by her husband and little daughter seventeen months old, her parents, four brothers and three sisters.

The candidacy of Mr. George W. Jones for treasurer on the Democratic ticket is meeting with enthusiasm in this section. He is a man honest as he is true, independent of bosses and a Democrat through and through.

The Calf Is Growing.—The calf spoken of in the NEWS several weeks ago owned by Mr. Harry Toulson, of Worton, and which weighed at birth 106 pounds has been purchased by Mr. Willard E. Dodson. He says at two weeks it weighed 137 lbs. and on Wednesday it was one month old and weighed 198 lbs and is a beauty. Enough milk has also been taken from the cow to supply the family of Mr. Dodson.

JOSEPH GUEST calls attention to the public that he has but a limited amount of black death bug killer on hand. Early callers only can be supplied. He also offers for sale—balance of his stock in trade consisting of rubber roofing, water paints, house hold goods and lots of other goods, also one two seated spring dearborn, york carriage and lot of tools and all his real estate. See adv. in another column.

KENNEDYVILLE NOTES

The Kennedyville order, Patrons of Husbandry, was well represented at the special service on Sunday morning, with many strangers present. The church was well filled with a most interesting audience. The Grangers met in Weer's Hall and marched to the church in a body, double file, led by Mr. George R. Rasin, the popular Worthy Master, and the pastor of the church. The brand new badges are very artistic, adding very much to the appearance of the Order. Quite a good supply of inspiring music was given, with Miss Lulu Van-Dyke at the organ and Mr. Edgar R. Pennington cornetist. A number of Scripture passages were read by the pastor bearing on husbandry and the cultivation of the soil, the first being that of Adam in the Garden of Eden, "to dress it and to keep it." The second reading included some of the parables given by Jesus on Seed Sowing and Husbandry. The subject of the pastor's discourse was, "Leading Principles and Fundamental Articles of Faith." Many expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the service.

Mr. Isaac Cleaver attended church service Sunday morning, after an absence of about six months because of illness. Mr. Cleaver has served the church for many years as chairman of the board of stewards with marked success. Every body seemed delighted to see him in his accustomed place in church. He is looking exceedingly well, and we hope his health may be continued for years to come.

Mr. Walter E. Hill and bride have been visiting the parents of the groom for the past few days, Capt. and Mrs. Daniel Hill.

Miss Bell, former teacher at Kennedyville, spent Saturday evening and part of Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Elisa T. Othoson and Miss Lulu Vandyke. Miss Bell is a great favorite in and around Kennedyville and many were delighted to see her in the Sunday school and church service at the M. P. Church on Sunday morning.

A special service in the interest of music is to be given in the M. P. Church on Sunday, the 21st inst., at 10.30 a. m.

The first rehearsal will take place in the church Friday evening next at 7.30 o'clock. All lovers of music, instrumental and vocal, are most cordially invited to be on hand and take part in the rehearsals. Particulars later.

Mr. L. A. Pennington is making rapid progress on the extensive porches to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Weer's attractive home.
