LOCAL NOTES

W. W. BECK, ESQ., trustee, sold the Pearly Moffett farm on Tuesday at public sale for $6,000. The purchaser was Mrs. Pearly Moffett. It contains 219 acres and is located near Chesterville.

THE Toulson and Stam drug stores have each installed handsome soda fountains and are preparing to serve hot drinks in winter and cold in summer.

A. L. SPARKS has installed another new counter which is a beauty, all glass.

JOE LEWIS, butcher, removed to his store on corner of Cannon and Cross streets this week.

IF you want furniture visit Bartley's big emporium in town. It is worth a visit to see this big well-stocked store.

THE Chestertown merchants are eclipsing all previous efforts in decorating for the holidays and their goods are new and cheap as can be found anywhere.

OWEN B. CROW, up-town, has a fine line of toys, even better than last year. Call and see his stock.

THE road engineer for Kent county has delivered 10,000 bushels of shells to Worton Manor wharf for use of roads in that neighborhood. Another big scow load has been ordered for the road near Commissioner Nichols' home.

THE newly elected Queen Anne's officers have received their commissions. Mr. William F. Watson qualified for Clerk of the Court Thursday; judges of the Orphans' Court, William J. Price, Jr., Joseph B. Cook and Harry Clark, and County Commissioners George I. Harrison, J. Thomas Stevens and Wm. H. Cecil. State's Attorney-elect Edwin H. Brown, Jr., will take the oath of office January 1.

"PENCADER," 2.09, the noted trotting stallion owned by James T. Armour, of Greenhurst, died on Sunday, of acute indigestion. Mr. Armour had refused an offer of $4,000 for the famed sire and racer.

THE Bankrupt store next to James S. Bradley has closed up business. A Greek has rented the storeroom and will open a home-made candy store.

IN reframing a valuable picture of Shakespeare Mr. George Bell found in the back a number of city papers dated August 16, 1859. In one of them we find the market quotations as follows: Wheat unsettled at $1.15 @ $1.35; corn steady at 72 cents; provisions unchanged; Whiskey firm.

In another we find the wedding on August 31st, of James S. George, of Virginia, and Charlotte J., daughter of the late Philamon Skinner, of Kent, Md.

"ELEANOR" is the title of a beautiful calendar received from W. A. Hyland, Jr., the implement man at Galena. He always has good taste and this is another sample.

JOHN DUNLAP, a former resident of Galena, died Monday after a long illness aged 84, at the home of his daughter in Pittsburg. Mr. George W. Dunlap, the well-known salesman, was at Davis & Satterfield's shops when he received news of his father's death.

THE Baltimore American Tuesday contained a picture of the officials of the Md. State Grange among whom was Mrs. Acca Crew.

THE Stoops and Connelly houses at Lankford have been purchased by Mr. Richard Groves. These buildings are on the corner of Mr. Groves' farm.

MRS. WM. NEEDLES has purchased of Mr. Parks the Shaw double house on Cannon street for $800.

THE afternoon train leaves Chestertown at 3 o'clock and arrives at 6 P. M. The Sunday train leaves here at 4.11.

THE entertainment given in Firemen's Hall Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Chestertown Library was well attended and thoroughly enjoyable. Miss MacLaren is an artist in her line.

A RESIDENT of Chestertown picked five straight winners of SIX races at Jamestown last week and the sixth guess came in second!

THE case of R. F. Parks & Son vs. Griffith & Boyd Co. was argued in the Court of Appeals last Wednesday by R. Groome Parks, Esq., for R. F. Parks & Son, and H. H. Barroll and Frank Gosnell, Esqs., for Griffith & Boyd Co.
