

M.G. F
1785/2/24

...to the clerk of the house of delegates, ...
...shall be collected on the non-enume-
...to be exhibited a public act, and to continue
...and to the end of the next session thereafter,
...to the above law it is enacted, that
...of the money received shall be remitted
...to the continental treasury, and the residue be applied
...of the general assembly, and that the
...be continued for 5 years and no
...
[To be continued]

Office for confiscated estates, Annapolis, February 22, 1785.

The general assembly having, at their last session, required every purchaser of confiscated estate property, for which bonds have not been taken, to give bond on or before the first day of April next, with such security as the commissioners, under the direction of the Intendant, shall require, for the payment of the money with interest agreed by the contract, payable on the first day of January 1790, with interest annually, to commence from the first day of September last; Notice is hereby given, that constant attendance is given by the commissioners at their office in Annapolis, for the purpose of taking bonds in the manner directed; and that they will attend for the purpose aforesaid, at Mr. McClellan's in Baltimore town, on the 22d, 23d, and 24th days of March next.

Suits are directed to be commenced against every person who shall not give bond on or before the first day of April; and payment enforced by the mode limited by the ninth clause of the act of April session 1784 entitled, An act respecting claims to confiscated estate property, and to direct the commissioners in certain cases.

ELEMENT HOLLYDAY,
GABRIEL BOVALL.

Intendant's office, February 23, 1785.
To be contracted for,

The necessary work of a new roof and cave to the governor's house, and also for the necessary repairs to be made to the dome and roof of the east block, both to be executed under the direction of Mr. Joseph Clark, architect; the designs and the necessary particulars, may be seen with the Intendant, on the 25th of March last.

By order of the Intendant, the 25th of March last.

THO. JENNIFER, Intendant.

Annapolis, February 21, 1785.
WANTED IMMEDIATELY,
A SKILFUL and industrious man, well acquainted and well understood to construct wharves for the purpose of extending WHARVES from Carroll's bank into the river Severn, in the manner as now practised in Baltimore. Any person recommended will be treated with for terms, in proportion to the work.

THO. B. HODGKIN.

his (the large and pouting, as when out of temper; he was of Allen Quynn, Esq; and ran in Anne Arundel county, hired at Mr. John Thomas's in May last, where he passed pounds with all reasonable any person who apprehends a subscriber, in Montgomery to that I get him again.

A negro man named TOB 1784, is a likely well-made foot) about 5 feet 6 or 8 inch the property of Mrs. Craob, is supposed to be in that neighborhood. Five pounds shall be paid to any person who apprehends and secures him to that I get him again.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 29th of January, a man named PETER, forty four inches high, he has a dark skinned mulatto, has big most all his teeth; had on a black and white country cloth jacket without sleeves of a d takes up the said mulatto and that his master may get him taken six miles from home a miles five pounds, if forty pounds, paid by the subscriber.

N. B. He has been in the hood all the summer, and it since been harboured by Mrs. who probably has conspired with him by water.

TAKEN up as a free living on the north side Head of Cypress creek, in a black MARE, about twelve high, docked, but no person may have her again paying charges.

TAKEN up as a free man, living in Frederick Johnson's furnace, a gray MARE, old, and about thirteen hands a brand on the near shoulder may have her again on proving charges.

THE subscriber has by cloaths, of exceeding were imported for the use of them extremely cheap, for retail or wholesale, at the market price.

WILL