Harvest Home services were held at Still Pond M. E. Church on Sunday, Nov. 5th. The decorations were magnificent. Every variety of fruit, grain, vegetable and grain were represented. A large and appreciative audience was was present and our pastor, Rev. J. H. Beuchamp gave one of his best sermons of the year. He chose a subject not usually preached about—"An Item Concerning the Collection," 1 Cor. 16, Chap. 1 verse and presented it in a new and beautiful manner. Even the children could follow him as he led, and then when the Benevolent Collection was taken and $156 realized we knew the older ones had taken it to heart (and pocket.book, too.) Mrs. Kazle Knox Borneschein, of Baltimore, gave in a superb manner "The Kingdom of Love My Shepherd Is," and "My Redeemer," with violin obligato by Miss Olga Von Hartz of the Peabody. Miss Von Hartz also gave two more numbers.

The Northern Convocation of the Diocese of Easton and the dual anniversaries—the 218th anniversary of the organization of St. Paul's Parish and the 200th anniversary of the building of the edifice—was held at St. Paul's Church on Wednesday, Nov. 8th. Huff, Dean Coale and the Rev. Wm. Schouler.

Services at Betterton M. E. Church, Rev. J. H. Beauchamp pastor.—Sunday School at 2 p. m., communion 3 p. m., Epworth League 7 30. All invited.

GRANGE NOTES.

Still Pond Grange No. 245 held their regular meeting on Tuesday at 2 30 p. m. A good crowd was present and many subjects were discussed of interest to our grange in particular. The D. and D. section of the F. F.F.'s were ready and prepared a pie-ous half hour followed the regular meeting. In two weeks class will take the first two degrees in our order. If each member comes out on time next week the assistant secretary will exhibit something never before shown in our grange. Have you still "got a pain in your saw-dust?" Mrs. Bomschein has left us with a case of appendi-saw dust. After singing that song and the "57 ways to catch a man," Monday's night show was the best she has ever given us. Miss Olga von Hartz gave a program in violin music that all enjoyed, and when the ladies gave their share of chicken salad, etc., all voted that the affair was a success in spite of the storm. Proceeds amounted to $23 for benefit of Ladies Aid Society.

Miss Anna B. Smyth spent the weekend with Miss Martha Pennington, of near town.

The Ladies Aid Society of Asbury M. E. Church met Tuesday evening at the heme of Mrs. J. P. Ahern.

Mrs. H. L. Disharoon visited her sisters in Philadelphia this week.

Mrs. Brown Duling, of Marcus Hook, is spending sometime in town.

Mr. Frank Corkran and son, Blair, of Lutherville, Md. spent a few days this week with his wife, who has been with her mother, Mrs. Kate Benson for sometime.

Mrs. Henry Ware, of Massey, spent Monday with Mrs. R. W. Comegys.

Mr. Lucian E. Massey, formerly of Queen Annes county near Millington, and Miss Clare Benson, of Millington, were quietly married Wednesday a. m. at 7 o'clock at the home of the brides mother, Mrs. Kate Benson on Cypress street, by the Rev. Dr. J. Alexander Rood, only a few friends being present. After the ceremony the bride and groom were conveyed to Massey Station in an automobile where they took the train for trip north We understand the happy couple will take up residence in Wilmington, Del. where Massey has a lucrative position.

A fracas occurred at a colored schoo house between Blackiston's Church and Blackiston's Cross Roads, in Delaware, on last Saturday night, during which a shooting was done which resulted in the death of one man and the serious wounding of two others. A colored festival was in progress and being full of liquor, Enoch Brooks, a colored farm-band of Queen Anne's, employed by Mr. J. E. George on the farm formerly occupied by Mr. George Hazel, became involved in a quarrel with another party and to make peace and seeking to quiet the disturbance and to prevent Brooks from getting into trouble George Cooper, Brooks' friend, stepped in between the contending parties and for his good offices he received a bullet in the back and one through the lung. He was hurried to the office of Dr. W. H. Jacobs who rendered medical aid. The doctor located one of the bullets, but the one that had penetrated the lung was not located. The doctor conveyed the injured man to a Philadelphia hospital on the Sunday evening train, where the patient died on Monday afternoon. The other parties who were shot are Thomas Johnson, shot through the hand, and Harry Williams, who is a nephew of Brooks, was shot in the temple. Both of these parties are doing well under home treatment. It is said that Brooks returned calmly to his home, where he declared that he had no fear of results. In this affair three States become involved—the shooting occurred in Delaware, resulting in a death in Pennsylvania and the murderer is a citizen of Maryland. Considerable feeling among the colored folks is expressed against Brooks for his crime, which they realize was most unjustifiable. As far as we have heard no efforts have been made up to this writing to apprehend the guilty party.

Mr. Procrastination

¶ We are told that the above gentleman is the thief of time. The public has no use for him. Mr. Do-It-Now is the man we all admire.

¶ Promptness is the biggest feather a man can have in his hat. If you are going on a train you must be there before it starts, unless you are an unusually fast runner. If you want to make hay while the sun shines, don't wait until noon is past. Do it now!

¶ If you are thinking of starting a bank account, don't procrastinate. Do it now. TO-DAY.

¶ A bank account will enable one to keep his funds securely, yet conveniently. It enables him to convert into available bank balance all of his receipts, whether in the form of actual money, or drafts, or checks, etc. It places at his disposal all the facilities of the bank for handling his business, with the convenience of making payments with checks.

Banking House in Maul Building

A PARTIAL VICTORY

Goldsborough Wins By 2,964—Harrington and Poe Win By 7,000 To 9,000 Majority—The Legislature Is Democratic.

GOVERNOR HAS 5,000 PLACES TO FILL

The election in Maryland is over and a partial victory has been gained by the Democrats, but the loss of the Governor in the defeat of Arthur Pue Gorman is disappointing, to say ths least.

It is now certain that for the second time since the Civil War Maryland has elected a Republican Governor, Phillips Lee Goldsborough winning over Arthur P. Gorman by a plurality estimated at 3,348.

So far as the State is concerned, the remaining fruits of victory go to the Democracy. It elects its Attorney-General—Edgar Allan Poe—and its Comptroller—Emerson C. Harrington—thus retaining control of the Board of Public Works. It has the State Senate and the House of Delegates, so that on joint ballot it will control the General Assembly, which means the election of a Democratic State Treasurer.

Thus, the State government, for two years anyhow, and probably for four, will be divided between the two parties, the executive branch being in control of one and the legislative branch in the hands of the other. Whether this means four years of stagnation for the State or four years more of progressive government depends upon the spirit in which each enters upon its duty.

The following are the returns for candidates for Governor, Attorney-General and Comptroller:

In Massachusetts the election of Governor turned upon the tariff. That was the recognized issue and the protected industries used every effort, and, it is reported, spent money lavishly for the defeat of Foss, the Democratic candidate.

His election, therefore, is a triumph for tariff revision in the citadel of protection and a vast encouragement for the national Democracy.

The election of Mr. McCreary, the Democratic candidate for Governor in Kentucky, like that of Foss in Massachusetts, is a triumph for the national Democracy. In the campaign Governor Harmon in a speech in Louisville said that the importance to the national Democracy of a Democratic victory in Kentucky was inestimable. A reverse to the cause of tariff revision in that Democratic State would have been a body blow to the cause of a lower tariff. Fortunately the cause has triumphed, and Kentucky will be in line for the Democratic Presidential candidate next year and the party in all the States will take courage from yesterday's election.

The Governor-elect is a Democrat of the best type. He served with distinction in the United States Senate and will make a good Governor as he made a good Senator.

Minstrels at Rock Hall.—The White Rose Minstrels will show at Rock Hall next Friday evening. Their performance in Stam's Hall Friday evening was up-to-date and enjoyed by a large crowd.

Foot Ball.—Md. Agricultural College will play Washington today at 2 p. m. on the grounds of the latter. A good football game is anticipated. Big preparations are being made for the St. John's game in Baltimore on November 25. A special boat will carry the Chestertown crowd.

FREE LECTURE M. W. OF A.

Hon. Chas. E. Whelan, Supreme National Lecturer of the Modern Woodmen of America will lecture in the Firemans Hall on Thursday evening, Nov. 16th at 8 o'clock for Chester Camp. This society has more than a million members and is making a great fight against the much dreaded disease "Tuberculosis." Come and hear it explained. Its members are given free treatment at its sanatorium, Colorado Springs, Col.

Mr. Whelan is a fine orator, and a very pleasant evening is assured. Every member should be present. Bring your friends.
