SATURDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1911.

THE message of President Taft was sent to Congress on Tuesday. It is a judicial paper dealing with the Trust, defending the Sherman law but suggesting legislature to make it more effective in guarding against the restraint of trade.

IN another column is noted the successful termination of an effort to restore the freight line to Nicholson's "Station." This is another step in the line of progress and to no other one man is more credit due than to our energetic fellow citizen, Mr. Harry C. Willis. He, as well as all the farmers in that section, are to be congratulated for the success of the effort.

THE cause of honest labor union received a serious blow in Los Angeles this week when the men charged with setting fire to large business concerns confessed and stated that it was for the Union they did the crimes. The detectives in this case are worthy of commendation as there was every inducement offered to shield these men.

THE Baltimore Sun has investigated the Anti-Saloon League's claim that the local option bill has a majority in both houses of the next Maryland Legislature and in a leading article of a column and a half last Saturday giving an outline of the provisions of the bill to be passed, says:

Politicians Concede Claim.

"The forces which have previously prevented the passage of the Local Option Bill do not vary considerably from Mr. Anderson's figures. Many of the politicians figure that the bill will have at least one majority in the Senate and about five in the House. Everyone admits that Mr. Goldsborough will sign it if it passes."

The matter has assumed such proportions that Governor Crothers in an interview outlining his forthcoming message published in the Sun of Last Monday, while declining to state whether he would refer to the local option bill in his message did suggest that the bill might be passed and get the question out of politics as a disturbing factor by providing that there should be no vote under it in Baltimore City as a whole for some definite number of years in the future.

The League Superintendent in the Sun's interview of Saturday stated that the League will confine itself for some time to the residence wards in Baltimore City that want to vote and to the counties where sentiment is ripe and that the League has no intention of bringing on a fight in Baltimore City as a whole for at least three years. Under the circumstances, the League could hardly complain if the bill should be actually passed with such a proviso which would not exempt Baltimore, but simply make binding the League's own suggested limitation as to the possible time of the vote in the entire City.

FIRST APPLICANT A NEGRO

Word came from Caroline county that the first applicant from that county for a place under the new Republican Governor is a negro, who formerly held office under Governor Lowndes. This dusky applicant is said to be John Wright, of Tuckahoe Neck.

Wright wants one of the appointments at the Tuckahoe Fish Hatcheries, at Coward's Point, on the Tuckahoe river. This is one of the chief hatcheries under the Fish Commissioner for the Eastern Shore, and during the Lowndes administration Wright was an "assistant fish commissioner," according to the negro.

Hand up your plates, "boys."

LAWLESSNESS IN ROCK HALL

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Permit me through your columns to suggest to the commissioners of Rock Hall that a stop should be put to the lawlessness occurring in that town. While it may be fun to pilfer the contents of a wagon driven into the town, and to indulge in the manly sport of slugging, and also make a display of intoxication and profanity within the hearing and gaze of all outdoors, everybody is not content with that kind of behaviour and would like a curtailment of same. Also, while on this line, we notice that the proprietors of the moving picture parlors promise good order. Why not live up to your promise? And to the commissioners—why not have order? Nuff sed.

NEW OFFICIALS.

Democrats Take The Oath And Assume Charge in Orphan's Court, Commissioners Office And Sheriff.

The first new official elected last November to qualify was Mr. William H. McKee, who appeared before Clerk James T. Dixon on Saturday with proper bond and took the oath as Sheriff. He has appointed Mr. Adam Startt, well-known in this community, as deputy sheriff. Former Sheriff Andrew Medders will occupy the Maul house on Maple avenue on January 1st, but for the present will occupy the McKee home. Mr. Perry Cranor will occupy the McKee home on January 1st. Mr. Medders and his courteous deputy, Mr. James Bolton, retire with the plaudits of the good citizens of Kent. The office of Sheriff has never been filled with more temperate, courteous and faithful officials.

The newly elected officials of the Orphans' Court assumed control Tuesday, viz.: W. Bradford Copper, Chief Judge; associates, James Bramble and Charles S. Hill. These gentlemen succeed Messrs. J. H. Simpers, J. P. Nicholson and S. Mann, three of Kent's noblemen who did their duty without fear or favor. The new board certainly have a good record to follow and should prove efficient.

In the County Commissioners' office Mr. Thomas C. Roe succeeds Mr. C. Bradford Dudley, one of the most popular men in upper Kent; Mr. W. Fletcher Melvin succeeds Mr. Harry Davis, who has done his duty as he saw it for eight years; Mr. Harry Nichols succeeds Mr. Alfred C. Loud, the obliging bachelor of the Board who has only missed four sessions in eight years of faithful service. Mr. Charles D. Wood was unanimously elected President and S. Hicks clerk. The new board comprises interested taxpayers who are anxious to reduce the burdens of taxation and men who are competent to administer the affairs of the office. All are Democrats and should have the co-operation of all citizens, and especially all Democrats.

The retiring and incoming Board of Commissioners were dined at the Voshell House Tuesday by Messrs. S. Hicks and C. W. Kibler.

The new Board of Control and Review resumed work on the new assessment Wednesday with Mr. Wood in the chair and Mr. C. W. Kibler, secretary. They hope to complete the work before January 1, 1912.

NOTICE TO WATER RENTERS.

Owing to the improvements in our system that have been in progress the last month or so, it was necessary for our superintendent to be away from the office. Hence our collections have been neglected. Take notice that during this week all water takers will receive a bill, and we ask prompt payment of same. During December the office will be open from 1.30 to 4.30 p. m., and every Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday evenings from 7.30 to 8.30 p. m. You can remit by check with bill attached, and same will be receipted and returned. Draw check to Chestertown Water Board.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mr. John C. Hackett, aged 78 years, died early Friday morning at his home in Sudlersville, of general debility. He was one of the oldest and most highly respected men of his community.

Mr. Hackett was born near Sudlersville on Sept. 1, 1833 and was reared upon the home farm. His parents were the late Gunning Bedford and Sarah C. Hackett. At the age of 18 years, he went to Kent, where he engaged in farming for sometime, and then returned to Queen Anne's, carrying on agricultural pursuits until his removal to Sudlersville in 1885.

In 1856, Mr. Hackett married Mrs. M. Cephelia Cacy, who died in 1885.

Mr. Hackett was educated in the public schools of the county and the Millington Academy. In politics he was a Democrat, and on that ticket was elected, in 1873, county commissioner for a term of two years, and for many years he had served as magistrate at Sudlersville. Fraternally he was a member of the Masonic order.

He is survived by one son, Mr. Woodland Hackett, of New York, and three daughters, Misses Annie and Blanche Hackett, of Sudlersville and Mrs. Julian Power, of Millington. The funeral was held Saturday at 2 p. m. from St. Andrews Chapel.

VICTOR HENDRICKSON.

Victor Hendrickson died at his home near Chestertown Sunday evening after a short illness of heart failure, aged 66. He was a sturdy farmer, one of the "olden times" who believed in honest toil and faithful labor. He was the last of a circle of farmers whose custom was to meet in the NEWS BUILDING every Tuesday and Saturday to exchange ideas, etc. His friends, Wm. S. Walker, J. M. J. Byron, John W. Loud, Wm. Morris, Wm. Anderson, Wm. H. Stewart and E. J. Watson, have crossed the river years ago. He had served his county as commissioner and more recently as local assessor.

Some years ago he retired from active farming, his son, George Hendrickson, assuming charge of the home farm. Besides a widow, he leaves the following children: Mrs. Wilbur H. Morris, Mrs. Frank Shinn, Mrs. Edward C. Walters, who was married only last week; George and Percy V. Hendrickson, all of this county, and Mrs. Robert King, of Bloomington, Ill. He also leaves the following brothers: J. E. Hendrickson, a commission merchant of Philadelphia; John P. Hendrickson, of Atlantic City, and Augustine and Harry Hendrickson, of Millington. Mrs. Marcellous Stewart, of Baltimore, is a sister-in-law, as is also Mrs. Jennie Byron, of Chestertown. The father of the deceased, Peregrine Hendrickson, Jr., was born in Cecil county in 1820 and spent his early life on a farm near Warwick. For four years he resided in Delaware, but went back to Cecil. In 1875 he came to Kent and purchased a tract of 230 acres near Millington where he continued to reside until his death, July 1880. In 1851 he had purchased 370 acres near Chestertown. His wife, Margaret Hill, was a daughter of Jacob Hill, of Kent, Del.

The funeral took place Wednesday and was largely attended, Dr. F. T. Little, officiating. Special music was rendered by Mr. and Mrs. J. Hydie Thompson, Miss Clara Usilton, Mr. D. B. Ford. The pall bearers were Judge C. S. Hill, Harry Nichols, W. F. Wink, Walter U. Lusby, Jas. Wood, Tylden Brice; interment in Chester cemetery, J. E. Ferguson, undertaker.

HENRY PARR

Henry Parr, one of Kent's sturdy citizens, died at his home in Galena last Wednesday night after an illness of about two weeks, aged 78. He has been conducting a harness shop in Galena at which trade he spent his earlier years, but of late included various lines. He served as magistrate for a number of years, also as town commissioner and tried to do his duty. In politics he was an ardent Democrat and gave his party his faithful allegiance and strenuous support. For 51 years he was secretary of Kent Lodge, I. O. O. F., in which position he served faithfully.

Mr. Parr is survived by four children, William, of Still Pond; Harry, of Cumberland; Mrs. S. H. Todd, of Galena, and Miss Jennie, at home. The funeral will take place at 1 30 p. m., Sunday.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

My, the weather man sure gave "we uns" a scare on Monday. The oystermen thought they were to be locked in for awhile. Some began to feel blue but the weather conditions were again o. k. on Tuesday, and on the strength of the fair weather down went the price of oysters. Too many going into market was said to be cause. That doesn't sustain Mr. Killian's howl of a short crop of bivalves.

Capt. Frank Satterfield, of Brooklyn, N. Y., spent a few days of the past week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Satterfield on Main street. Frank is looking as fine as silk.

Mr. C. H. Smith is erecting a stable and carriage house on the old Copper place recently purchased by him from Mr. A. Alexander.

Messrs. M. L. Maslin and C. S. Porter took a day off for sportsmanship last week and visited the farm of Mr. Charly Smith. The result of the day's sport was 9 squirrels, one rabbit, one lark and one shot at a flock of partridges, and soaking wet feet.

Capt. W. R. Coleman continues in a precarious state of health.

Mrs. S. J. Harrison is also very ill. Little hope is entertained for her recovery.

Marion T. Miller, as usual, is ready for Christmas with a nice line of fresh goods at his Rock Hall store. His opening will take place next Wednesday, Dec. 13.

Mr. Marion Hadaway, who has been quite sick the past two weeks, we are glad to state is well and at his postagain as head clerk in Mr. Marion Miller's store.

Miss Mildred Durding of the State Normal School, spent some days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Durding, on Main street.

Misses Grace and Anna Beck, of near Worton, spent the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Hadaway, near Edesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Downey and son Joseph, left Wednesday for Baltimore where they will spent the winter. Mr. William Leary will take charge of Mr. Downey's store and Mr. George Coleman will superintend his canning business.

Max Alexander's Christmas opening takes place Tuesday, Dec. 12th, and of course all the boys and girls are ready for it.

Miss Myra Brice, of Baltimore Normal School, spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Brice, near this place.

Mr. M. Kramer and family, of Baltimore, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Alexander part of last week.

CHILDREN'S DAY.
