VARIETY.

AN ENVIOUS POET.

Some Western poet discources thus of his love and a dog of "hern," plainly showing the envy that is rankling in his heart:--

"When Peggy's arms her dog imprison,
I often wish my lot was his'n—
How often would I stand and turn,
To get a pat from hands like hern."

SARAH-NADE.

Vake, lady vake!—the moon are high,
The twinklin' stars is beamin';
While now and then across the sky,
A me-te-or are streamin'.

Vake, lovely one! The sky are clear,
Refreshin' is the breezes!
It blows my nose while I sets here,
A fiddlin' 'neath the treeses.

Vake, Sary, dear! The tadpole's note
Are heard in yonder rushes;
And the warblin' tree-toad sweels his throat
A singin' in them bushes.

Vake, Wenus, mine! The vipperwill
Sings on that big stump yonder;
The owl pipes forth his hootin' shrill—
(Vy don't she vake, I vonder?)

All softly on the gras-sy lea
The moon her beams are pourin,'
The stars look down and vinks at me—
(By gum if Sal ar'nt snorin'!)

Vake, Sally, vake! and look on me;
Vake Squire Simpson's daughter!
I'll have you, if you'll have me—
(By gosh! who throw'd that water?)

Oh! Sally Simpson, thus to slight—(Here comes the bull-dog now!
"Bow-wow," Oh! now he's got a bite!
Alas! "Bow-wow," "Oh! ow!"

A WESTERN JUDGE.

A paper published somewhere out West gives the following report of a Judge's sentence lately passed on a criminal. Brumley was doubtless a "hard case," but what kind of a "case" the Judge is, our readers may determine:—

"Brumley, you infamous scoundrel!—you're an unredeemed villain—you haint a single redeemin' trait in your character—your wife and children wish we had sent you to the penitentiary. This is the fifth time I've had you up before me, and you have put me to more trouble than your neck is worth. I've exhorted and prayed over you long enough, you scoundrel! Just go home and take one glimpse at your family; and be off in short order; don't let us ever hear of you again. The grand jury have found two other indictments against you, but I'll discharge you on your own recognizance, and if I ketch you in this neck of woods to-morrow morning at day-light, I'll sock you right square in jail and bump you off to Jeffersonville in little less than no time—you infamous scoundrel! If I ever ketch you crooking your finger at man, woman or child—white wan or niggar—I'll sock you right square into the jug. Stand up, you scoundrel! while I pass sentence on you!"

APPEAL TO A JURY.

Gentlemen of the Jury, I quote from Shakspeare when I say you "To be or not to be—LICKED—that's the question." My client is a national stump machine—he flings his wrath in pailsful; and it is dangerous to run a snag against his interest. Let me be fodder for a fool, and chowder for a powder mill if he is guilty, notwithstanding the criminal absurdities alledged against him in this indictment. Do you believe that my client is so destitate of the common principle of humanity—so full of the fog of human nature, so wrapped up in the moral insensibility of his being, as deliberately to pick up a tater and throw it at the nasal protuberance of the prosecutor! No! not while you can discern a star in the northern sky—while the waters of the Ohio roll—and the race of buffaloes nestle on the Rocky Mountains, this immutable principle will remain—that my client is a GENTLEMEN, tater or no tater!

ANECDOTE OF DANIEL WEBSTER.

Daniel Webster had a brother named Ezekiel, a man of noble feelings, and whose intellect perhaps equalled his more celebrated relative; but he loved the quiet walks of life, and contented himself with the reputation of being an excellent prudent man, and a sound lawyer, without trying his fortune in the thorny paths of politics. The brothers were always warmly attached to each other, and the following anecdote, characteristic of their different temperaments and habits, is told of their childhood. Money had been given to each of them, to go out and share in the festivities and parade of the fourth of July. When the boys returned at night, their mother said, "Well, Daniel, what did you do with your money?" "I bought powder and fireworks, and cakes and beer," answered he. "And what did you do with yours, Ezekiel?" "Lent it to Dan," was the brief reply,

THE ALABAMA VOTER.—"Are you in favor of biennial sessions of the Legislature? asked a manager of an election in Alabama of a voter.

"Who?" says the voter, whose name was Ance Veazy, and withal, tolerably green.

"Are you in favor of biennial sessions of the Legislature, sir?"

"Biennial Sessions! I don't know him—is he any kin to Reub. Sessions, sir? Ef he is, I'll be d—d ef you ketch me a votin' fur him! You never hearn me tell 'bout that fite I had with Reub. Sessions, up in Shelby—did you?"

"Never mind your fights now, Mr. Veasy; answer, yea or nay."

"I does'ent know what you mean by your ya and na's; but I'll be dot rotted ef I vote fur enny ov the Sessions family, no how you can fix it! Bah! Biennial Sessions, indeed! jest as much fit fur Guvnur as fire is fur a ice-house!"

PRINTING OFFICE JOKES.—It is customary in some printing offices, when a particularly green youth commences learing his trade, to make him the object of various jokes. He is often sent to a neighboring office for an article which is of course imaginary, wholly original in the minds of those who perpetrate the joke. Once upon a time a boy was sent to K——'s office for a quart of editorial. He was sent back with the picture of a jackass. This was rather severe upon the jokers—but they immediately told the boy to go to K——, and tell him "it was the editorial they wanted, and not the editor."

FARM for SALE.

THE FARM upon which Capt. John S. Skinner resides, situated in Queen Ann's county, Md., is offered for sale.

This farm, from its location, offers inducements to purchasers rarely to be met with. It is situated upon a tributary stream of Queenstown creek, where are abundant in their seasons. It is convenient to Church, Mill, and the business places of the county, being equi-distant between Centreville and Queenstown.

Oysters, Ducks and Fish

The soil is well adapted to the growth of Wheat and Corn.

THE BUILDINGS, with some repairs, are ample for the purposes of the farm. It contains 383 ACRES of Land, a fair proportion of which is in WOOD.

It is rented to a good tenant for next year, and will be sold subject to one year's lease.

One third of the purchase money will be required in cash, and a liberal credit given upon the balance, by being properly secured. SAML. OGLE TILGHMAN,

HEMSLEY'S VEGETABLE TONIC.
PREPARED BY
R. F. HEMSLEY,
PHARMACEUTIST,——Easton, Md.

NO MEDICINE has acquired in so short a time so deserved a popularity; and none is prepared to present so honorable an array of certificates from the FACULTY OF MEDICINE and private individuals throughout the State as Hemsley's Vegetable Tonic. In moderate doses, regularly taken, this medicine is a sure preventive of Fever & Ague and Bilious Fever, while it affords in most instances a permanent cure when employed for the removal of these diseases. In all cases of general debility arising from old age, protracted illness, or uniform delicacy and feebleness of constitution, it is without question one of the most agreeable and efficient tonics ever offered to the public. Let all who are afflicted apply to this remedy with the full expectation of perfect relief. It promises nothing which it is not competent to perform; and must, in a very short time, be the remedy preferred to all others in the various forms of Fever and Ague and in cases of general debility. Full directions for using it will accompany each bottle.

Certificates.

The undersigned, Physicians of Baltimore, having been made acquainted with the ingredients composing "Hemsley's Vegetable Tonic," have no hesitation in saying that the compound, if properly used, cannot fail to conduce greatly to the accomplishment of the object proposed in its employment; and do therefore cheerfully recommended it to the afflicted public.

J. K. MILLER, M. D.
Former President of Washington Med. Col. and Profes of Anat. Physiology, &c. &c.
SAML. K. JENNINGS, M. D.

THOS. OWINGS, M. D.
Fayette Street.

The preparation made by Mr. Hemsley, Apothecary, Easton, Md., and known as "Hemsley's Vegetable Tonic," is in my opinion the best article ever offered to the public for the radical cure of that distressing affection, Intermittent Fever. This composition forms a pleasant bitters, and furnishes a most desirable tonic in cases of constitutional debility resulting from natural infirmity or the ravages of disease. I have recommended this medicine extensively in my practice and have always found it to answer the desired purpose.

CHRIS. C. COX, A. M. M. D.

Mr. R. F. Hemsley, Sir:—This is to certify that for a long time I labored under the debilitating influence of that dreadful disease, Ague & Fever, and had recourse to many remedies recommended to me by Physicians and others, all of which proved unavailing. I heard of your celebrated 'Vegetable Tonic,' of which I procured two bottles, and before I had taken it all I was entirely restored, and have not since felt any symptoms of its return. It has accomplished more in my case than all other remedies put together, and I most cheerfully recommend it to all those persons who may be laboring under this most wretched disease.

Citizens of the United States,

Let it be remembered that Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills have now been before the citizens of the United States for nearly six years, and used by hundreds of thousands! They are so well known that it need scarcely be mentioned that they are a "Purgative Medicine," so "justly balanced" that the "experience of a century" has proved that they may be taken in any dose, according to Nature's requirements,—and this rule refers to both sexes and all ages. They have been used in every variety of derangements of the human body, and yet, when properly used, never failed to restore to health, except in those cases where nature was exhausted before the pills were commenced with.

Experience has taught that Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills remove all corrupt humors from the body, in an easy, safe and effectual manner; producing no effect but what will finally conduce to the perfect purification of the Blood, and thereby cure the disease, (whatever name it may be called,) and give perfect health to the whole system.

Remember, Druggists are not permitted to sell my Pills—if you purchase of them you will obtain a counterfeit.

STAINBURN'S
VEGETABLE EXTRACT PILLS.

THIS MOST POPULAR OF ALL MEDICINES has truly gained the confidence of the many thousands of sufferers who have used it, in many forms of disease, with UNFAILING SUCCESS.

The following complaints have always been cured when the Stainburn Pills have been taken according to the directions which accompany each:—

Dyspepsia,	Coughs and Colds,
Costiveness,	Rheumatism
Bilious complaints,	Fever and Ague,
Liver complaints,	Scrofula, Worms,
Cholic, Biles,	Measles, Small Pox,
Eruptions in the Skin.

A vast number of communications have been received by the proprietor, each proving a cure of some of the above diseases, and which might here be introduced, would space permit, but it is hoped the following will be sufficient to place beyond all doubt their curative virtue:

From DR. REED, of Virginia.
Norfolk, June 12, 1844.

Dr. Stainburn:—Sir: Since I last wrote you, I have seen several persons who have been using the Vegetable Extract Pills, and in every case they have proved themselves worthy the name they bear. A young man by the name of John Forsythe, had been wasting away in a seated consumption for several years, and by using the Extract Pills for about two weeks, his cough, pains, &c., left him entirely, and he is now so well as to be about his ordinary business. Indeed sir, from the rapidity of the sales, the value of your pills may be safely discerned. I am entirely out, have daily calls for them, and wish you would forward me more as soon as possible. Yours, &c. THOS. S. REED.

[From Massachusetts.]
Worcester, June 17, 1844.

Dr Stainburn:—My daughter, who had a distressing cough, raised a great quantity of phlegm, and who was afflicted with palpitation of the heart, had taken a box of your Vegetable Extract Pills, and is now quite well. Others bear testimony to their good effects. Yours respectfully,

JOHN STRIKER, Jr.

[From Pennsylvania.]
EASTON, July 1, 1844.

Dr. Stainburn. I have considerable matter to tell you concerning the Extract Pills, where they have performed cures, when those who have bought them had scarcely any faith in their effects. There is a lady here, now able to attend to her domestic concerns, who was, at the time she commenced taking them, confined to her chamber, and prostrated on her bed. I will tell you more when I see you: please credit my account with the enclosed twenty dollars, and send me by the bearer another gross of pills.

Respectfully, &c. GEO. S. SMITH.

[From Connecticut.]
New Haven, June 27, 1844.

Dr. Stainburg:—Your Vegetable Extract Pills have had wonderful effects in several cases in this town; I sold a box to a man who had been sick with comsumption and rheumatic complaints for four or five years, and who was unable to dress himself without any trouble, and think he has wholly recovered. I am quite out of the pills; will you send me a lot by the first opportunity?

Yours in haste, R. W. SMALLEY.

The Pills are sold Wholesale and Retail at Dr. Stainburn's office, No. 7 Ann Street, and by most of the respectable Druggists in New York. Also, by one agent in each village in the United States.

CAUTION TO AGENTS.

The immense demand for the Stainburn Pills has induced some unprincipled rascals to make a counterfeit, and hawk it about the country; but let agents be aware of these persons, and remember that he who sells a counterfeit medicine, or encourages such vile traffic, is as much to be shunned as the poisonous adder—let him not be housed or fed, drive him from your houses and from your villages, as you would drive away a dangerous pestilence; for be assured the creature who could sell to you a counterfeit pill, to rob you of your health, is base enough to carry the assassin's knife and take away your lives.

My travellers are each furnished with a power of attorney, signed Jas. W. Stainburn, and proved before a Notary Public of the United States, and also by the Clerk of the city of New York; they also bear the Notarial Seals of the United States and the City of New York. You will therefore please to preserve this advertisement, and should any person offer you my medicine without such power of attorney, do not deal with him for your own credit's sake, but point to it, and say, "Thou art the man to be despised and shunned."

N. B.—Agents who may desire supplies of my pills before my travellers call upon them, will please forward their orders per mail to No. 7 Ann Street, and oblige their obedient servant,

JAS. W. STAINBURN.

CLICKENER'S
SUGAR-COATED VEGETABLE EXTRACT PILLS.

A Medicinal preparation is herein announced which has been long desired, and sought for, and which the public must at once see and acknowledge the advantage of. It is a purgative pill, COATED with SUGAR, so that it leaves no taste whatever of its internal ingredients. In fact the medicine is so entirely disguised that if a person were to swallow the pills without being informed what they were, he would believe them to be simply lumps of pure sugar; nor could he afterwards, unless by its great purgative effect suspect that he had been taking medicine, for these pills are so skilfully prepared that they do not gripe the bowels; and thus the patient who takes them avoids two evils which attend all other purgative medicines; namely: nausea and pain. Medicine administered in all other sweet forms has the disadvantage of being mixed with the sugar, and hence produces a mingled flavor, which, to most persons is more disagreeable than unadulterated bitterness In these pills this is altogether avoided; the sugar and the medicine being entirely distinct from each other, so that the former must be thoroughly removed before the latter can manifest itself to the taste. It is universally known that nearly all diseases originate with impurity of the blood. Pure blood is therefore essential to health. We must not, however, wait until the blood is impure, for then it takes time—and that time passed in ill health—to rectify it; but when the slightest derangement of the system is indicated by costiveness, or any other sign, it admonishes us that superfluities are gathering in the system, which should at once be got rid of, for their removal leaves the chyle, (from which the blood is formed) in a healthy state, and purity of blood must be the result. This fact, as stated, is universally known; but people have such an aversion to medicine, that, unless the case is urgent, they prefer the disease to the cure, until an impaired constitution, or a fit of sickness rebukes them for the folly of their conduct. Still they had some excuse; for heretofore, medicine in almost all its forms, was nearly as disgusting as it was beneficial. Now, however, the evil is most effectually removed; for have no taste whatever of medicine—produce none of the nausea and griping, attendant on the operation of other medicine—while their speedy effect in removing all impurities from he system cannot be excelled by any other medicine which has ever been discovered.

Clickener's Sugar-coated Vegetable Extract Pills

It is unnecessary to say more here. If these pills are, as described, the public will freely and gladly patronise them; and the proprietor merely asks a trial, which he is sure of receiving, to prove that he assumes no merit for them which they do not fully possess.

Clickener's Sugar-coated Vegetable Extract Pills are prepared and sold, wholesale and retail and for exportation, by C. V. CLICKENER & Co., Chemists, at the wholesale and retail drug warehouse, No. 79 and 81 Barclay street, New York. Price 25cts.

CAUTION.—The public should remember that C. V. Clickener is the inventor of the Sugar-coated Pills, and that nothing of the sort was ever heard of until he introduced them. Therefore should any other person, seduced by the popularity of his discovery, advertise Sugar-coated Pills, they must be a wretched counterfeit, which it would be dangerous to use, as none but the most ignorant quacks can be found dealing in such a nefarious traffic as palming off counterfeit for genuine medicines. feb 4
