ANNAPOLIS STREET SCENE—From almost any point in low-lying Annapolis, the domed top of the State House can be seen. From its flagpole flies the black-and-gold Maryland State Flag, whose raising and lowering is one of the daily spectacles in the historic city.

msa_sc6008_1_1-0962.jpg