LOCAL NOTES

WILLIAM PATRICK has rented the brick Hall house on Calvert street.

L. K. STAM injured his hand Wednesday while working on a gasoline engine.

A BEGINNER in the chicken business has over 600 hens and does not get an egg! He hopes his hens will become acclimated soon.

G. W. COPPER has just completed a comfortable dwelling house for R. F. Parks on his Ivens farm, tenanted by John Thomas.

THE Johns Hopkins Musical Clubs will give an entertainment in Stam's Hall Tuesday evening, Dec. 26th. See adv. in this paper.

THE horse belonging to Mr. George Jones which was gored so badly by a vicious bull last week, was put to death to end its sufferings.

ARTHUR LOLLER, near Fairlee, lost a fine seven-year-old mare Tuesday night. She dropped dead in the stall without any evidence of being sick.

THE public schools of Kent will be closed for the Christmas holidays from the afternoon of Wednesday, Dec. 20th until the morning of Tuesday, January 2nd, 1912.

WM. A. BURKE Tuesday sold his Kent street property to Mrs. Rosie O. Howard for $700. The property was offered at public sale, held up and later sold at private sale.

WILL JAMAR'S home at Newnam's wharf was destroyed by fire one day this week. His wife was sick in bed and made a narrow escape from being burned with the house.

EGGS are quoted at 42 cents in Crumpton by Mr. Charley Clements. He says he has a special customer in the South in the person of Andrew Carnegie's family who pay him 45 cents per dozen!

THE new Board of County Commissioners for Queen Anne's have been sworn in and their first official act was to name Mr. E. John Merrick, of Sudlersville, clerk to the board and Mr. J. H. C. Legg as their counsel.

WORTON can lay claim to the biggest egg eaters in the State. It is said that two Wortoners after a days gunning returned home and ordered the cook to prepare 32 eggs for the meal. One of them ate 16 eggs, the other 15, leaving but one egg for the cook! Mr. W. says he couldn't do it again.

THE fattening of geese is in full sway. It is estimated that between four and five thousand geese will be shipped from Kent Island during the next 30 days. This means a bushel of corn for each goose, yet our geese raisers do not complain because they bring from $2 50 to $3.50 apiece. Last year quite a number sold for $3.75 and $4 apiece.

THE drinking fountain on High street has long been in disuse because of the style of trough. The water becomes too stale for drinking purposes as there is no automatic arrangement to keep fresh water in it. A new fountain has been donated the town by one of Kent's best citizens and will be erected as soon as possible near the Protestant Episcopal church.

THREE young men from Easton while enroute from Chestertown Sunday to their home, and going at a rate of forty miles per hour, forgot the short turn at Weatherby's corner until too late, ran into the bank and damaged their Buick machine about $200. They made a narrow escape. Messrs. Withgott and Nickerson got Thos Matthews to take them home.

ANXIOUS to give every possible accommodation to the farmers and patrons of Chestertown business houses, the town commissioners have placed a row of hitching racks along the whole front of the NEWS BUILDING. These racks have been surrounded by shells which have been rolled and put in good shape under the direction of Officer Cooper. The racks in Court street will also be improved.

ON Monday afternoon as Mr. Steller of Elkton, was running his auto delivery between Sassafras and Warwick, suddenly a puff of smoke came up through the floor, and before he could do more than remove a portion of his bread and some of the trays, the motor vehicle was totally destroyed. The vehicle was insured for $600, and its burning causes Messrs Steller Bros. a loss of about $250 as the auto wagon was new.

SOME excitement was caused Tuesday night by the discovery of fire in the kitchen stairs at the home of Mr. Jesse H. Usilton, near Fairlee. A cigarette or match ignited some clothes and had burned through the floor and the end of a trunk when detected. Water in the kitchen served a good purpose in putting out the fire. Mr. and Mrs. Usilton were away from home at the time and when they returned all was in commotion. Mr. Willis and the children were in the front part of the house and knew nothing of the commotion until Wednesday morning.

THE Water Department has received from G. W. Lehman & Son, analytical chemists, of Baltimore, their report on the water from the new pool recently reconstructed. The analysis shows the water to be fit for drinking purposes. Under the head of remarks the chemists write: "This sample represents water of good, clear quality. As we understand, the reservoir or pool from which the sample was drawn has been newly reconstructed, we believe the slight amount of chlorine, nitrates and sulphates will further decrease after the water has been used a week or so."

IN another column will be found statements of the banks of Kent county. They speak well for the county and show a healthy condition. There is no reason for anyone to carry money in trunks, bags or boxes while such convenient banking houses are in our midst. Get the habit of using a bank.

Home Purchased.—Senator-elect Wm. W. Beck has purchased the old colonial Brown house, on Water street, Chestertown, from the owner, Mr. Harry Clay Brown, of Baltimore, through Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., attorney. Mr. Beck will make improvements in the property and when completed this will make one of the most comfortable and finest homes in Chestertown. It is right on the Chester river, and being one of the old colonial homes of Maryland makes it an ideal residence.

Court News.—In the Orphans' Court for Kent county on Tuesday letters of administration upon the estate of Victor Hendrickson were granted to Mrs. Sarah C. and George P. Hendrickson. Joseph Watson and Harry Nichols were appointed appraisers.

The will of David Ashley was admitted to probate which devised his property in Piney Neck to his children. D. W. Crosby was named as executor and James M. Wood and Vachel Burgess appointed to appraise estate.

Claims Hog Championship.—Prices Station can boast of being the champion hog raising town of the county, as it has the biggest hogs and the greatest number of them of any town its size in the county. R. S. Cahall killed four March pigs that dressed 241, 255, 267 and 268 pounds. William H. Cahall dressed two that weighed 258 and 280 pounds respectively. J. S. Pinder has three which weigh up to 255, 273 and 280. J. H. Furbush butchered four that weighed 218, 224, 225 and 287. J. W. Seney had two that dressed 332 and 338. W. J. Massey dressed three of 360, 385 387. Walter Voshell and F. O. Meeds also had some fine porkers.

J. Louis Rhodes killed his fine lot of porkers last Saturday. Three of them weighed 1537 pounds, the following being the respective weights: 510, 513 and 514 pounds. These three are the heaviest hogs ever raised in the 4th district for their age—15 months.

The Winning Maxwell.—The Maxwell automobile that won the Glidden race from New York to Jacksonville was in town this week and the local Maxwell agent, Mr. J. H. Sides took great pride in showing the many merits of this really great machine. In this Glidden tour the Maxwell won in competition with all the high priced machines of the country. The seven Maxwell cars here made the run up the college State road and had a picture taken of the cars and occupant.

A Great Christmas!—People are going for miles to see the great Christmas at Medders & Co.'s Big Store. Old Kriss is there and will be on the roof next week. Read their adv. on page 5. We learn they are serving the distant trade with a good lunch and hot coffee, all free It is a real combination of Xmas shopping with pleasure and satisfaction.

Gunners Beware.—Much complaint is being heard in regard to gunning from gasoline boats on the Chester river. It is a heavy fine to shoot from boats and those guilty of this had better take warning as steps are being taken to bring the guilty ones under the law.

A BROOCH of "diamonds" was found in front of the News office Tuesday. The owner can get same at this office.

"WHAT shall I give for Xmas?" is the question now. The store of Vansant & Newsome will help you solve it. They have a place jam full of practical presents for practical people. See them before deciding finally.
