

NOTE: ALWAYS INCLUDE REFERENCES TO SOURCES

III, Family

- A. Genealogy of family (previous generations, his generation, his children's)

-underline in red the people in town in 1783

- B. Size in 1783, and over whole period of family existence

-a summary from the genealogy chart

- C. Family connections with other people on tax list

-make a check list of family alliances

- D. Social, economic origins of spouse, her role in family, husband's business, education, etc.

née
Isabella Ferguson
see
Alexander/Eliz. (Taylor /staymaker)
1776 Census
All Hallow's Parish

- E. Mobility of next generation

-i.e., how different were sons' incomes, occupation, etc., from father's?

- IV. Guide to personal papers, materials available for fuller study of the individual (classified as to record group, and a suggestion of content)

-yellow check sheets should constitute such

NOTE: IT IS VERY IMPORTANT

THAT AN ACCURATE RECORD BE KEPT OF MATERIALS USED