LIGHTNING IN KENT.

Bolt Bursts in Parlor at Gratitude Injuring One Woman And Stunning Six.

From an eyewitness were learned the details of a thunderstorm in which several Baltimoreans narrowly escaped death by being struck by lightning Friday night at Gratitude, this county.

As Mrs. Hannah Alexander, 2104 Brookfield avenue, and six other ladies and children were sitting in the parlor of the cottage of Mrs. Caroline Baer, at Gratitude, a storm came up and a bolt of lightning came down the lightning rod. It tore through the outside wall of the house and exploded in the midst of the crowd in the room.

Everyone in the room was stunned for several seconds, deafened and blinded by the noise and clash. They were too frightened to cry out. All except Mrs. Leopold Stern, 2416 McCulloh street, were found to be uninjured. Mrs. Stern was struck on the right leg and severely burned. The bolt, which tore through a board wall and knocked off planks and plastering, exploded at her feet and burned a mark as large as a dollar on her leg and a streak down to her foot. She was attended immediately by a physician, and though not yet able to walk, returned to Baltimore this week.

The fiery ball, after dancing around the room, exploded like a big bombshell right at the foot of Mrs. Stern. It filled the room with smoke.

Among those in the room besides Mrs. Alexander and Mrs. Stern, were Mrs. Julius Kemper, 2229 Brookfield avenue; her son, William Kemper; Misses Carylyn, Selma and Babetto Stern, Dora Simon and Bettie Aaron.

Six Horses Killed Yesterday

Yesterday morning six horses belonging to Mr. W. J. Beck were killed by lightning on the farm of Mr. Samuel Vannort, near Melitota. Seven horses were under a tree at the time, only one escaping. They were insured in the Continental, J. G. Bock, agent.
