Buried Money Is —Not Safe!—

PUT IT IN THE BANK

HIDDEN MONEY LOST.

Bristol, Tenn.—After hiding $1,000 in $20 gold pieces for fifty years at different spots on his premises, John Hopper, of Washington Co., Va., two weeks ago secreted the yellow coin under the kitchen of his home. When he went to get the money yesterday to look at it and count it, it was missing. There is no clue to the theft.

The ONLY safe place for your money is the BANK. Put yours in our bank and have SECURITY and PEACE OF MIND.

YOU CAN RAISE 100% OF CHICKENS HATCHED

PRAISE WHERE PRAISE IS DUE.

"I have been most successful with my incubator chickens this year, having raised 100 per cent. of chickens hatched. In former years I was only able to raise about 40 to 50 per cent. Then I fed them on home products, but this year I am feeding Bolgiano's "Square Deal" Foods entirely, and attribute my success to your nicely balanced foods. My hatches were made with one of your Buckeye Incubators. I tell you this because I believe in giving praise where praise is due."—Written on September 26th, 1911, by Miss Lulu Thomas, of Pearsons, St. Mary's county, Md.

SHINE JUST WHERE YOU ARE.

JOHN HAY.

Don't waste your time in longing
For bright, impossible things;
Don't sit supinely yearning
For the swiftness of angel wings;
Don't spurn to be a rushlight,
Because you are not a star;
But brighten some bit of darkness
By shining just where you are.

There is need of the tiniest candle
As well as the garish sun;
The humblest deed is ennobled
When it is worthily done;
You may never be called to brighten
The darkened regions afar;
So fill, for the day, your mission
By shining just where you are.
Make all good men your well-wishers, and then in years' steady sifting,
Some of them turn into friends. Friends are the sunshine of life.

RICH NECK FARMERS' CLUB.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Newnam entertained delightfully the members and friends of the Rich Neck Farmers Club of Queen Annes, at their attractive home, "Wilburton," on Thursday, November 16th. An added feature was the annual Contest, the West room being artistically decorated for that purpose. The prize was awarded to Mr. H. P. Skipper, although the judges admitted difficulty in coming to their conclusion on account of the excellent quality of most of the exhibits.

At the afternoon session some pointed remarks were made by the ladies on, "What part of the farm products should the wife have for her exclusive use." Mr. Josiah Massey and Mr. J. B. Newnam gave their ideas on the "Best Method of Curing Meat." As both are experts in that line their remarks were right to the point.

Between the afternoon and evening sessions a well-served, elaborate dinner was enjoyed by all. A list of members and guests appends:

Mr. and Mrs.—
James T. Anthony, Josiah Massey,
H. P. Skipper, Harry Smith,

GRANGE NOTES.

Fairlee Grange held a specially interesting meeting Wednesday afternoon and evening. After the regular order of business and music by the choir, readings by Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Corey, song by the choir, the Grange Garner was read by Mrs. Annie Usilton in a clear, correct and elocutionary manner and showed increased interest in contributions. "The Song That Reached my Heart," was sung by Miss Ida C. Crew. An open discussion—"If you were going to buy a farm what would you look for?"—was participated in by various members and each one seemed to be satisfied with his particular place. They all agreed that no better place than Kent could be found. A general social and musical evening was enjoyed by all.

Take Out Adv.—"Guineas, guineas, guineas," says Mr. A. H. Covey, "have been coming to my place since I advertised in the NEWS, don't put the adv. in any more, I am stocked!" When you want anything, whether it's to buy or sell, try the KENT NEWS.
