

We know that Wallace was also a supplier. In addition to the copper, there is an order of June 1774, to his partner in London, for the following materials for the "Publick Building:"

"Charles Wallace Letter of June 1774, order the following Goods to be Ship'd according to the particular directions given for the use of the Publick Building

To be Insur'd

Ironware

2 Casks 4^d Nails
2 do 8 do
2 do 10 do
2 do 20 do
2m 6 Battins
10m 5 do
5m 4 do
5 3 do
2 Gro wood Screws sorted
2 doz plain Iron sorted
2 Best brass Locks
2 do
24 Good Brass Knob Locks
1 Good large Lock for the front Door
2 Good Locks for Back front Doors with 2 Keys to each Lock
3-1/2 doz pairs 4 Inch 4 hole Strong butt hinges
2 pr 12 inch H hinges
1 pr 18 Inch X Garnet do
4 Gro 3 Inch Flat head Screws (wood)
4 Gro inside Shutter hinges
10 Gro Inch wood Flat head wood Screws
2 Gro Brass Shutter rings
20 Locks for Office Doors

DrySattrry

500 White Lead
200 Spanish whiting

Glass

400 Pains Glass ratchiss seconds 13-7/8 by 12 In.
850 do do 16-3/4 by 12-7/8
A Creel of Glass sent in whole as long as to Contain 10 feet
Square for Circular head windows."

During the same period, there is a long order from Shaw & Chisholme who were cabinet makers and joiners which might have been for use in the State House.