

aforesaid on the terms and stipulations herein contained which the said William King and William Hammond promise to observe perform fulfil and keep Now this Agreement witnesseth that if the said William King shall well and truly discharge the interest on all and Every of the said bonds or obligations within one whole year after the same shall respectively (and annually become Due that then the said Joseph Clark will not compel or enforce the payment of the principal of the said bonds until the first day of September one thousand eight hundred, but in case failure shall be made and had in payment of the said Interest as aforesaid at any time or in any year on either of the said bonds then this agreement of Indulgence and every thing therein contained to be void and of no effect also the said Joseph Clark shall have full right and liberty to put the said bonds in suit and foreclose all Equity of Redemption in the said mortgaged premises as effectually and completely as if this agreement had not been made any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding, without any let or molestation either in Law or equity from them the said William King & William Hammond or either of them (and shall also have full power and Authority to sell and convey all and singular the Premises in the said Deed mentioned as to him shall seem meet and the said bonds so passed by the said William King shall remain and stand as a security for the payment of any balance that may be due to the said Joseph Clark after such sale as aforesaid In witness whereof the said parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the day & year first above written.

Sealed & Delivered

In presence of

Wm Foxcroft

Baker Johnson

Recorded 11th March 1789

Wm King

Wm Hammond

Joseph Clark