ANNAPOLIS, September 5.
A gentleman is informed, that Mrs. Solomon is intended for Friday evening, when the comedy of The PEAUX STRATAGEES be performed, and when it is anticipated, a and liberal public will evince by their munificence, a chaste expression, an assiduous endeavour to lection, and an earnest desire to give satisfaction the best securities of public favour. These always displayed in Mrs. Solomon, aided by the merit of the pieces to be performed, cannot but sure a full and respectable audience.

" On Sunday morning, the 1st of September, after an illness of three days, aged four years, TIO CLARK, eldest son of Mr. James Clark, architect, who, to a liberal education, a rity of heart, and an openness of mind, dered him dear to his relatives and acquaintances, can only lament a youth that bid to flourish

" The ways of Heaven are dark and " Puzzl'd in mazes, and perplex'd with " Our understanding traces them in vain " Lost and bewilder'd in the trackless maze
