Organization Candidates.

The people of Kent county are becoming more and more impressed with the importance of having men in office who belong to no one man, and who have some independence in deciding matters for the public good rather than to please the Boss. The following fine array of candidates have been presented to the voters of Kent by friends in the several districts, and we have every assurance that they will merit the endorsement of all Democrats.

WM. W. BECK, ESQ., at a great sacrifice, has consented to serve his fellow Democrats as a candidate for the State Senate. His eminent fitness for the position is acknowledged by friend and foe, and in him the people of this county would have a representative unequaled by any other county in the State; a credit to his party and county; a man who would know how to vote on all questions without dictation or delay; a man alive to the best interests of his county and in every respect a candidate for whom it is a pleasure to vote.

Mr. Beck's associates are also men of high character and will make worthy representatives. Mr. LOUIS C. AYRES, of near Tolchester, has been prevailed upon by friends to be a candidate for the House of Delegates, and has made an active canvas. Mr. Ayres is a representative citizen known to the fishermen, oystermen, farmers and business men, a man of the people who knows their needs, and will do all in his power to fulfill them. Honest, upright, kind, and beloved by nearly everybody, is LOUIS C. AYRES.

Mr. JOHN C. REDMILE, of near Kennedyville, is the other candidate for the House of Delegates. As one man remarked, "Men are not made any better than John Redmile." He is an ideal candidate and will sweep the county, his home district especially doing the honors. Mr. Redmile is a well-known farmer of near Kennedyville, an upright gentleman, of high character, intelligent and industrious, and will add great strength to the Democratic ticket. It is hard to get such men to serve and the voters should show their appreciation by giving him a big vote.

For the office of Treasurer sterling Democrats of the First district have presented Mr. GEORGE W. JONES, of Millington, and in his canvas he has met with a warm reception. Mr. Jones is a farmer living just outside of Millington. His father was the late James R. Jones, beloved by everyone. Mr. Jones is an honest, industrious, conscientious and true citizen, and wears no man's collar, nor has to sign any paper in order for his constituents to know his position. He is an active Granger also. He is deserving of the office and has the sympathy and support of a large following.

The Democratic party and the public in general have been fortunate in Kent in having as Judges of the Orphans' Court men of ability and character. JUDGE SAMUEL MANN, of Lynch, is an industrious and prosperous farmer, a good Democrat and independent of Boss dictation. The other two members are CHIEF JUDGE JOHN H. SIMPERS and JOHN P. NICHOLSON, whom the people should return to the office. They have served now long enough to know the duties of the position, and are therefore better fitted to discharge the duties of the office. They are all men of high character, of business ability and specially suited to look after the business which comes before them.

For County Commissioner of the First district, Mr. JOHN F. ERNEST needs no introduction to our readers. He is a true and tried servant of the people and no one ever questions his position on any question or policy. He is a merchant and land owner and interested in economical management of the county's affairs. He was county commissioner in 1885-89, during which years the tax rate was 90, 86, 91 and 88 cents respectively, and Mr. Ernest was influential in keeping the rate down.

Democrats of the Fourth and Seventh districts have gotten the consent of a good Democrat to serve as a candidate for County Commissioner—Mr. GEORGE BRICE. Everyone who knows Mr. Brice feels kindly toward him and recognize in him a man who will do his duty in whatever position he is placed. He is now farming on the Constable farm, near Lankford, and is interested in the economical management of the county affairs. He is a son of the late John Brice, an untiring worker in the ranks of his party, a brother to Messrs. Tylden, John and Joseph Brice, and connected with other forceful influences. He is a representative of the younger element and will get a large vote and make an efficient member of the levy court. He is a man who puts party first and is ever ready to work for its success.

In the Second district the name of Mr. THOMAS P. VANDYKE is presented as the candidate for Commissioner. Mr. VanDyke has been one of the people for many years, knowing what hard work is from a boy, and by economy and frugal habits saving a competence. He would also make a good man to save the taxpayers' money in the management of county affairs. Mr. VanDyke is a hustler and worthy of support.

Mr. WM. W. CLAYTON'S candidacy for Sheriff is gaining ground weekly and the more the people know of him, his life and habits, the more hearty will they rally to his support for Sheriff of Kent county. He is a faithful member of the P. O. S. of A. and Junior Order of American Mechanics, and interested in the observance of law and order.

It is said that the Barroll faction of the Kent Democracy have determined to try to turn out the county Central Committee and elect a new committee. To this end movements are on foot in all the districts.

There is no good reason for any such action. The present committee is one of the best we have had in the county. They will be in hearty accord with the ticket nominated and all will leave nothing undone to secure the election of every candidate. Why then should they be substituted by new and possibly untried men.

The right-thinking, fair-minded democrats of the county will not permit such action, we are sure, if they will but give it a moment's thought. Yet such a result may be brought about by indifference or an over sanguine feeling on the part of the friends of the present committee. Let this not be. But see to it that the voters mark in the square opposite the names of CHARLES L. DODD, GEORGE E. PARROTT, WILLIAM J. IVENS.

CHARES L. DODD is certainly worthy the votes of every Democrat without regard to faction. He works day and night for the success of his party, doesn't flinch at any duty and never sulks. MR. GEORGE E. PARROTT is an intelligent farmer of Still Pond neighborhood and has but recently been named on the committee. He is capable and broad minded and should also receive the unanimous endorsement of his party. MR. WILLIAM J. IVENS, a merchant of Worton, has made a faithful official. He is justly popular and always gives his hearty support to the ticket when nominated. Vote for these three men and the party affairs will be well administered.

Kent county is entitled to three votes in the State Convention and the Organization presents to the voters three excellent men, viz., E. THOMAS MASSEY, of Massey, FRANK CROW, of near Fairlee, and J. CHARLES WILSON, of near Rock Hall.

THE Grange picnic was an enjoyable occasion. The conduct was ideal end was commeated on by the older men, who had been accustomed to seeing a great deal of liquor, &c., dispensed on such occasions. Public sentiment is bringing better conditions. It was a commendable affair and should become an annual feature. Kent and Queen Anne's mingled together as one family.

THE NEWS, which is the representative of the Organization in Kent, of course, is in enthusiastic accord with the other counties in their support of Senator Arthur P. Gorman, Jr., for Governor. The NEWS' hesitation in making this announcement was because of its personal friendship and admiration of Governor Crothers. His withdrawal from the contest makes the way clear to a hearty support of Mr. Gorman. Of course there are voters in both factions who will support Senator Lee, and he is a fine man; but Kent county without a doubt will give the Organization State and local ticket a fine majority.

Some persons uncharitable blame Mr. Gorman for being the son of his father, whom they did not admire; but young Gorman cannot help that, and the people who had such feeling are rapidly coming to an attitude of fairness, the spirit of fair play which inspires most Americans, to judge a man not by his father or his forefathers, but by his own merits. Mr. Gorman is as much different from his father as the East is from the West Young Gorman, now forty years of age, is open-handed, open-hearted, plain as an old shoe—a man of his word. He means what he says and does what he promises. He is a graduate of good schools in Washington and Columbia University, and studied law under the late John P. Poe in Baltimore He is fond of farm life, however, and gives very little attention to his law practice, preferring the life of a farmer. Although worth his million, he throws off his coat and does actual farm work. He is athletic, of powerful build, a fighter who never gives up till he has won out. He will be an ideal candidate for the Democracy of Maryland and will be the next Governor of the State.

He has the support of the Organization in the city of Baltimore and the State, either or both of which would be gladly accepted by Senator Lee.

KEEP IT UP!

The following interview took place a few days ago between Mr. Barroll and an independent voter up the county who had not decided as to whom he would support.

Mr. B.—Well, Mr. S., who are you in favor of for the Senate?

Mr. S.—Have not made up my mind.

Mr. B.—I'd like for you to vote for my man, Garrett Foxwell.

Mr. S.—What does he stand for?

Mr. B—He is in favor of putting the roads back in the hands of the commissioners.

Mr. S.—What does Mr. Beck stand for?

Mr. B.—He wants the new road system.

Mr. S.—Well sir, I am glad you came to see me. I shall vote for Mr. Beck, because the system for which he stands has only cost us $16,000 while your system cost $35,000 and over!

Mr. B.—Good-day, Mr. S.

WHY not make it unanimous? Every day the indications point to the big victory for the Organization, and at this writing every man on the ticket will get a fine majority. Look at that fine array of men! Don't they deserve it? Sure.

CANDIDATE FOR STATE'S ATTORNEY

The logical candidate for State's Attorney is HARRISON W. VICKERS, JR., ESQ. He is a young Democrat of well-known ability, aggressive and enthusiastic, and with an experience at the bar which should serve him well in administering the affairs of the office. He is no one man's candidate but asks for the support of all voters. The NEWS after thoroughly weighing the matter recommend Mr. Vickers to the favorable attention of all voters.

LIONEL J. KEYSER WITHDRAWS

Ex-Sheriff Lionel J. Keyser, of the Third district, the man who led the anti forces for Mr. Barroll some years ago and won his district, has been soliciting votes for Sheriff. He was making a splendid showing in the Third district, but saw that he could not win. He therefore gracefully retires and asks all his friends to support Mr. W. W. Clayton and the other candidates on the Organization ticket. Who'll be the next? Better make it unanimous.

REPUBLICANS MEET.

A meeting of Republicans was held in the Court House at Chestertown Thursday in response to a call from the State Central Committee and it was a representative organization gathering. The antis lead by Col. W. J. Vannort and S. P. Townshend, Esq., held a meeting Wednesday and were also present at the meeting noted above but were outvoted. It was decided for the present not to name a county ticket, but in the event that it was thought advisable a ticket upon petition might be offered the public later. Messrs. L. Bates Russell, Robert R. Hill and George Thomas Henry were endorsed for members of the State Central Committee. S. P. Townshend, Esq., also filed his name and there may be others. Col. W. J. Vannort, J. A. Casey and George W. Cotton were agreed upon as delegates to the State Convention. If it was not for this contest for State Central Committee the Republicans would not have to go into the primaries. There were some warm speeches made and but for interference blows would have been struck. Keep cool, boys.
