LOCAL NOTES.

THE Keiffer pear market has gone to pieces and this fruit is a drag on the market. Some farmers have not sold a pear, others have sold and the buyers refuse to take them. Most of the pears sold by Judge Samuel Mann was shipped into Canada.

C. S. HURLOCK, the next county treasurer, was a caller at the NEWS office Tuesday. He reports a fair canning season at his plant but does not think the Masseys corn record will exceed 60 bushels to the acre.

COL. A. H. SUPLEE, of Betterton, has been appointed special agent for Kent county to represent the Maryland Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals All complaints made to Col. Suplee will receive prompt and careful attention.

FAIRLEE Grange will hold its first special meeting for the season next Wednesday, October 25th, commencing at 2.30 p. m. The result of the Fairlee Grange Corn Contest will be made known at this meeting, also the prize awards for the 10 best ears of corn.

THE telephone business office in Chestertown will be removed to the corner office of Fraternall Hall, near Voshell House, on and after November 1st, The room on Court street will be used for a store.

THE first sale of corn to be noted is that of Mr. George Sutton, Kennedyville, for 58 cents on the cob.

THE tomato crop as a whole has been a disappointment to Kent farmers. Quaker Neck seems to have been a favored section. Mr. Spencer Biddle on the Wood place grew between 8 and 9 tons to the acre while J. D. Burris got at least 10 tons to the acre.

THE raising of wild turweys is a new departure of Mr. John F. Usilton, tenant on Poole's Island. He has a flock of about 25 just started with 2 hens and gobbler.

IT is a sad duty to record the death of Mrs. James S. Benson at her home in Anne Arundel county, near Baltimore, on Sunday, October 15. She was known here as Miss Gulie Parrott, of Still Pond. She was a woman of fine quality, sweet and modest and made friends everywhere she went.

THE first receipts of new Maryland corn were received and sold at the Chamber of Commerce Friday. Stevens Bros. received 30 bushels of yellow corn from O. L. Fluharty, of Caroline county. It was bought by Charles J. Landers & Co. at 70 cents a bushel. The same commission firm also got 10 bags of yellow cob corn from Mr. C. H. McKee, of Kent county. It was also bought by Mr. Landers on the basis of $3 a barrell.

THE recital next Tuesday evening at Chestertown M. E. Church by Mr. John C. Thomas and Mr. Walter Charmbury, of the Peabody Conservatory of Music, promises to be an artistic affair. All who can avail themselves of the opportunity should be present.

BECK & IVENS, Real Estate Brokers, have sold George W. Wilson's property, situate at Worton Point, Kent county, to James W. Hynson. Price private.

THE Kent Land Company has sold to Major J. K. Cree, of Chambersburg, Pa. 15 acres of the Toulson farm at Quaker Neck wharf on Chester river. Major Cree expects to build a modern home here and remove his family. He will be welcome to Kent.

THE last occupant of the "shacks" on the square moved this week and remaining buildings will be removed this month. May the new business houses bring enlarged receipts and big profits.

WHO was it that made the Giants cake dough? Why Baker, of course. The name of Frank Baker has been receiving more applause the past week than that of the President of the United States. He is from Trappe, Talbot county, and is proud of his home. This young man made home runs at critical times and caused the wildest kind of excitement. His playing has been unequaled in the history of base ball. In the three games heretofore played $195,000 has been paid for admissions, and of this amount the winning players will get about $3,000 each! Is there any other busines which will pay a young man $3,000 for a week's work? Now, parents, don't scold the boy for playing ball for he is aiming to be a Baker!

THE Philadelphia Athletics have won 2 out of the 3 games and look like winners. The bulletins sent by operator Milby to the NEWS during each game have been eagerly watched.

New Charters.—The State Department of Delaware issued certificates this week of incorporation to a number of new concerns.

The Chestertown Automobile and Garage Company was chartered to manufacture, keep for hire, lease, repair and deal in automobiles and automobile supplies. The incorporators are H. Benge Simmons, A. Parks Rasin and L. Bates Russell, all of Chestertown, Md., and the capital stock is $25,000.

The Lyceum Theatre and Amusement Company was incorporated to engage in operating and exhibiting moving pictures and other amusements. The incorporators are the same as in the aforegoing charter and the capital stock is $25,000.

Birthday Party.—Miss Elma E. Elburn entertained a large party of her young friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Elburn, of Green Lane, near Rock Hall, on Wednesday evening, October 11, 1911, the occasion being her eighteenth birthday. A jolly good time was enjoyed by all until a late hour when they partook of delicious refreshments. Music, singing and games were part of the occasion. She was the recipient of many pretty and useful presents. All departed wishing her many more such pleasant birthdays. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John E. Briers, of Baltimore, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Porter and danghter, Mrs. Walter Elburn and son, Wm. Walter, of Chestertown, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. S. Porter, Misses Lois Andrews, Cora Cannan, Marie Smith, Ethel Porter, Arie Whaland, Reva Smith, Ruth Ayres, Lillie Leverton, Lillian Smith, Emma Stevens, Ruth Smith, Ida Kendall, Lelia and Iva Elburn, and Messrs. Chas. H. Elburn, Adam Kelley, Hiram Crew, Clifton Smith, Simpers Coleman, Walter L. Briers, Chas. H. Davis, Herbert W. Elburn, Spencer Smith, Melvin Warner, Clarence E. Coleman, William Leverton.
