SATURDAY, MAY 20, 1911.

H. W. VICKERS, JR., ESQ., refuses to sign the "Barroll Slavery Bill." What are you going to do about it?

HON. J. H. BAKER in willing his property during his life has set an example worthy of emulation. He thus saves costs, contests, etc.

THE Barroll organ is angry now because it has a guardian and the NEWS hasn't. In its last issue it says the NEWS editors need a guardian. We know no guardian, Boss nor dictator but stand as the defenders of the people in this contest for independence and freedom.

THE town commissioners are to be congratulated upon the system inaugurated of giving Chestertown a thorough cleaning. Two wagons have been busy all this week hauling ashes, dirt, cans, etc., etc. Every citizen should co-operate heartily and keep his yard clean.

MR. ROE'S DENIAL

On another page of this issue of the NEWS will be found Mr. Thomas C. Roe's letter in which he denies the statements made in the NEWS editorials of last week and the week previous. It is surely a pitiable effort of defense and could not have been revised by his dictator, else some statements would not have been admitted. And yet there are other details contained therein which give one the impression that they were inspired by him.

We had intended giving statements from prominent citizens whom Mr. Roe had approached in reference to his independent candidacy but since he admits this in his letter this fact is not to be disputed. He says he did approach Mr. John Clendaniel. Yes, and also many others, but this will suffice to prove to you that what the NEWS stated was true!

He says, "I have never asked the editors of the KENT NEWS for their support, etc." This is to speak mildly an untruth, and Mr. Roe knows it. Even during Court and a few days before he signed the "slavery bill" he came to the NEWS office and solicited our support in the presence of both editors—at least one of us was in our private office where every word uttered by Mr. Roe was heard—affirming his independence and stating that he was the candidate of no faction.

Further, when he was appointed clerk to the Board of Assessors, he consulted S. Scott Beck, Esq., and the senior editor of the NEWS as to the effect it would have on his candidacy, and at that time he stated that he was the candidate of no faction and did not want to do anything that would lose him the support of the organization. He consulted others and concluded that as he was an independent candidate he could not accept the position and so refused it. If he did not ask the support of the NEWS why did he come to us for advice in furtherance of his candidacy?

Mr. Roe further says, "If the NEWS had done the honorable thing and announced me as the candidate of both factions of the party it would have placed me in a different light before the people of this county."

Well, well, Mr. Roe did you read the NEWS' endorsement of your candidacy? You surely did not for here are the words, "Mr. Roe puts party above faction, knows no Boss, etc. He has been presented as a candidate by friends and leaders of the party in the First district, etc." This was written after our interview with you and upon representations made by you that you were not the candidate of any faction! So that we did the honorable thing according to your interpretation.

Did Mr. Roe do the honorable thing? After soliciting our support upon the terms mentioned above he signs a "slavery bill" in which he virtually states that he is the candidate of the Barroll faction!

In another paragraph Mr. Roe not only admits stating to the NEWS and to others that he was no Barroll candidate but reaffirms same and says "I know no political boss in this contest!" Is there any need for further proof of the fallacy of this statement than the signing of the "Barroll Slavery Bill." Mr. Roe did not want to sign the edict but after frequent and persistent efforts on the part of Mr. Barroll and his lieutenants finally yielded. As he lifted the pen from off his name it is reported he turned to Mr. Barroll and said, "Well I hope you are satisfied now you have made me opposition." Mr. Barroll is reported to have replied, "——, you are no better to have opposition than any of the others!" And then upon reporting the occurrence to two men he summed up the whole affair in these words, "I had to do it!" We do not blame him for trying to think he has no boss, but he will never make the public believe it after such an exhibition!

As to his denial of speaking derogatory of the Catholics we know nothing of it and are surprised that he should have even mentioned the matter.

IN the death of WM. A. HYLAND Kent has lost an honorable, upright and industrious citizen. He has left an heritage to his family better than gold and gone to be at rest in the home of which he loved to sing and talk about.

THE Supreme Court has decided that the Standard Oil Company must be dissolved. There is no law by which competition can be stopped, and there is no law to compel competition. It is the life of trade and the stimulus to all human energy. But the Supreme Court has laid down the dictum that the common law must stand and that only unjust, unfair and unreasonable competition must be checked—oppressive competition, as was charged against the oil company.

HORROR of horrors! Wasn't it awful! For more than six months the Barroll organ has weekly been attacking first one person then another, first this act is criticised then the other, nothing is right until it is called a "scold." The NEWS has looked on with satisfaction knowing that as in the case of the calf given too much rope they would soon break their own necks? Now when the NEWS tightens up on the rope with which they have done the deed they squeal and bellow, rare and snort! Keep it up, boys.

THE movement for a popular civic demonstration to Cardinal Gibbons in honor of his twenty-fifth anniversary as a cardinal and his golden jubilee as a priest was formally inaugurated Tuesday night, when Governor Crothers announced a committee which, on behalf of the State, will assist in arrangements. The demonstration is designed as a recognition of the influence which he has exercised for high ideals in citizenship and patriotism. It is intended to honor James Gibbons, the great American, rather than the Cardinal in his relationship to the church. Dr. J. W. Cain and Mr. James T. Dixon have been named as committee from Kent.

STEM WINDING REFORMER.

Editors Kent News:

Will you kindly let me have space to say a few words to my friends, and too, to some I would like to call and recognize as being friendly to the cause of democracy, as we are approaching a primary election.

To begin, I wish to say first of all that the Democratic party in the county and in the State has been conservative and never radical since I have been plodding my wheat, grass and corn fields, a period of half a century.

Leaders have come and gone who led and piloted in the larger measure with wisdom and forethought in this dear old county of Kent; in morals, in finance, in truth, and in politics, until she blossomed as the rose, and dissentions and falsehood and hypocracy were practically unknown. Until a few years ago, the contests on primary occasions were fought out with industry and warmth, yet with the absence of braying or the deluding Jasper, whose special claim was "to knock the scales from the eyes of the people."

I love the party, its principles, its voters and its accomplishments, and am hoping that conservative council will prevail; that sham and abuse will be relegated to the rear for at least another generation, indeed it should have died when it was borning, and I therefore commend your special efforts not to abuse individuals or contemporaries.

Yes, within a past few years, a new Moses has arisen; the wild-eyed, hot-headed, stem-winding reformer. He pretends to have seen things awful and unapproachable. There is a truism that some dispositions in their imaginations fly skyward, then in the opposite direction, then to the right and to the left, not even knowing they fail to exercise common sense. What cares he for the success of the party in November so his castigating ambition is gratified? Its strange, awful and fearfully strange, that young men in Chestertown and elsewhere in the county, whose forefathers were intelligent and intellectual, should respond to the dictates of this stem-winding reformer: write for him what he says, sign papers as he dictates saying whose candidates they are, etc.

Under such conditions, Americanism takes flight, independence trails in the dust, and the one-time man is just a Jump Jack, ready to kick his legs when the string is pulled for fear of the "Boss" butcher knife or the battle-axe with which he is to be be-headed.

When I take up one of your contemporaries to read, I am AMAZED when I note its guerrilla tactics on decency in its villification of some of Kent's best citizens in particular and the organization voters in general. My hair has grown gray, but I have not lost confidence in the assertive manhood of my neighbors and large acquaintance throughout the county. No, gentlemen, my old democratic spirit bristles for the truth and against falsehood and the guerrilla tactics, that must eventually destroy the party's influence and endanger its success, unless checked.

I am optimistic enough to anticipate an overwhelming defeat for this self-appointed leader, and then we will get back to the old time, "Hello, John, you win and I lose, (when the primary is over) let's have a good old-fashioned handshake," and work and pray that this guerrilla-spit-devil sort of politics be forever a thing of the past.

ANOTHER DEMOCRAT.

THE ANTI-BOSS CANDIDATES

The following excellent array of Democrats have been presented to the Democratic voters for their consideration at the coming primaries.
