PHILADELPHIA, PA

We solicit shipments direct from farmers, as we find we get our finest poultry from them. The best buyers of our city know that we handle fancy Maryland poultry direct from the farm, and therefore come to us for their supply. We had a nice business from Kent and Queen Anne's counties last year, but having moved into one of the finest locations and having the largest store space in our city we want much heavier shipments. Remember our motto—"Best goods for our buyers, top prices for our shippers, and a square deal to all." Write us today what you have and we will keep you posted.

A Mail Carrier's Load

Seems heavier when he has a weak back and kidney trouble. Fred Duehren, Mail Carrier at Atchinson, Kan., says: "I have been bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and had a severe pain across my back. Whenever I carried a heavy load of mail, my kidney trouble increased. Some time ago I started taking Foley's Kidney Pills and since taking them I have gotten entirely rid of all my kidney trouble and am as sound now as ever. Sold by M. A. Toulson, druggist.

"Home-run" Baker is as modest as he has become famous ; and few people, not even many of the permanent guests of the hotel, know that he dines regularly in the big dining-room of the Windsor Hotel, Philadelphia, where he and Mrs. Baker make their winter home. Recently a young lady "fan" from up the state, dining at a nearby table, recognized and insisted upon being introduced to him. The crowd in the dining room caught on and were much amused at his blushing bashfulnes in contrast to the big Marylander's coolness and prowess when facing the mighty "Matty" in the recent World's Series.

Personal and Social

Miss Francis Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Morris, has been appointed assistant teacher at Piney Neck school, in place of Miss Middleton who goes to Gratitude in place of Miss Wilson, resigned to be married. Miss Morris has been teaching at Wingate in Dorchester county, a place where six teachers have resigned within a year and which is 30 miles from railroad!

Sheriff Medders has rented the Maple avenue house occupied by Mr. Wm. Maul and will remove there next month.

Miss Dora Sheats, the attractive cashier at Chestertown Laundry, has resigned to accept a position in Mr. Harry Hodgkins new store.

Mrs. Wm. T. Wood who has been quite sick for four weeks is improving.

Misses Margaret and Theresa Burns who have been quarantined with scarlet fever are able to be out once more. Owing to the care of the family, the physicians, school board and all concerned no new cases have broken out.

Mr. "Shade" Painter, formerly of Chestertown, has returned after an absence of 29 years and accepted a place in Mr. J. F. Howard's harness shop. Mr. Boyer Lusby is with Mr. Meeks on "Airy Hill."

Mr. James E. Taylor will remove to the Gooding farm at Shallcross Wharf.

We are sorry to state that Mr. Ambrose Frazier is critically ill at his home on Cannon street.

Mr. Parks Rasin has removed this week into the Sanborn house on Kent Circle.

Mrs. Maggie E. Jewell and daughter, Mrs. Aby, with her son, Jewell, all of Baltimore, have been guests the past week of Mr. Benj. Davis near Flatland.

Misses Helen Vanzant and Louise Edwards of Chestertown are spending the week at Kennedyville and Galena.

Dr. Elizabeth Johnson, of Arant, Okla , who is spending sometime with her mother, Mrs. Wm. Whitaker, of Galena, attended the funeral of her uncle, Mr. Luther Whitaker, which took place last Friday from his home, Westfield, N. J.

Miss Nettie E. Counselman, of Baltimore, has been the guest this week of Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton, Jr., in Chestertown.

Miss Mary Simpers, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Simpers, gave a birthday party last Saturday afternoon to about fifty of her young friends. The birthday cake was a huge and splendid specimen of the expert handiwork of the grandmother, Mrs. J. H. Simpers.

Mrs. Robert Ellis, formerly of Chestertown, but now of Baltimore, is in the Mercy Hospital, where she was operated upon last week by Dr. W. S. Gardner, in a very serious and complicated case. Her friends here will be glad to hear that she is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. James Shuster and two children, of Wilmington, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Russell.

Mrs. P. S. Schaffer, of Rowlandville, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Lynn Shaffer, to Mr. Cecil E. Ewing, of Rising Sun, associate editor of the Midland Journal. The wedding will take place this winter. The bride-elect is in charge of the Executive Mansion at Annapolis and librarian.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy C. Holmes and children, of Massey, Kent county, are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Thad Holmes, Easton.

Messrs. H. C. Willis and Romie Skirven are visiting friends in St. Mary's this week.

Mrs Wm. T. J. Keyser returned this week from the hospital in Baltimore very much improved.

Mr. Wm. Pierce, of Middletown, was in Chestertown on business Thursday and was glad to see such marked improvement.

Mr. J. T. Long and family will remove from this community next week to California. They are fine people and have the best wishes of a large circle of friends in their new home.

Mr. Wm. D. Knight next month will remove his family from Mill street to the Plummer house on Queen street.

Mr. Lewin Howard, of Charlotte Hall, spent Sunday in town with his parents.

Mr. J. Hydie Thompson, while boarding the Corsica in Baltimore Wednesday night, slipped on a banana peel and struck his eye such a blow that a painful bruise resulted. He carries the mark of the fall.

Mr. W. E. Temple, Jr., of Church Hill, has accepted a position with the Prudential Insurance at Chestertown.

Messrs. William Colescott and Daniel Steelman, of Camden, N. J., have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Rash during the week.

Mrs. J. C. Jerome and children, of Quaker Neck, are on an extended visit to New York.

A children's party was given by little Miss Frances Mussett, daughter of Mr. Charles Mussett, manager of the Colonial Theatre, New York, in honor of little Miss Margaret and Alton Jerome, of Kent. After a joyful afternoon in games and dancing, the children were led into the dining room where refreshments were served. Next week they will be given a theatre party by their aunt and uncle, Prof. and Mrs. J. Lenzberg, to which a number of children have been invited.

Miss Edna Lewis entertained a few of her friends to a wild duck supper Sunday evening at her home in Betterton, the occasion being Miss Edna's birthday, covers were laid for ten. A pleasing feature of the occasion was the finding of the ring hidden in the birthday cake, the finder being Mr. John G. Breckinridge of Philadelphia. Those present included Misses Irene Crownhart and Ida Redgrave, of Baltimore, Md. ; Misses Grace and Myrtle Tull, of Betterton, and Misses Blanche and Edna Lewis, of Betterton ; Messrs. Maxwell Meeks, Roger Harris and Rev. H. Clifton Owens, of Betterton, and John Breckinridge, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Arthur Emerson and Mrs. Carlton C. Moore visited friends in Baltimore during the week.

Don't Forget the Recital —Mr. John C. Thomas and Mr. Walter G. Charmbury are coming to Chestertown again to give our townspeople a musical treat. The recital last month in the M. E. Church is recalled with much pleasure, and no music lover should miss this musical evening. An elaborate programme has been prepared and the larger the crowd to greet them the better things will go. See the adv. on another page.

AN INTENSIVE FARMER

Mr. Walter B. Harris Puts Into Practice His College Training And Reaps a Rich Harvest—Attends School in Winter.

There lives in Still Pond Neck on "Blooming Neck" farm Mr. Walter B. Harris, youngest son of Hon. James S. Harris, whose career up to this time is worthy of note. He took a course at the Maryland Agricultural College giving particular attention to the spraying lessons, etc. He returned home and went to live on his father's big "Blooming Neck" farm which had on it 45 acres of apple trees of fine varieties but of little account. Mr. Harris went to work on these trees and by spraying has developed a healthy and thrifty orchard from which he will gather this year 1500 barrels of prize apples. These apples are graded and sell from $2 to $4,50 per barrel. Mr. Harris has planted 20 acres more of apples which will come in bearing in a few years.

Besides apples he has 2500 or 3,000 peach trees, 500 cherry trees and shipped this fall 3,000 baskets of Keiffers. He also has 800 Bartlett trees. Along the hillsides about 10,000 small locusts have been set out for posts and in time will mean a fine revenue.

The balance of the 350 acres is occupied with wheat and corn, but most attention is paid apples and fruits. He has won a number of prizes and is destined to win more. During the last winter Mr. Harris took a special agricultural course at Cornell University and is schooling himself in the lines which he picks he can use most effectively in his work on the farm. He has with him three young men from the Western Shore whose parents have sent them here to get practical education from an intelligent young man and they are proving capable and apt.

We take pleasure and pride in calling the attention of Kent farmers to the work of Mr. Walter B. Harris. What he is doing in apple culture other farmers can do either in apples or some other branch of farm life.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

My, what a savage onslaught Old Boreas made on Sunday night and Monday morning. During the Indian summer weather last week many were congratulating themselves because of the non-discard of their light underwear but they were glad to get into their heavy duds on Monday evening. Quite a number had their potato crop caught in the ground. A number of outbuildings were blown over and other slight damage was done to trees and fencing.

Now that the smoke of the battle of ballots has cleared away, there seems more or less activity in reaching for the plums under the Goldsborough tree. Rumor had it that the Captaincy of the Police boat A. B. Smith was settled prior to the election, but the division in the make-up of the B. of P. W. makes that part of the slate rather uncertain of being carried out. If the political campaign, primary and general, are waged in the interests of the "dear people" why not let the people say who they want as their protector, etc.

Patrolman Frank McCloskey of the city police force is spending a leave of absence among his relatives and friends of this place. Frank is the picture of the best of health and has no fear of a Goldsborough shake-up.

Mr. J. Frank Wheatley, of Chestertown, spent over Sunday with the family of his son, C. Frank Wheatley, of this town.

Our meat and provision merchants are finding their trade rather dull because of the scarcity and high cost of pork. Mr. Abe Casey was about the happiest man in town over the election of Goldsborough.

Under the auspices of the Sons of America a box social was held in Durding's Hall on Tuesday evening for the benefit of the M. E. Church.

The best yet is the coming of Miss Ola Bedwell the celebrated "Baritone ballad singer concert violinist and reader." She will be here on Thursday evening, the 23rd inst. and give one of her world renowned entertainments of vocal and violin solos, readings and songs in Mechanics Hall for the benefit of the M. E. Church. General admission 25 cents. Rev. Mr. Corkran has engaged her services on two former occasions and pronounces her renditions thrilling and charming.

The Town Council have the poles planted for the new arc lights and some of the lights in place.

BETTERTON NOTES.

All Betterton folk seem jubilant over the fact that Mr. Harry Willis has sold a piece of land at his water landing commonly known as "Barnard's wharf" to McGaw, Davis & Co., brokers of Baltimore, who it is reported will erect in the near future a large canning factory, fifteen cottages and a wharf where they will pack all the herring, tomatoes, peas, fruits and oysters they can get. They propose to erect a plant that will have capacity to pack a million of herring a day, and they also expect to contract for 500 acres of tomatoes, and a like proportion of other things. It is to be hoped that the farmers and fishermen in this community will patronize this home industry. It looks as though when this factory is put in operation it will be a good boost to business, besides it will offer local sales for food purposes of all the herring that will be caught at the head of the bay.

The Progressive Club of which Mr. J. H. Gooding is President met at their club room on Tuesday evening and matters of interest were discussed for improvement.

The Ladies Aid Society have had their lot of land on Bayside graded, and it makes a pretty sight for a church.

Mrs Clarence Newsome visited Baltimore during the week.

Mrs. Howard E. Owens and little son are on a visit to Mrs. Owens' parents in Talbot county, near Queen Anne.

Mrs. Earl Wilmer and daughter Ethel, are spending a few days with friends in Baltimore.

Mr. Wm. H. Crew the new owner of Hotel Ericsson has renovated and repainted the hotel inside and out and it looks like an entirely different place. This is a wonderful improvement to the upper end of Ericsson Ave.

CHURCH

Sunday was regular missionary day in Christ M. P. Sunday School and about $18.00 was raised. Miss Mamie Thompson's class of young girls won the banner which was presented by Mr. Dwight Long in an appropriate speech.

Drs. Little and Barrett, pastors of the Methodist Churches in town, preached strong sermons Sunday on Temperance, it being temperance Sunday all over the world. The abolition of liquor was seen in the handwriting on the wall of today.

A splendid revival meeting closed at Mowbray Church in Quaker Neck last week in charge of Rev. Mr. McCann. There were ten or twelve conversions. Special services were commenced at Bond Church Sunday and already there have been several conversions.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. Louis E. Barrett, D. D., pastor. Services next Sunday, November 19, as follows: 10.30 a. m., sermon, by the pastor, subject, "Peace, Service, Power;" 2.15 p. m. Sabbath School and Pastor's Bible Class ; 7 p. m. Epworth League Song Service, followed by brief sermon by the pastor.

Rev. J. Franklin Carey, a graduate of Washington College, is the pastor of Salisbury M. E. Church South, one of the most important stations in that conference. He has made arrangement for the meeting and entertainment of that conference which opened in Salisbury Tuesday. About 400 ministers and 400 lay members of the conference were present. Of the 10 districts comprising the conference nine are in Virginia Bishop John C. Kilgo is presiding. The 10 presiding elders of the 10 districts who make up the bishop's cabinet are being entertained by Mrs. E. E. Jackson. They will make all the appointments and station about 300 pastors in the various charges in the conference.

Services Sunday at the M. E. Church, Still Pond : Sunday School at 9.30, Preaching by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Beauchamp, 10 45, subject The Book of Books, text Ps. 119, 9, "Wherewithall shall a young man cleanse his way ? By taking heed thereto according to Thy word." Epworth League at 7.30 led by Miss Bertha Price, short sermon by the pastor. Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock preaching at Betterton by the pastor, same subject as above.

STILL POND ITEMS.

Miss Rachel Parrott visited friends in Baltimore the past week.

Mrs. Maud Crew, of Baltimore, is spending a few days with relatives here.

Mrs. Clara McGinnes and Mrs. Hilda Stevens, of near Crumpton, spent Sunday the guest of Mrs. James Warren.

Mr. John Parrott visited Baltimore the past week.

Mrs. Wm. Stanley and Mr. Harry Stanley visited Delaware City.

Miss Bertha Zentcraft, of A.A. county, is visiting her friend Mrs. Chas. Walter.

Mr. Wm. Krusen spent a few days at Baltimore and Newark.

Mrs. John Schofield and Mrs. Edward Crowding visited Baltimore the past week.

Quite a number from here attended the Sunday School Convention at Galena Sunday, Nov. 13th.

Stock Subscriptions. — The following gentlemen are soliciting subscriptions to stock of the Kent and Queen Anne's Fair and Trotting Association : H. P. Skipper, J. E. Ferguson, Percy V. Hendrickson, James G. Beck, Chestertown ; William McKenney, Robert Hopkins, Centreville ; Lewis Rhodes, Queenstown; John F. Mallalieu, Sudlersville; Cooper Tarbutton, Crumpton; C. W. Wilson, Georgetown ; Frank C. Miller, J. Biddle Hossinger, Kennedyville ; Howard F. Owens, Betterton ; T. Benjamin Durding, Rock Hall.

Arrested.—State Detective McCoy, of Delaware, succeeded in arresting Enoch Brooks, who is charged with killing George Cooper, November 4th, near Millington. He was caught at Coatesville.

The Bank That Pays
FOUR PER CENT
On Time Deposits

Mr. Procrastination

¶ We are told that the above gentleman is the thief of time. The public has no use for him. Mr. Do-It-Now is the man we all admire.

¶ Promptness is the biggest feather a man can have in his hat. If you are going on a train you must be there before it starts, unless you are an unusually fast runner. If you want to make hay while the sun shines, don't wait until noon is past. Do it now!

¶ If you are thinking of starting a bank account, don't procrastinate. Do it now. TO-DAY.

¶ A bank account will enable one to keep his funds securely, yet conveniently. It enables him to convert into available bank balance all of his receipts, whether in the form of actual money, or drafts, or checks, etc. It places at his disposal all the facilities of the bank for handling his business, with the convenience of making payments with checks.

¶ Open an account To-day.

☞ Remember, THE PEOPLE'S BANK is the only bank in Kent county which pays 4% interest on Time Deposits—and four per cent instead of three means one-third more income from your savings.
