LOCAL NOTES

THE champion corn husker of Montgomery is Robert Brown, who lofted 72 barrels of ear corn from 6.36 a. m. to 5.02 p. m.

THREE weddings in or near Galena to take place before Xmas. That's nothing—Worton and Fairlee is simply a bee hive of expectants.

DON'T forget the entertainment to be given in Fairlee Hall next Friday evening, November 24th. See advertisement in another column.

PERHAPS you know what it is to have your feet bother you. Try "Fellowcraft Shoes" at Vansant & Nswsome's and avoid that bother.

THE firm of Frank Hellerick & Co., 120 Callowhill street, Phila., have become popular in Kent as sellers of poultry. See their card elsewhere.

THE first prize for raising the greatest number of barrels of corn to the acre in Culpepper county, Virginia, was awarded Charles Brells. He raised 24 barrels to the acre.

THE sheriff carried his twelve prisoners convicted at recent term of Court to various places Thursday leaving but one lone woman in the jail and she of unsound mind.

THE only guideless pacer now in this country is owned by Mr. Hessey Miller, of Wilmington, brother to Mrs. C. N. Satterfield. This horse can pace in 2 18 and is a beauty.

IN the storm of Sunday night Mr. Julian Carter ran his auto into a tree which had fallen on the road near Still Pond and broke one of his lights. Fortunately he was running slowly.

THE case of Mrs. Harriett L. Hill against Mr. C. L. Jarrell for rent of store room was tried in Centreville and a verdict given for Mrs. Hill. W. M. Slay, Esq , was local counsel for plaintiff.

GOLDEY COLLEGE, of Wilmington, will hold its quarter century anniversary and graduating exercises on Wednesday, Nov. 22. A school with an enviable record of success as a business college.

GOING—right along are Moody & Lusby's tailormade Suits and Overcoats, and the prices are very moderate for such high art garments. Look at their merchandise and hear the low quotations.

ABE CASEY, of Rock Hall, grew some prize keiffers off 2-year old trees bought of Mr. Harry C. Boyd. Some measured 4½ inches in diameter and run 5 inches long. Mr. Casey wants to keep a sample for the Fair.

JESSE MADDOX, aged 15 years, of Kennedyville, was arrested in Wilmington Saturday for having run away from home. He said he had been in the city since Wednesday. The lad was turned over to Humane Agent Stout, who secured him a position on a newspaper.

WHILE returning from Cecilton last week the horse driven by Harry Jarman became unmanageable and ran away. Eva Sarman, who was left alone in the team, becoming frightened attempted to drop out at the rear and was so seriously injured that it was necessary to summon a physician.

THE Kent Land Company have purchased of Mr. Joseph Everett his farm in Queen Anne's near Chester bridge and take possession at once. This farm will be utilized in furnishing small tracts to the many farmers and truckers who visit this section looking for homes close to town, on State road, etc.

THE work on Chestertown's main street is progressing finely but the cold snap will likely cause a cessation of operations. For the winter a road bed of stone will be put on the hill near the wharf and finished in the spring. It is an improvement long agitated by the NEWS and all citizens welcome the same.

THE steamer Susquehanna, of the Tolchester Company, has just been overhauled in her machinery and boilers preparatory for the winter work. The Tolchester Company has also contracted for two new steel boilers for the steamer Louise at a cost of $15,000, to be installed in the spring ready for next summer's business.

WRITE to J. Bolgiano & Son, the seedmen of Baltimore, for a copy of "Poultry Profits for one year." Enclose 6 cents in stamps and the name of THE NEWS as payment. This book is a great help to poultry raisers and Bolgiano & Co., are sending it practically at cost for the benefit of our readers and their customers.

THE NEWS just received an apple grown in one of the Harrison orchards at Berlin, and it is certainly a beauty. No Oregon or Washington fruit can surpass it in appearance, and in flavor it is far ahead of anything we have ever seen from the Northwest. The farmers of this community should be growing just this kind of fruit.

GALENA residents have been summoned to funerals lately in an unusual number. Mr. and Mrs. James Caldwell attended the funeral of their brother, James Walters, in Elkton, on Sunday. Dr. Elizabeth Johnson attended the funeral of her uncle, Luther Whitaker, on Sunday, and Mrs. John Ford and daughter, of Galena, were summoned last week to the funeral of her brother, W. H. Benson, at Chesapeake City.

W. S. JOHN, superintendent of the Delaware Division of the P. B. and W. R. R., announces the following prizes for track formen on the Delaware Road for the best line and surface during the year of 1911 : J. W. Webber, $50, Blackbird; W. F. Allen, $50, Laurel; Daniel H Hurley, $50, Georgetown. The prize of $60, for making the greatest improvement in line surface during the year, was awarded C. S. Weller, of Dover.

THE White Rose Minstrels showed to a good size audience in Stam's Hall last Friday evening and went to Rock Hall last night. The end men were Miller Maslin, Julia Carter, John Barnes, Jos. N. Wheatley; interlocutor, Norman Crouch; circle, Robert Hendrix, James Coleman, Merritt Brown, Jewell Armstiong; pianist, James L. Bacchus. The solos were special features together with Joseph Wheatley's original parodies. The boys did well.

A NOVEL method of gunning for rabbits is in an automobile at night. Mr. T. Scott Offutt, of Towson, while riding on the York road Friday night spied a rabbit crossing the road, which came into the glare of the headlights. The rabbit was dazed by the light and remained in view long enough for Mr. Offuft to take a shot at it without leaving the car. As the machine came up to it Mr. Offuft found the rabbit dead and picked it up while standing on the foot board without getting off the machine and without stopping the car. A number of other rabbits were seen and he shot at one other without success. Mr. Offutt was accompanied by Mr. Elmer R. Haile, of Towson.

RESOLVED : that anticipation gives more pleasure than realization, was the subject of the debate in last Saturday night's meeting of the Mt. Vernon Literary Society. The subject was supported by Mr. L. H. Jones and Mr. W. L. Baldwin and denied by Mr. I. O. Ridgely and Mr. C. C. Reier. The judges decided in favor of the affirmative.

A FARMERS' special train will be run by the Pennsylvania Railroad over the Delaware and Maryland counties of the Peninsula, starting Monday, November 20. The stops will include Porter, Middletown, Massey, Price, Still Pond, Smyrna, Marydel, Greensboro, Cordova, St. Michaels, and other points. The speakers will include Dr. Richard S. Hill, director of farmers' institutes in Maryland; E. L. Oswald, of Chewsville, Md.; W. Oscar Collier, of Easton, Md.; W. A. Beattie, of the United States Department of Agriculture; Profs. Hayward, McCue and Grantham, of the Delaware Experiment Station. It is expected that Governors Pennewill and Crothers will accompany the train at least one day and address the people at some of the places.

ACCORDING to advices received from various sections of Maryland and adjacent States by poultry dealers there is every indication that the supply of turkeys for Thanksgiving will be ample for all trade requirements, and that prices will be in reach of all. In the last few years, with the advent of the holidays, there has been a howl by the commission men as to the scarcity of this fowl, but not so this year ; everyone is boasting of a great supply. Some attribute the cause to the propitious weather conditions for the raising of the "national bird," while others claim that the farmers are making a special effort tc outdo previous years, so as to help swell their pocketbooks. There was another slight drop in quotations on choice young turkeys, averaging eight pounds Saturday, and prices in the wholesale market now range from 15 to 17 cents per pound, while in the retail market prices were slightly higher.

"DOLLAR CORN" appears to be a possibility before spring, according to the figuring of the statisticans of the Department of Agriculture. The United States, although the greatest corn-producing nation on earth, has never figured heavily as a corn exporter, only 2 per cent. of the crop going out of the country. Owing to the failure of the Argentine crop, which is not large enough for home consumption, there is a tremendous shortage in the world's supply. In European countries the crop has not been as large as usual, and the demand upon the United States will be enormous. The Department of Agriculture will not attempt to predict what this demand will amount to, but it will be enough to send the price to 80 cents, and the department realizes that with the probability of an advance in price will come the probability of manipulation, with consequent wild speculation, and then perhaps "dollar corn."

THE Still Pond Farmers' Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Bennett and several important questions were discussed. The most important one was "Are Consolidated Schools an Advantage?" This question was carried over until the next meeting, although a large majority of the members are for consolidation of the schools. Mr. James S. Harris addressed the Club on the Horticultural Meeting which is to be held in Baltimore, Dec. 4 9. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Tilghman Shafer, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. D. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Price, Mr and Mrs. H. Redding, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jarrell, Mr. and Mrs S. G. Roseberry, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Beauchamp, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Price, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Bennett, Mr. J. R. Bennett, Mrs. L. B. Harper, Mrs. W. H. Bonwill, Mrs. Julian Jones, Mrs. Ella Pennington, Mrs. Kate Crew, Mrs. Charles Walters, Misses Jessie Crew, Emma Shafer, May Pennington.

A Fine Horse.—Messrs. Crawford and Ceas, of Byron, Mich., hove sold to Messrs. Alday Clements, John H. Clendaniel, George R. Rasin, Robert Kennedy, George Bell and Jos. B. Hossinger a fine hackney stallion for $1800. This stallion is 5 years old, chestnut in color, strong points and will no doubt prove a good investment.

CORN WINNERS

The Fairlee Grange met in regular session last Wednesday evening, Worthy Master presiding. Mr. Irving Walker, of Church Hill Grange, who had been requested to judge of the ten and one ear corn contest was present, and after giving a most interesting and instructive address upon the Inheritance, Ancestry Environment, Technical and practical points in the selection, cultivation and uniformity of corn announced the names of the winners as follows :

Mr. J. P. Nicholson, 66 bushels.
Mr. W. G. Smyth, 54 bushels.

Other contestants did not report. Attention was called to the meeting of the State Grange in Baltimore December 4th and members urged to attend. It will be the best ever held. Cake and lemonade were then served. Special meeting on the 22nd at 2.30 p. m.

"Little Miss Fix It" at the New Academy of Music.

Theatregoers of Baltimore and vicinity who have been delighted during the past week with the witching melodies of "The Spring Maid" at the New Acrdemy of Music, Baltimore, will read with pleasure the announcement that the attraction at this popular playhouse during the week beginning November 20 will be "Little Miss Fix It," another Werba & Luescher attraction, with the addition of Alice Lloyd, the famous English singing commedienne, who was secured by cable only a week ago and will make her American debut in Baltimore.

"Little Miss Fix It" has a plot, which embodies a real story, abounding in bright dialogue and introducing a number of tuneful melodies and amazing dances One of the particularly successful features is "The Turkey Trot," which Chicago considered sensational and which started the present Frisco dances in the East.

The original comedians and singers, who will be seen here, include Lionel Walsh, Grace Fields, May Buckley, Jas. Lane and Frederick Southley, besides the extraordinary added feature of Alice Lloyd in her repertoire of song successes, many of which are new to America.
