HIDDEN MONEY LOST.

Bristol, Tenn.—After hiding $1,000 in $20 gold pieces for fifty years at different spots on his premises, John Hopper, of Washington Co., Va., two weeks ago secreted the yellow coin under the kitchen of his home. When he went to get the money yesterday to look at it and count it, it was missing. There is no clue to the theft.

YOU CAN RAISE 100% OF CHICKENS HATCHED

PRAISE WHERE PRAISE IS DUE.

"I have been most successful with my incubator chickens this year, having raised 100 per cent. of chickens hatched. In former years I was only able to raise about 40 to 50 per cent. Then I fed them on home products, but this year I am feeding Bolgiano's "Square Deal" Foods entirely, and attribute my success to your nicely balanced foods. My hatches were made with one of your Buckeye Incubators. I tell you this because I believe in giving praise where praise is due."—Written on September 26th, 1911, by Miss Lulu Thomas, of Pearsons, St. Mary's county, Md.

WEDDING BELLS.

LEGG—DESHANE.

One of the prettiest weddings of the year took place at Shrewsbury Church on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 15th, at 2 o'clock, when Miss May Howard Deshane, of Blacks, Md., became the bride of Mr. J. A. Legg, of Kent Island.

The church was beautifully decorated with a profusion of white and yellow chrysanthemums and pot plants. A large concourse of friends gathered to witness the impressive ceremony. At the appointed time the organ, under the skillful fingers of Miss Gertie Dempsey, of Galena, pealed forth the familiar strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, and the fair bride-elect, leaning on the arm of her affianced, and preceded by the ushers, Messrs. J. M. Comegys, Jr., and W. C. Graves, entered the church and took their places in the chancel, where they were met by the officiating clergy, Rev. W. A. Coale, of Earlville, and Rev. H. W. Robinson, rector of Shrewsbury Church. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. A. H. Deshane. The bride wore a handsome tailored suit of dark blue broadcloth, with blue velvet toque, and carried an arm bouquet of chrysanthemums tied with white satin ribbon.

After the ceremony the happy couple were driven to the train amid showers of rice, old shoes and good wishes for a prosperous and happy future. After the honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Legg will be at home to their friends in their charming residence on Kent Island, Md.

Mr. Howard Carter, of Chestertown, and Miss Pearl Schuyler, of Baltimore, were married in Baltimore this week.

Anniversary.—The Modern Woodmen of Chester Camp held an anniversary celebration Thursday night in Firemen's Hall, which was well attended and proved interesting and instructive. Prof. J. L. Smith presided, while Messrs. M. E. Newsome and J. F. Thompson also occupied the stage. Hon. Charles E. Whelan, Supreme National Lecturer, spoke of the Sanatorium at Colorado Springs, where members are given free treatment and gave great encouragement to sufferers from tuberculosis. Trinkett Giles, Esq., of Baltimore, made an eloquent address on "fraternity," which was greeted with hearty applause. Music was furnished by Messrs. James Bacchus and Kemp Bordley. Ice cream and cake was finely served under direction of Caterer Preston Ivens.
