

Democratic Review.

GREATLY REDUCED PRICE. From $5 to $3 per annum.

The price of the Democratic Review has heretofore been too high—not for its size, cost and character, but for the means of glad to receive it, and among whom it is highly desirable that it should circulate.

This very large reduction in the receipts (accompanied with a comparatively small diminution of its expenses) involves of course an entire sacrifice of profit upon it, unless compensated by a vast multiplication of its subscribers.

We look for an extension of circulation to be reckoned by tens of thousands as the result and compensation of this great reduction of price.

Those who have paid in advance for the coming year will receive it at a reduced rate, for a year and a half.

TERMS HENCEFORWARD. (Invariably in advance.)

Single copy $3.00 Eight copies $20. Four copies 10.00

It will thus be seen that when thirteen copies are ordered at once, the price is brought down about $2.30 each.

These rates afford high inducements to agents and others to interest themselves to procure subscribers. The cash system of payment in advance must be uncompromisingly adhered to.

THE ADMIRABLE DAGUERTYPE OF GEN. JACKSON, taken by Anthony, Edwards & Co. a few weeks before his death, has been purchased for the use of the Democratic Review.

NO CHANGES IN THE WEATHER. Will materially affect the body if the blood is pure. Every individual, even the most diseased, has within him a germ or root of that pure blood of our common mother Eve.

THE UNDERIGNED, Physicians of Baltimore, having been made acquainted with the ingredients composing "Hemsey's Vegetable Tonic," have no hesitation in saying that the compound, if properly used, cannot fail to conduce greatly to the accomplishment of the object proposed in its employment.

THE PREPARATION MADE BY MR. HEMSEY, Apothecary, Easton, Md., and known as "Hemsey's Vegetable Tonic," is in my opinion the best article ever offered to the public for the radical cure of that distressing affection, Intermittent Fever.
