

Needles and pins, needles and pins;
When a man's married his trouble begins,
Unless his wife is the up-to-date kind,
Who saves her time, temper, fuel, body and mind,
By doing her washing the Fels-Naptha way,
And gets it all done in a fourth of a day.

Hard rubbing will wear away iron in time.

Ever notice a washboard that had been used a good while in the old-fashioned way of washing?

Zinc worn thin and wooden edges all worn round?

Clothes are much softer than zinc or wood.

Then just think how much your clothes must have worn away while the washboard was wearing out.

Clothes last twice as long when washed the Fels-Naptha way because there's no boiling to weaken them and no hard rubbing to wear them into holes.

The Fels-Naptha dissolves the dirt so it seems it just rinses out.

You don't need to hard rub it out.

Using Fels-Naptha soap saves fuel, time and health, too, but perhaps you don't care for these things.

You do want your clothes to last as long as possible and for that reason alone you should use Fels-Naptha soap. In Summer and Winter.

Follow directions on the red and green wrapper.

"BEST ON EARTH"

This is the verdict of R. J. Howell, Tracy, O. who bought Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for his wife. "Her case was the worse I have ever seen, and looked like a sure case of consumption. Her lungs were sore and and she coughed almost incessantly and her voice was hoarse and weak. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound brought relief at once and less than three bottles effected a complete cure." Sold by M. A. Toulson, druggist.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS
FOR BACKACHE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER

CONFESS THEIR CRIMES

The McNamara Brothers Plead Guilty of Wrecking Newspaper.

James B. McNamara pleaded guilty to murder in the first degree for the death of Charles J. Haggerty, one of the twenty-one victims of the Los Angeles, (Cal.) Times explosion and fire. John J. McNamara pleaded guilty to dynamiting the Llewellyn Iron Works.

District Attorney John D. Fredericks declared the McNamaras pleaded guilty "because they are guilty."

"I am glad it is all over," was the comment of Clarence S. Darrow, counsel for the defense. The lawyer admits that a bomb was exploded by gas, but that McNamara did not intend to kill anyone.

John J. McNamara, secretary-treasurer of the International Association of Bridge and Structure Iron Workers, did not enter a plea to indictment against him for the Times explosion.

Ortie E. McManigal, who confessed to blowing up the Llewellyn Iron works at the direction of John J. McNamara, will be brought to trial, but will probably get a light sentence for tuaning State's evidence.

The explosion and fire in the plant of the Los Angeles Times took place in October, 1910. The Llewellyn Ironworks were dynamited Christmas, 1910.

It is given out officially that the Federation of Labor has raised a fund of $250,000 to defend the McNamara brothers, and every laboring man in the country that belong to a "union," it is said, have been assessed.

James B. McNamara, confessed murderer, was sentenced to life imprisonment by Judge Walter Bordwell.

His brother, John J. McNamara, secretary of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, who confessed to the dynamiting of the Llewellyn Iron Works, was sentenced to 15 years in the penitentiary.

Twenty-one persons lost their lives in the Times disaster. No one was killed in the Llewellyn Iron Works affair.

Imprisonment will be in San Quentin Penitentiary.

The Epidemic of Crime and Its Portentous Meaning.

DEAR EDITOR:—The epidemic of crime to day the world over seems to be more intense than ever before. Newspapers and magazines not only contain the daily record of the terrible disorders now extant, but editors who have to chronicle the facts of crime are forced to ask the question, What is the matter? In the language of one prominent weekly of recent date:

"The world seems to be upset. Agitation, unrest and disgust prevail. Kingdoms are being uprooted, monarchies undermined, while rankest socialism seeks its day. Great labor disturbances with loss of life are chronicled on both sides of the ocean. Bombs and dinamite do their fearful work. Lynchings, North and South, of innocent and guilty, are reported. Mobs gather at slightest provocation and defy the authorities. * * * The divorce courts are working overtime. * * * Legislative bodies are debauched by demagogues and rankest municipal corruption is wide spread. * * * The blazing sun consumes the crops, and water supplies of cities, great and small, are threatened. * * * The theaters are crowded, while the pews of the churches are empty, and religion is at lowest ebb. Under what sign of the zodiac are we living."

Yet, in the face of this condition of affairs, we are told by some that the world is growing better. Even the distinguished speaker of the House of Representatives maintains that the world is getting better and that there is little need dwelling upon the facts of crime.

It is not our purpose to dwell upon the facts of crime, but we do believe that this great disorder and unrest is a sign which the Bible refers to as marking the closing days of this world's history. Not only does the Old Testament speak of the end of the world and the signs which will show the nearness of that event, but the New Testament abounds in many references thereto.

The great Apostle to the Gentiles, being shown the perilous times before the end, writes:

"This known also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, fierce, despisers of those that are good, traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God." II Tim. 3:1-4.

The Saviour said:

"There shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations with perplexity; * * * men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth. * * * So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand." Luke 21:25-31.

These are statements from the infallible Word written eighteen centuries ago which speak of the record of this time and show that these facts are to serve as a warning that we are living in the last days.
