What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heart-burn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach gnaw or burn, foul breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, torpid liver with indigestion, or dyspepsia. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. A glance at these will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of native American medical, forest plants. MODES IN DRESS

The Derby and Grand Prix Races are over and dresses, suits, coats and hats worn there will set the modes for months to come, since these are the last events in the great world of Paris and London where prominent dressmakers can exploit their designs, and see which find acceptance with the best dressed women in the throng of fashionables that represent the entire world. This year at the French race American women were among the best turned out.

BLACK AND WHITE.

The combination of black and white was a notable feature. One well-known member of the smart set wore a white satin tailor made with a large black hat. Another an eyelet embroidered lingerie gown over black satin. A black and white striped silk tailor made with an all white hat was a third much-admired get up.

HATS AND PARASOLS MATCH COATS.

Many dresses of white lingerie were worn with black or colored silk coats, and with these the hat and parasol matched the coat. A practical fashion for women of limited means as well as for people who dress without regard to cost.

Some of the stunning white gowns worn were trimmed with black and black hats accompanied them. Similar suits were made up with colored satin collars, buttons and ties. The hats and parasols matched in color.

Skirts were short and narrow and very girlish on the right figures. Floating panels back and front modified the severeness of these where the figure needed concealment, and trimmings were placed on these extra pieces.

The above design is by The McCal Company, New York, Designers and Makers of McCall Patterns.

POINTS TO BE EMPHASIZED

Wherever the trimmings are placed on a dress or hat there the eye is attracted, so if a woman wishes to divert attention from the size of her waist, it is well to have that part plain and trimming placed near the bottom of the skirt. It is because the eye follows the trimmings that a row of buttons down the skirt adds to the effect of height.

Fancy belts and hanging knick-knacks are only for the slender; a big neck wants a plain collar, and well shaped shoulders are better displayed if some ornamental cut or detail calls attention to them. With some study the best points can be emphasized in dress and defects lost sight of.

PUFF CROWNED HATS

Hats with puffed crowns of lace in black or white or black over white are among the late summer fancies seen at the races and much liked on this side of the pond. Frilly brims often go with them but more often the brim is wired and made of lace or straw. Covering the crowns of black straw hats with white lace of decided mesh and pattern is another late idea. No other trimming is used except an aigrette of lace or flowers or feathers.
