DO AND SAY.

Two brothers once lived down this way,
And one was Do and one was Say.
If streets were dirty, taxes high,
Or schools too crowded, Say would cry,
"Lord, what a town!" but Brother Do
Would set to work to make things new.

And while Do worked Say still would cry:
"He does it wrong. I know that I Could do it right." So all the day
Was heard the clack of Brother Say.
But this one fact from none was hid:
Say always talked, Do always did.

THE election in Maine on Monday was a grand victory for temperance. The whole country rejoices at the victory.

FRED. G. USILTON, of the NEWS, has been chosen as the Maryland representative of the National Council of the National Editorial Association.

THE Primaries are over, the count made, the result announced, and everybody but a few chronic kickers and growlers are at work to elect the ticket.

THE Chestertown officers arrested thirteen colored people last Saturday night for various offenses. We have heard much complaint this week about the great number of drunken men in Chestertown last Saturday night. We believe the Officers are doing all in their power to break up this nuisance, but the citizens and the administrators of the law will have to back up the officers in their efforts.

THE public schools of Kent county opened Monday morning for another term. Prof. Smyth at Chestertown is trying to accomodate the scores of scholars in his limited space, but finds it a serious problem indeed. It is a serious situation which must be met by the authorities.

In connection with the opening of the schools it is not amiss to state that the success of the year's work will depend largely upon the parents; no teacher can be successful without the cooperation of the parents. The first thing necessary to a successful year's work is that the pupils shall study. It is a noticeable fact that pupils that do not have to study during the year, as a rule, do not pass their examinations at the end of the year. Another thing, too that can be depended upon to influence the school life of about ninety-nine per cent. of the echool children is the amount of time they spend upon the streets. If they spend more time on the streets than they do at home. It is conclusive evidence that they are more interested in what they find on the streets than they are in their homes.

THE difference between the "muck writer" and "muck manager" is that one is an assassin of character while the other is the greatest criminal of the age. To charge that WILLIAM W. BECK, ESQ was nominated by dishonest methods is beyond credence and especially in the light of the knowledge in the possession of those who make the charge. Why not pluck the beam out of thine eye, before you speak of the mote in thy brother's. It is a matter of no concern, however, to the perveter of facts when such perversion is stimulated by political motive, that the reckless charges are aimed at one free from wrong-doing or unfairness. Of course, every public officer must assume the risk of criticism and of misrepresentation, also the perfidy of ambitious political enemies; but standing securely upon his conscious rectitude, he defies his enemies and consoles himself with the hope of ultimate justice from a people who look through the dust of calumny and see the true man beyond. The antis had expert watchers in all rooms and no objections were filed until after the vote was announced. He was nominated without a bought vote and stands before the people clean and clear of corruption.

It is time to quit snarling. The fight is over and both sides drew enough blood to satisfy all interested. The common enemy, the Republicans, are before us, and it will require all our ammunition to win, too. "A house divided against itself must fall," therefore put on the armor and get in the fray for Gorman, Beck, Hurlock, Harris, Miller and all the rest.

KENT AND QUEEN ANNE'S FAIR

The interested parties have secured an option on about 30 acres of land on Mr. Walter Wright's farm, beautifully located on Chester river, and it is now up to the people of Kent and Queen Anne's counties to say whether or not they want a Fair at Chestertown. The Grangers of the two counties are interested and are pushing the enterprise.

A meeting will be called this month for the purpose of naming committees and soliciting stock. The capital will be about ten or fifteen thousand dollars and stock will be distributed all over the two counties.

The track will be made so as to accomodate automobiles with ball grounds, etc.

IT is a well-known saying that you'd better watch the fellow who says all men are dishonest or cheats but himself.

THE Court will sit to-day to hear the case of Bramble vs Nicholson. This is a question as to who is entitled to the the Democratic nomination of Orphans' Court both having received equal numbers of votes. The NEWS editors have their opinion as to the law but will defer to that of the Court without appeal.

AS Mr. W. B. Copper has been nominated as a candidate for Judge of the Orphans' Court on the Democratic ticket he will resign as a member of the School Board and the NEWS would suggest the naming of some lady to fill the vacancy. The ladies take more interest in the education of the children than men and we believe would prove specially efficient in this important Board. We think it was a mistake when they were dropped from the trusteeship of many schools.

THE town commissioners are to be commended for the excellent work being done by Contractor Newton and force about town. The new pavements at Mr. Ralph Barnett's and Mr. W. T. Duyer's are splendid while the new cement gutters, etc., on the Avenue are much needed improvements. Keep up the good work.

MR. BECK'S POSITION.

William W. Beck, Esq., who is the nominee of the Democratic party for the State Senate in Kent county, says he does not want the nomination if there is the slightest taint of fraud or dishonesty. He went into the fight at the solicitation of many friends and at the sacrfice of much time and business. He conducted a fair and honest campaign and did not spend a cent to corrupt a voter. The votes were counted by honest, upright citizens and Democrats, in the presence of men chosen by his opponents, and not a word of fraud or dishonesty was heard until a few days after the result was known when it was announced that he had beaten Mr. Foxwell by five votes! These five votes are as good as a hundred and it is about time that Mr. Barroll and his followers ceased their "barking."

Since Mr. Beck makes the proposition that he would not accept the nomination in case there was fraud or dishonesty, what have the other candidates to say? Will they say that not a penny was spent to influence a voter? Will they say that not a penny was contributed nor used by them nor their friends for this purpose? This is a critical time in the county's history. It is the dividing line between observance and nonobservance of law and a law that means as much if not more than any other on the statute books.

OUR CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR

ARTHUR P. GORMAN who was selected by the Democratic Primaries, held on August 29th, and which action was ratified by the Democratic State Convention which was held in Baltimore on Thursday, the 7th, instant, is a gentleman of high character and of splendid personality; is a lawyer by profession, is in the prime of his life, and has had wide experience in public affairs.

He has a mind of his own, and if elected, will be the Governor of the whole people of the state.

In an interview published in the Sun of Wednesday last, Mr. Gorman says, "If I am elected Governor, I shall be my own man. No politician and no set of politicians have any right to expect any favors from me, at the expense of my duty to the whole people of the state. While the organization in Baltimore supported me, I shall construe my obligation as being to the 600,000 people of Baltimore, and shall pay the debt directly to them and not to any faction or factions of this great city."

In the same interview he also says, "I have the deepest respect for the sentiment of the Democratic people of the state. I am young enough to be receptive of new impressions, and am not so self-complacent as to ignore the lessons of events.

While I feel a sense of loyalty to those who gave their support, I have been deeply impressed with the great show of strength made by Senator Lee, I realize that the party cannot be united unless a due regard shall be paid to the views for which this large minority stood."

These are broad and noble sentiments, showing that Mr. Gorman takes a fair and comprehensive view of the situation, and that the people of the state will make no mistake in electing him Governor.

The state ticket, as a whole, is a strong one and well distributed. The gentlemen who have been named for Comptroller and Attorney General have the highest qualifications for these offices.

Now it is up to the Democrats of the state to get busy. The contest in the Primary is over, each voter doing what he thought was best, and now the party is all united in support of the ticket. The good feeling exhibited at the state convention was an inspiration to the Democrats of the whole state.

We have our individual preferences for candidates, but when the matter is settled, we all fall into line for the candidates who won in the Primaries. In no other way can party organization be preserved.

Let the watchword of all Democrats from now until the day of election, be GORMAN and VICTORY.

Are You Fair to Your Watch?

Your Watch runs day and night, year in and year out, and it requires more attention than the winding which you give it. It should be thoroughly cleaned and oiled every other year. If this isn't done the watch may be seriously damaged. The oil accumulates dust and grit, and this corrodes. Then, instead of acting as a lubricant, this residue cuts the delicate bearings like a file.

Be fair to your watch. Don't expect it to do more than a locomotive or your automobile.

Careful attention given to watches sent us from out of Chestertown.
