MARY'S LAMB.

[SPECIAL TO THE NEWS]

There once was a sport named G. Farrel,
Who sported in farmer's apparel;
He once wrote a letter,
It could have been better,
Yet he got it all out of a Barrel.

This worthy lived in a big garret,
And he thought himself cute as a ferret;
He imposed on the crowd,
Whilst their protest was loud,
And some of them scarcely could bear it.

His colleages in caucus and talks—
Tho' watched and "cussed at" like hawks—
Called Democrats down
With many a frown,
Rode o'er them rough shod and with caulks.

He monkeyed around a School Board,
A thing he could scarcely afford;
"He stuck in his thumb
And pulled out a plum,"
And still like a Pegasus soared.

This proved to be a misplace (?)
A very annoying case;
The plum when it fell,
Raised particular h—ll,
And smashed him all over the face.

This trouble, perplexing and keen,
Heretofore a problem unseen,
Threw the man in a dope,
Yet he still had a Hope
The people would not think him mean.

Then, a letter most all of us saw,
Awaking the county's eclat; (?)
But the monkey, you know,
As the fable will show,
Unwittingly used a "cat's paw."

The people just smiled in their sleeve,
Not one of them ever will grieve
To see the State's Senate
Drop one. And we'll ken it
'Twas Bullragging caused him to leave.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

John 15: 1-8 was the basis of a timely sermon, delivered with strong force, on Sunday morning in the M. E. Church by Rev. Mr. Wilson, a blind minister, on the theme "Union with the Vine is necessary to Fruitfulness." The preacher struck right from the shoulder and made the "chips fly" right and left. Unfortunately a small congregation was present. The scripture lesson read was 1 John 3:1-10, a raised Bible being used. At the close of the service the congregation were invited to come forward and examine the raised letter Bible and participate in a hearty handshake which every one did.

The Secretary of the State Sunday School Association, Rev. Mr. Kindley, preached in the M. E. Church Sunday night, but owing to the storm very few worshipers were out. Owing to the hot weather the Monday night service of the church has been discontinued until the weather becomes more sane. In view of the fact that devil's services are never discontinued you better look out "Billy" or the "old account" will bob up again.

The political pot "biled" over down this way on Saturday night. The antis were out in force, but the "old side" democrats seemed to have the right of way, and they waded in heavy. The only anti we struck in our round was our beloved friend Walter Hadaway, while on the other hand, the old guard, two and three at a time, cornered us on the issues of the campaign. Well, it will soon be time for some to go up salt river, then, as our G O. P. friends are not in the field locally, we will have less racket.

Messrs. T. E. Jones and W. G. Davis attended the State convention of the Patriotic Sons of America, at Woodsboro, last week, as delegates from the camp at this place. They returned home brim full of glowing reports of the trip, and hospitality of the citizens of Woodsboro, and the commingling of the membership of the order.

Mr. David Joiner, of the city, has been enjoying his annual visit among relatives and friends of this section.

Mr. and Mrs. James Davis, who moved from here the first of the year, to engage in farming up the county, moved back to their home south of town, on Tuesday.

About fourteen out of the County members of various tribes of the I. O. R. M. paid Sitting Bull Tribe of this place a visit on Saturday evening. The Piney Neck tribe also joined in the demonstration that took place in K. of P. Hall, which was one of much pleasure and profit to all concerned.

Leary's basket works closed down last week.

For the second time this summer Mrs. A. Alexander's night blooming cereus opened two large white blossoms on Thursday evening at 10 o'clock. Each flower measured 9 inches in diameter. The plant which is 3 feet high occupied a conspicuous place and attracted many callers. When a search light was played upon it the fragaant blossoms had the appearance of wax flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dickerson and friends, of Quaker Neck, motored down to Grey's Inn on Sunday on a visit among relatives and friends, returning accompanied by Miss Daisy M. Ryan, who will spend several weeks among relatives and friends in Quaker Neck.

Mr. Max Alexander has placed a latest style gasoline lamp above the door of his store front. It makes a brilliant effect.

Mr. James Holley and daughter, of Havre de Grace, are guests of Mrs. C. E Davis, sister of Mrs Holley.

Mrs. Benjamin Davis, of the city, is also a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis.

Mr. H. W. Davis, of the city, is spending a vacation among his relatives here.

IT PAYS TO GROW THE BEST AND ADVERTISE.

Mr. D. B. Stewart shipped this week from White Hall Farm a fine yearling buck sheep to Doughegan Manor, formerly the home of Ex-Governor Carroll, and now owned by his sons. He was offered $25 00 for a thoroughbred pig four months old.

White Hall Farm is an ideal place, noted for its natural beauty, advantages and productiveness. Last year over 46 bushels per acre of clean wheat was grown on this farm from a certain variety. This year they are selling this variety of wheat at $1 50 per bushel and already have booked orders for farmers from five counties in Maryland. Last year this farm produced six carloads of excellent pears. Mr. Walter B. Harris, Kent's apple king, is making an effort to wrestle pear laurels from White Hall farm, and Mr. Stewart says Mr. Harris is going to show up some fine Keifers this year.

Mr. Stewart's Company, the Stewart Fruit Co., of Baltimore, offer a premium of $25.00 for the best barrel of keifer pears on exhibition at the Maryland State Horticultural Society in December next, same to be exhibited by the grower.

Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at 1.30 o'clock, funeral director John F. Coppage having charge.
