William Cranch Trustee for James Greenleafs creditors agt. Gustavus Scott William Thornton Alexander White Isaac Polock and Francis Deakins —

In Chancery March 11th 1800

The motion to dissolve the injunction in this cause issued, coming on to be heard, the bill, answer, and exhibits referred to, were, by the chancellor, read; and the arguments of the counsel on each side were, by him, heard and considered — It appeared to him, that the cause might have been, and may speedily be prepared for final hearing. On the consideration, as well from what is stated by the defendants in their answer as is adjudged and ordered that the said injunction continue until final hearing or the further order of this court —
