

of the lands and tenements aforesaid whereof and soforth to have ought and soforth —

And the said William with the leave of the Court here and according to the form of the Statute in such case made and provided comes and further says that the aforesaid Joseph his execution against him ^{the said William} of the debt and damages aforesaid ~~against him~~ ⁱⁿ the return of the writ of and tenements aforesaid in the return of the writ of acire facias aforesaid mentioned whereof he is returned tenant to have ought not, because he says that on the Eleventh - day of February in the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty six - a writ of capias ad satisfaci-endum was by the order of the aforesaid Charles Ridgely issued on the judgment aforesaid confessed as aforesaid, out of the General Court of the Western Shore to the then Sheriff of Anne Arundel County directed commanding him that he should take the aforesaid Joseph Clarke and John Cuth Macnubin of the County aforesaid if they should be found in his Bailwick, and them safely keep, so that he might have their bodies before the judges of the said Court at Annapolis on the second Tuesday of May then next to satisfy the aforesaid Charles Ridgely the aforesaid said sum of two thousand two hundred and ten pounds current money debt which the said Charles had lately in the said Court recovered against them, and also the aforesaid quantity of five hundred and eighty seven pounds of Tobacco which to the said Charles Ridgely in the said Court were adjudged for his damages which he sustained as well by reason of the detention of that debt as for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf expended, whereof the said Joseph Clarke and John Cuth Macnubin together with the aforesaid Thomas Rutland were convicted and soforth; which said writ of capias ad satisfaciendum was afterwards taken, on the day and year first aforesaid at the County aforesaid