PUBLISHERS AND EDITORS.

SATURDAY, JULY 15, 1911.

Anonymous Communications.—We receive a number of letters with no name signed to them, and of course they are not published. We must know the authors of all communications to the KENT NEWS. This week we received an able article signed "Vox Populi," a strong arraignment of Mr. Barroll for his despicable personal letter and dragging into his maelstrom the name of one of Kent's fair and lovable ladies. If the author will send his name we will be in a position to publish it.

In this connection we would also state that obituary verses are charged for at the rate of five cents per line, and the money must accompany same.

THE oystermen now know what Mr. Foxwell did for them in the Senate—he voted for the Haman oyster bill.

THE Barroll organ cries, "Keep the schools out of politics!" Who put them in? See answer in another column.

"WHOM the gods would destroy they first make mad!" Keep sweet, Mr. Barroll, it may be you have learned a lesson.

THE use of the names of Kent's refined ladies by Mr. Barroll in his efforts to make a political point shows to what ends he will go. Keep it up, Mr. Barroll. You and your organ are making votes for the Organization weekly.

THE Barroll organ admits that they desire to return to the old plan of managing the roads! What do you think of this, Mr. Taxpayer? Under the old system the roads cost over $35,000. Under the present system the cost is not over $16,000.

THE Barroll organ claims a difference of $142.09 in the expense of conducting the office of the county commissioners in 18 months. Mr. Dodd last week shows by indisputable proof that these figures are false, and that the present board has exceeded the old board by $244.52! It makes a big difference who does the figuring.

THE Suffragette meeting held on the Court House green Tuesday afternoon was attended by 15 ladies, 14 men, some boys and girls. Dr. L. E. Barrett presided and made a short address. The speakers were Dr. Donald Hooker, Mrs. Melvin, Miss Melvin and Miss Virginia, each of whom held the closest attention of all. Great oaks from little acorns grow, so that this small beginning of the new movement in Kent may be but a forerunner of great things.

MR. FOXWELL ADMITS IT!

Hope H. Barroll Writes a Letter For Mr. Foxwell Stating That He Voted For The Haman Oyster Law.

The fact that Mr. Garrett Foxwell voted for the Haman oyster law when in the Senate has been spoken of by the large body of oystermen in lower Kent, and this action severely censured. Many of his friends have stated that they would not believe it unless they saw the Senate Journal. The NEWS had the proof but preferred to wait until a statement was forthcoming.

It came, but from the Boss himself! Yes, Mr. Foxwell's name was at the bottom of it, but it was the product of the Boss' pen and bore his every mark.

If Kent county in that fight had of had a man like Mr. William W. Beck the Haman law would have been a dead law. He is resourceful, a ready speaker, has the facts in hand and knows the needs of the oystermen.

This same law will be up for amendment next year and the oystermen with MR. WM. W. BECK on the scene will have an able defender and a true friend. It is with this knowledge that so many are enlisting under the Organization banner of Beck, Ayres, Redmile, Jones, Brice, Ernest, Vandyke, Simpers, Nicholson, Mann and Clayton.

THE COMPARISON.

Under the old road system the roads cost from $30,000 to $40,000. Tax rate $1.85 in 1910.	During first year under the new road law the roads cost $16,000! Tax Rate $1.22 in 1911. Will be less in 1912.

Mr. Tax-Payer are you interested in having this system continued and your taxes decreased. This is one of the planks of the platform on which the Organization asks support.

WHAT A SHAME.

"Lest we forget," published in the NEWS last week seems to have awakened memories in Mr. Barroll's mind and that of his organ, which like Banquo's ghost, scares them into hysterics. The Barroll organ starts one article thus:

"IT IS A SHAME to drag the public schools of the county into politics. The schools have been out of politics since the Antis have been in control of affairs," etc.

Mr. Barroll's idea, and of course his organ has the same, is to change things to his liking or control and then hold up their hands in holy horror when attention is called to it.

The schools of Kent county never were dragged into politics until Mr. Foxwell got into the Senate and under the direction Mr. Barroll turned out Mr. John P. Ahern and others. But the people repudiated this sort of Bossism and put Mr. Ahern back again and he is proving his sterling worth and efficiency.

Will the voters of Kent vote for the Barroll candidates and allow the Boss to kick Mr. Ahern or others out. We don't think so.

But this was not all. The public school trustees were the next prey. As soon as the opportunity offered the Boss made a clean sweep of the trustees that were not to his liking. Men and women that had served long years faithfully, and to the satisfaction of their communities, were deliberately turned out and his own favorites elected!

Men like John S. Newnam and J. B. Stevens in the first district were put out, also R. W. Comegys and J. P. Ahern. The late Thomas J. Shallcross, who had given his time and money for the building for a school house, was ruthlessly put out and a Republican put in his place. Why? Because the Boss could not put a collar on him!

Dr. E. A. Scott, an intelligent and progressive citizen of Galena was also pitched out upon orders of the Boss and a Republican appointed.

Hon. William T. Hepbron, that hero of many political battles and a man deeply interested in public schools, was also the object of the Boss' spleen. He was replaced by Mr. Robert R. Hill!

But why go further? The Boss' hand was seen in every district. Even in Chestertown, a collegiate graduate, good citizen and father of an interesting family, Mr. Wm. F. Russell, was not to his liking and was ordered out.

His hand was thrust further still into this great institution of the people and his disposition seemed next to dictate the appointment of teachers. The late lamented Examiner Peterson came under his frown because he would not do his bidding.

The Boss' record is well-known. He has raised this issue which will not down. "The public school," says one "are as the ark of the covenant, and the man who lays profane hands upon them will dearly rue it in the end."

What The Oystermen Demand.

The Maryland Oyster Association urges upon the next Legislature the passage of new laws, providing that:

Seed oysters and shells shall be transplanted to natural bottoms and all seed oysters should be kept within the limits of the State for planting purposes.

The cull laws should be enforced on the natural rocks instead of at the wharves.

The present system of policing shall be superceded by more modern methods and equipment.

The size of marketable oysters should be three inches in diameter instead of 2½ inches, the required size at present.

Governor Crothers praised the activity of the members and advocated the assembling next month of oystermen from all tide-water counties in a big "get-together" meeting.

"KEEP IT UP."

The "would be Boss" of Kent County stung to the quick by mention of his revolutionary regime in the school affairs of Kent when in power, has seen fit to publish a personal letter in his organ which opens as follows:

The editorial, "Lest We Forget," in the Kent News last week, is especially applicable to the Editors of the Kent News. Particularly so when they recall the letter of Senator Foxwell published in January 1904, which showed who Fred G. Usilton was and how he advised good straight Democrats to vote against the Democratic ticket in 1899 when Mr. H. W. Vickers was running for the Senate.

The letter referred to above, written by Mr. Hope H. Barroll, assaulting good men who had been friends of Mr. Garrett Foxwell, and to which Mr. Foxwell had to sign his name, is well remembered by friends of these good men. The men assaulted in this Barroll letter are now sleeping beneath the sod, so that in order to bring it up to date he uses Mr. Fred. G. Usilton's name.

As was said by the loved ones mentioned in that letter so Mr. Usilton answers, viz, it is a malicious falsehood and Mr. Barroll knows it. His object is to prejudice the friends of the late H. W. Vickers! But these men know Mr. Barroll too well not to be able to see the purpose of the malicious attack.

Keep it up.

A CARD.

Being continually asked my intentions, I hereby wish to announce my candidacy for Sheriff. Having been always a staunch Democrat and a hard, faithful worker for the party, and having never been favored with an office, and as there has not been a Sheriff from the First District for 28 years and none in the vicinity of Millington, I ask the earnest consideration of my name by the voters at the primaries. If elected I shall certainly appoint a good business deputy to eliminate any embarrassment to the public or court on account of my difficulty of hearing. Yours truly,
