Statement From William W. Beck, Esq., Nominee For State Senate.

The following communications speak for themselves :

To The Editors of The Transcript :—

My attention has been called to the last two issues of your paper in which you state that I have made no effort to assist in the recount of the ballots in the case of Mr. Foxwell against me, and that my nomination was tainted with fraud and deception.

I think it is needless for me to say that I would not accept any office in the gift of the people that was not absolutely free from any suspicion of fraud or trickery.

In the case of Mr. Foxwell against me, petitioning the Court to reopen the ballot boxes, was filed in the Clerks office and decided by the Court while I was from home, and without my knowledge that such a thing was contemplated.

I was never summoned in this case, did not answer the petition and never had any counsel to represent me. In fact this case was never defended by me either personally or by counsel.

The Court voluntarily dismissed the petition and the amended petition of Mr. Foxwell without my knowledge that the case had ever been brought before this Court.

Every lawyer knows that if Mr. Foxwell and myself enter into a written agreement to have the ballot boxes opened, the Court could not grant it, because there is not any authority giving them the right.

Below is the opinion of Mr. Straus, the Attorney General, and also a letter from Mr. Barroll to me to the same effect.

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 19, 1911.
Honorable William W. Beck,
State's Attorney for Kent County,
Chestertown, Md.

Dear Mr. Beck:—Replying to your inquiry whether an agreement between you and Mr. Foxwell, your opponent in the recent Primary Election for the nomination for State Senator, to the effect that the Circuit Court for Kent county shall open the ballot boxes and count the ballots in said Primary Election, can confer jurisdiction upon the Court to open the ballot boxes and count the ballots, I beg to express the opinion to you, that in my judgment, such an agreement cannot confer any such jurisdiction upon the Court and that it would be ineffective and void, so far as concerns the end in view.

As I understand that you desire to have my opinion in this matter as promptly as possible, I am not stopping to state my reasons for the view above expressed.

If you wish me to do so hereafter, I shall be very glad to state and forward such reasons to you.

Very respectfully yours,
Isaac Lobe Straus,
Attorney General.

Chestertown, Md., Sept. 18, 1911.
W. W. Beck, Esq ,

Dear Sir:—In my opinion I beg to say that if you were to enter into a written agreement with Senator Garrett Foxwell to reopen the ballot boxes and count the votes at the recent Primary, this would not give the Court the power to open the boxes and recount the ballots.

Very truly yours,
Hope H. Barroll.

I also want it be known to the people of this county that not one dollar was used by me or my friends to purchase one doubtful voter, and not one cent was used illegally in the recent primaries. There was not one dollar sent to Rock Hall or any other district either on the day of the primaries, before or since.

It is therefore impossible for me to assist in any way for the reopening of the ballot boxes and while opinion might honestly differ as to correctness of the count, I personally have no doubt that the judges and challengers performed their duty to the best of their ability and acted and decided as their conscience dictated.

Respectfully yours,
WILLIAM W. BECK.

BRAMBLE WINS NOMINATION

In the recent Democratic primaries John P. Nicholson and James Bramble were tied as candidates for the Orphans' Court. They represented rival factions and each petitioned the Court tor an opinion as to who had a right to go on the ticket.

Chief Judge Pearce decided that the tie made a vacancy and that under the Lee primary law the new State Central Committee has power to fill same. The committee recommended Mr. Bramble and his name therefore ordered to go on the ballot.

CANADA defeated the Reciprocity agreement on Thursday by a heavy vote.

THE Gorman notification meeting was a noted event. Among those present from Kent were Wm. W. Beck, Esq., Charles L. Dodd, and C. Frank Crow. Kent should give the Democratic ticket at least 400 majority.

"BROTHER BILL."

I have seen him oft before,
E'er our ticket ever bore
This, his name
He was gentle, kind and true,
He would confidence imbue—
Born to Fame.

Now he stands before the men
Of Kent county ; and just when
'Tis our need.
And 'tis not worth while to quiz,
If our wish will sure be his
Only creed.

You can see him ev'ry week
With a blush upon his cheek—
Not his nose !
He is with us to command,
With a lily in his hand,
And a rose.

As he saunters down the streets
He is kind to all he meets—
Fine address.
Then just take him by the hand,
And with grace and smile most bland,
Wish him success.

There's a twinkle in his eye—
You will see as you pass by—
Bright and keen,
When he gives your hand a shake,
You will know that he's awake—
That I ween.

Do you note his hearty laugh ?
You will never know the half
That is told
Of his many kindly acts,
And a hundred other facts
Pure as gold.

When misfortune breaks your rest,
You will never be oppress'd
With his law.
And when Clio scribes his name
On the Register of Fame,
We'll all hurrah !

Do you ask me who I mean
Stands thus in a brilliant sheen
"On the deck ?"
Introductions we'll allow ;
Just stand up and make your bow,
That's our BECK.

Now then, Democrats, come out,
Herald with defiant shout
Your advance ;
If you wish to see him win
Shake yourselves, and make a din,
Now's your chance.

When November rolls around,
And we at the polls are found,
As before ;
We will see the "count" survey'd,
And will find WILL BECK is made
SEN—A—TOR.

GORMAN TOLD HE IS NOMINEE OF DEMOCRATS

Arthur Pue Gorman, Jr., was formally notified Tuesday afternoon of his nomination for Governor by the Democracy of Maryland. In his speech of acceptance he pledged himself to good government within his own party and flayed the Republican candidate and platform.

An ideal setting was formed for the notification exercises. which were held on the lawn of Fairview, the home of Mr. Gorman in Howard county, where his father, the late United States Senator Gorman, entertained many conspicuous men and was the central figure in many political conferences of State and national importance.

In addition to the Gubernatorial candidate Edgar Allen Poe and Emerson C. Harrington were notified of their nomination for Attorney General and Comptroller, respectively. There was quite an outpouring of the Democratic hosts from Baltimore City and the counties, and oratory and music galore enlivened the occasion. Speeches nominating Mr. Gorman, Mr. Poe and Mr. Harrington were made in the order named by State Senator Jesse D. Price, of Wicomico, former Judge Glenn H. Worthington of Frederick, and W. Mason Shehan of Talbot.

The addresses were highly eulogistic and the responses vigorous, leaving the impression that the fight is now on in earnest between the Democrats and Republicans for supremacy in the State.

Mrs. Gorman welcomed the visitors in a most gracious manner and was assisted by several of her husband's sisters and other family connections. Collation followed the more business-like proceedings and the gathering became a very jolly Democratic love feast.

Campaign Expenses.—Under the Primary Law an itemized statement of expenses must be filed with the Clerk of the Circuit Court by the treasurer of the parties or candidates. By the statements filed the Organization in Kent spent $284 34, and the Anti's $237.40. The Urie-Townshend Republicans spent $255.19. Robert G. Hilton, campaign treasurer for State Senator Blair Lee, has filed a statement of Senator Lee's expenditures, which, however, does not include the outlay for maintaining headquarters in Baltimore.

The statement shows the disbursement of $23,588, the amount used in Baltimore city and each county being as follows: Baltimore city, $7,300; Baltimore county, $2,577; Allegany county, $746; Anne Arundel, $1,020; Calvert, $300; Caroline, $700; Cecil, $200; Charles, $84; Dorchester, $700; Frederick, $412; Garrett, $800; Harford, $1,743; Kent, $60; Montgomery, $561; Prince Georges, $2,500; Somerset, $580; St. Mary's, $1,300; Queen Anne's, $757; Talbot, $324; Washington, $334; Wicomico, $78; Worcester, $52; Carroll, $780, and miscellaneous, $500.

The sum of $250 was contributed by Representative David J. Lewis, and $22,200 by relatives of Senator Lee, as follows: E. B. Lee, $8,700; J. F. Lee, $8,000; W. H. Lee, $4,000, and F. H. Brooke, $1,500.

Of the $600 sent to F. Brooke Matthews, treasurer, to be used in Charles county, $516 was returned, and W. M. Slay, treasurer for Kent county, returned $240 of the $300 sent him.

John F. O'Malley, political agent for Senator Gorman in the late primary campaign, filed a sworn account of the expenses of Gorman. Senator Gorman spent $2,494.63 at his headquarters in Baltimore for printing, postage, stationery, help, etc. ; $8,206 was spent in Baltimore August 29 as expenses incurred at the election on that day, and $1,815.44 was the amount spent in other parts of the State, and it went mostly to different county papers for matter published, although some of it was also spent for envelopes, printing, stamps, etc. All the money actually spent in Howard county, the home of Senator Gorman, was $20.75. This amount was for the printing of ballots. The total amount expended was $7,536 32. Fourteen persons contributed to the expenses of the campaign amounts ranging from $25 to $2,000. The total amount subscribed was $7,600. The detailed account covers 15 pages.

THE Baltimore Sun comes out in a strong editorial for the election of Mr. Gorman as Governor.

THAT acceptance speech of Senator Gorman was a splendid production. Every white man can stand on his platform. It will be published in full in the NEWS next week.

SUGAR GOES UP.

A few months ago sugar was selling at 4.62 cents ; now it is worth 8 cents, the highest mark it has reached in twenty-two years. A severe drought has prevailed in the sugar beet districts of Europe, a fact that is urged as the reason for the remarkable increase in its price but it is probable that speculation on the effect of the drought had more to do with the increase than the drought itself. Three concerns practically control the sugar supply of the country—Arbuckle Bros., the Federal company and the American company—and while it has not been established that they are in a combination with respect to the price, yet the fact is they hold their product at so nearly the same figure that it seems probable that they have at least a "gentlemen's agreement," which amounts to the same thing as far as the public is concerned. The great advance in this commodity at this particular season of the year, when the canneries and preserving factories are running at top speed, and when the manufacturers of candies for the holiday trade are at their busiest time, is a matter of great hardship, and, if there is any other reason for it than an actual crop shortage, something ought to be done to prevent a recurrence. Possibly the removal of the differential in duty between raw and refined sugar would relieve the situation.

Are You Fair to Your Watch ?

Your Watch runs day and night, year in and year out, and it requires more attention than the winding which you give it. It should be thoroughly cleaned and oiled every other year. If this isn't done the watch may be seriously damaged. The oil accumulates dust and grit, and this corrodes. Then, instead of acting as a lubricant, this residue cuts the delicate bearings like a file.

Be fair to your watch. Don't expect it to do more than a locomotive or your automobile.

Virginia Orchard Land FOR SALE

After visiting some of the best orchards in the state I selected, about 50 miles from Washington, D. C., 963 acres of fine grazing and timber land adjoining lands of Capt. Beverley, who took more premiums on his apples than any other exhibitor at Va. State Fair in 1910. Tract has elevation of 950 to 1350 feet with deep valleys 450 to 800 feet lower just in front and back of it. Is above frost line. Peach trees on the place, 25 years old, still bear every year.

I will sell three choice tracts of 100 to 250 acres at grazing land prices to experienced orchardists. I find I have not capital to develope whole tract. For further particulars write T. S. VANCE, Warrenton, Va.

The walls are beautifully finished and the cellar cemented. In fact, this home has all the modern improvements and is one of the easiest kept houses in the country.

The property has a large Stable and Carriage House and other outbuildings and a flower and vegetable garden.

If you want a complete home and at a bargain come and see me. Possession given January 1, 1912, or earlier if desired.
