

Lands & Tenements aforesaid whereof I do forth for the debt & damages aforesaid to have ought not, because he saith that the said Joseph Clarke did not at any time since the confession of the said Judgment for the debt & damages aforesaid pay unto the said Charles Ridgely the said debt & damages in the said writ of scire facias mentioned as by his said writ above he hath alleged; and this he is ready to verify; Wherefore he prays Judgment if the aforesaid Joseph his execution of the debt & damages aforesaid ^{against} him the said William of the Lands & Tenements aforesaid whereof I do forth to have ought ~~not~~ I do forth —

+ And the aforesaid William with the leave of the Court here and according to the form of the Statute in substance made & provided comes & further says that the aforesaid Joseph his execution for the debt and damages aforesaid against him of the Lands & Tenements aforesaid whereof I do forth to have ought not because he saith that on the Eleventh — day of February One Thousand seven hundred and eighty six — a writ of Capias ad satisfaciendum was by the order of the aforesaid Charles Ridgely issued on the Judgment aforesaid confessed out of the General Court of the Western Shore to the then Sherriff of Anne Arundel County directed commanding him that he should take the aforesaid Joseph Clarke & John Freight Mackubin of the County aforesaid if they should be found in his Bailiwick & then safely keep so that he might have their bodies before the Judges of the said Court at Annapolis on the second Tuesday in May then next to satisfy the aforesaid Charles Ridgely the aforesaid sum of two thousand two hundred & ten pounds current Money Debt which the said Charles had lately in the
