

THE DEMOCRAT.

CAMBRIDGE-MD.

Office, by passing through the passage below.

their doings.

votes thrown for other members.

our readers in our next number.

ust "the difference now you see" ixt tweedle-dum and tweedle-dec."

Such seems to be the only rational view which Such seems to be the only rational view which Such seems to be the only rational view which Such seems to be the only rational view which Such seems to be the only rational view which Such seems to be the only rational view which Such seems to be the only rational view which Such seems to be the only rational view which Such seems to be the only rational view which Such seems to be the only rational view which Such seems to be the only rational view which Such seems to be the only rational view which Such seems to be the only rational view which Such seems to be the only rational view which Such seems to be taken of the effects to be produced on the United States by the present commercial panic in and financiers in England are observers of passing the liberty as our readers will see of No. have taken the liberty, as our readers will see, of No, that party goes for its "country right or England. In a political point of view, it is equally events in this country, and particularly of those changing, by a slight alteration of words, the idea wrong." No sympathy, from abroad or at home, novel. In the minst of a terrible struggle for food, which occur in States largely indebted to British. conveyed in the lines above as originally written. If by so doing we have trampled upon any body's thrones of the old world. They may fall and the prostration of the aristocracy, even leading to the prostration of the aristocracy, even leading to the prostration of the aristocracy, even leading to the prostration of the prostration of the prostration of the aristocracy, even leading to the prostration of the rights, or offended any body's taste, we with be- pass away "as the baseless fabric of a vision, an internal revolution, what can England do in precoming humility here beg their pardon. We have leaving not a wreck behind," and Democracy will not done so to try our genius, or to bring ourselves only have more scope for the exercise of its health- Orcgon? or from purchasing of Mexico all Califorinto rivalship with those whose peculiar province ful influence. We would say to the world"-let it is to "speak in sweet sounding words, or write ven descend equally on the rich and the poor."— the blessings of government like the dews of Headington and California. England cannot move a step, we have her on the columns of the London and California. England cannot move a step, we have her on the columns of the London and California. merry music making lines." Our object is to make This is the Democracy handed to us hy our fath- the hip, and we can get both, by feeding instead, of such an application of the material before us as the ers, and this we preach. facts justify and reason sustains And perhaps law either of morals, poetry or politics.

tress throughout the land. And when such efforts health, from all the living. country. Their false praphecy and the virtue of the people's decision are as clear as the noon day's one heart, to set apart one day, for the united expanded on the difference of this State will be willing, with expressions of approbation of my public conduct all the people's decision are as clear as the noon day's one heart, to set apart one day, for the united expanded on the difference of this State will be willing, with expressions of approbation of my public conduct all the people's decision are as clear as the noon day's one heart, to set apart one day, for the united expanded on the difference of the differenc

"negative character." Verily, indeed is it so that so paternally provided for our necessities. wee to the American people, now at least does them and with the feelings which these considerations ny path's the federalist tread, and that they, looking be su liciently thankfulr to such a rough and hard road, would turn and of a vast portion of the people who opposed the election of Mr. Polk, we cannont reasonably thus eight hundred and forty-five. hope with regard to the federal organs. No, many of them seemed joined to their idols, and nothing WEDNESDAY MORNING,-DEC. 3, 1845. subdued it. They say "wait until the land has tical institutions, and the progress of society in Eu-direct.

been drenched in blood," before you speak of the rope A financial panic has begun in England-no The mail steamer Tweed arrived the same day munication he might have to make, was then adopt- in the security of his life his property and his name. ed. We shall endeavor to lay the message before A convincing answer in the weight of their purses TIMES, the TIMES settle the question.

will live forever. We profess to be lovers of our are no Poet, nor are we aware that we ever mocratic party ever charged with taking sides with of the world westward.

PROCLAMATION.

days of Jackson's administration, the federal or-business avocations, and assemble in their usual for the future the only, so is it a most ample reward the interest of persons were presented to witness which is the federal or-business avocations, and assemble in their usual for the future the only, so is it a most ample reward the interest of persons were presented to witness avocations, and assemble in their usual for the future the only, so is it a most ample reward the interest of persons were presented to witness avocations. gans, afraid that the people might attribute the places of religious worship, that the Temples, for whatever service it may have been in my power change to the election of Mr. Polk, now declare that so far his administration has been entirely of a has so bountifully responded to our petitions, and which you have pleased to communicate the prothis administration which was to be so prolific of Exercises such as these, entered into with spirit should excite, cannot fail to turn the mind to the o harm. Well, we are gratified even at this con-lively remembrance of the immeasurably great ir ression. We would hope, for their own prosperity, blessings of the redemption through a Savior, and at the light which has directed, the footsteps of the Revelation to fallen man of the way of salva-Lynchburg Virginian, that on Tuesday last, at Ap., hour.—io.

the Democracy had thrown its rays upon the thor- non; blessings for which the human heart can never pomattox court-house, Win. James McDearmon, In testimony whereof I have hereunto affixed the ble citizen, was killed by Coleman C. May, attor-- privy seal of the State. Witness my hand; at ney at law, (formerly of Stanton,) who has been journey with us. But though we may hope this [L. s.] the city of Albany, the fith day of Novem- for some months a resident of Appomattox. May ber in the year of our Lord one thousand has escaped, and a reward of $100 is offered for his apprehension. The act is alleged to have been

SILAS WRIGHT. deliberate and without provication .- [Clipper.

Horace Moody, Private secretary. FROM HAVANA AND MEXICO. but the spirit of a commendable charity induces us [From the Philadelphia Spirit of the Times.] By the arrival of the Empresario, Capt. Collins, to violate the policy of letting them alone. Al- The LATE FOREIGN NEWS .- The New York at New Orleans files of Havana papers to the 12th though they admit that nothing, as yet, has been Herald commenting upon the late Foreign news inst. have been received. On the 6th inst. the royal mail steamer Medway and destructive spirit that raged so violently before The character of the news is of the most start-arrived from Vera Cruz, with $600,000 in specie. the election yet lives. Disappointment has not yet mercial point of view, may even running into poli- 27th ult.—two days later than we have received

Our office will be found opposite Messrs. wonders of Mr. Polk's administration. Is it possi-doubt in France also-brought about by the strange from Jamaica, with 550 flasks of quicksilver. The BELL & DAIL'S Store, and over Mr. Anthony's ble they are so illiberal! Will they not allow us stock speculations—stringent corn laws, and generatived from Pensacola stock speculations—stringent corn laws, and generatived from Pensacola to speak of the administration as it now exists, al alarm. The panic begins to prevade all classes It is stated in the Faro Industral that Baron Alwhen they were so ungenerous as to denounce it in __the cottage of Irash peasent, as well as the cab-leve de Cyprey was a passenger on the Medway.

Congress.—This body met on Monday last.— the boldest terms a year in advance! Yes it is inet of the British premier. Thousands are alreadenessed accounts had incorrectly mentioned that We shall avail ourselves of all the conveniences even so. And more. They stigmatize as "fraudu-dy ruined by the railway revulsion which began he took his passage on the Eurydice. afforded us to keep our readers well acquainted with lent and foolish" our views of the effects of our own are threatened with starvation by the shortness of the Spanish frigate Cristina, which left Havana on are threatened with starvation by the shortness of the Spanish frigate Cristina, which left Havana on are threatened with starvation by the shortness of the Spanish frigate Cristina, which left Havana on are threatened with starvation by the shortness of the Spanish frigate Cristina, which left Havana on the starvation by the shortness of the shortness of the Spanish frigate Cristina, which left Havana on the starvation by the shortness of the shortness of the Spanish frigate Cristina, which left Havana on the starvation by the shortness of the shortness o principles, & attribute everything done by the gov- the crops. A third of the potato crop is ruined— the 15th ult. ernment & endorsed by the party to anti-republican rotten—but is not a small potato revulsion—it is Gen. Canalizo, the ex-Provisional President of By yesterday Sun, now on our table, we learn feelings and interested motives. They do not even the beginning of a big potato revolution, that may Mexico; has taken passage with his son from Hathat the lower branch of Congress was called to orgive us the credit of being honest in our opinions,

that the lower branch of Congress was called to orgive us the credit of being honest in our opinions, for they charge us with "bold and reckless deepder on Monday morning at twelve o'clock. The for they charge us with "bold and reckless deeplead to terrible consequences to the institutions and purposes travelling through the Peninsula.

The Mexican troops stationed at Jalapa, which,
This exciting intelligence created a deep sensaelection of Speaker was immediately entered into, tion" and "fraudulent and foolish efforts." Now, tion yesterday afternoon, and the inquiry was gen-according to some estimates, amounted to 4000 and Mr. J. W. Davis, of Indiana, the Democratic after so many false prophets have arisen and false eral—how will it affect affairs in this country?— men, have been ordered into Cantonments at Paso candidate, was elected on the first ballot, receiving doctrines been inculcated by the Federal press; Many persons, may express different opinions—but de Ovejas, a small place half way between Vera 120 votes. Mr. Vinton of Ohio—the regular Whig now we say after all this has passed away, what in our view, the general panic in England will be Cruz and the former city. The general in comreadidate—received 72 votes. There were a few will the calm and sober judgments of reasonable commercially and politically. The United States Medway sailed, intending to remain there.

men determine touching this matter. 'The rich is the only country from which England or Ireland 'The incident in regard to the sailing of the St. The SENATE met at the usual hour, Vice Presi- man can find an answer in the successful invest- can procure a fully supply of food. The crops on Mary's from Vera Cruz, and the offer to aid from dent Dallas in the Chair. The customary resolu- ment and circulation of his means. The poor man the continent are also short. If the ports should the Montazuma, is mentioned in the Havana papers. tions appointing a committee to wait on the President can find an answer in constant employment and fair will be exported to prevent famine in England and circular on the 22nd of October, by direction of the will be exported to prevent famine in England and circular on the 22nd of October, by direction of the in conjunction with a similar committee from the wages. All can find an answer in the manifold Ireland. This will bring a large balance of cash President, qualifying gravely and explaining the de-House of Representatives, to inform him that Con- and liberal blessings of a liberal government. An to the American agriculturists and corn merchants, tails of the tariff as promulgated a few weeks ago. gress was organized, and ready to receive any com- answer in the high privileges known to the citizen The English manufactures, to prevent a political The difficulty was occasioned by some important tolerably full supply of cotton-and this political culation in the fourth ult. We note this matter for and social neccessity will keep up the price of cot- the benefit of merchants whom it may concern.

and the prosperous state of trade. The times, the ton to a moderate extent. Again, the general panic The death of an illustrous prelate of the Cathoin railway stocks, added to the dread of famine, will lie church, the Archbishop of Gualemale and Bish-We scarcely know what to say of the reflection extend to all the other elements of trade-confi- op of Havana, is announced in the Diario of the found the proclamation of Gov. Wright, of New cast unpon the Democratic party by the Chronicle, dence will evaporate—the bullion in the bank will 10th inst.

We find some speculations in regard to the sugar be drawn out—and most probably, for fear of a We find some speculations in regard to the sugar proclamation of Gov. Wright, of New in charging that party with aiming to "drench the notice of the proclamation of Gov. Wright, of New in charging that party with aiming to "drench the notice of the noti reat men the Patriot and the Statesman stand con- land in blood." This much we will say however their persons and their property to the safe, peace- the amount of the product of the Island has been occupily forth. It is a model of proclamations that we have now in our ranks, as we had in days ful and plentuous shores of the United States. This exaggerated for purposes of speculation. The wriall who occupy a similar position in this coun- gone by, men whose blood has enriched the soil— will increase the elements of prosperity, now so ter offers a species of wager that the crop will fall whose bravery added honor-whose intellect made active and substantial, in this country. The banks short of 700,000 boxes.

The found sentiments of deep toned piegreat the character of the country. Men who ingreat the character of the country. Men who instituted a government which has made an impressstituted a government which has made an impressstituted a government whose deeds and names rapidly following up the signal. Sooner or later, price of the tickets taken in the royal lottery, Elsion on the world—men, whose deeds and names sion on the world—men whose deeds and names the great floating masses of bullion now in Europe Empredrado, the drawing having been postponed, must come to this country, and the panic in stocks, owing to the sale of tickets not having produced country, and are willing to defend her honor and her in food, &c., which has broke out in England, is sum adequate for the purposes for which the lotter rights. The facts do not convict, nor was the De- the beginning of the tide that will float the wealth was projected.

> venting the United States frow taking the whole of Maryland to be honest to her creditors. The letters written some time since on these points by our distinguished townsman, J. J. Speed, Esq., were immenia? Now is the favorable moment for our govtheir honotable and lofty tone—and we see in the highting her.

Verry respectfully, and truly

Your friend and obd't serv't

M. VAN BUREN.

London Morning Post of the 3d inst., that the last letter of Mr. Speed, addressed to a farmer in Baltimore county is republished in that paper, with com-[From the Pennsylvanian.] they will agree with us that we have violated no By Shas Wright, Gor, of the State of N. York. LETTER FROM MR. VAN BUREN. The admirers mendatory comments, and evident confidence in an A usage, which has the approbation of a quarter of this distinguished statesman will be glad to see early resumption of payment by the State. We It is well recollected by all what gloomy prophe- of a century, calls upon me, at this period of the that he appreciates the good will of the republican hope that the anticipations in this respect, both of cies were made and bold denunciations indulged in of this State, as a day of Public Thanksgiving.— measures which it was his fortune to recommend, be realized—as we have nothing more at heart, by the Federal party previous to the election of The uniformity in the time heretofore designated, and which "the sober second thought" of the peo- than the re-instatement of Old Maryland in the ho-Mr. Polk. They declared that the very idea (if it throughout the period refered to, induces me to ple will yet carry into effective action. The Dem-norable position which she once occupied. Mr. could be for a moment entertained) that Mr. Polk stood any chance whatever in the contest, would see that the contest of Bradford county have recently been holes speed has exerted his talents and influence to propose the country have recently been holes of Bradford county have recently been holes of Bradford country have recently been holes deaden the energy of the people, dry up the streams Life and health are enduring causes for thank- Reporter says: "Mr. Van Buren's letter to the proof business, and create general and universal dis-fulness to the Father of life and the fountain of ceedings of the Democratic meeting recently hol- from the remarks of the London Morning Post: dea in Bradford has been handed to us, a letter "The views of Mr. J. J. Speed, of Baltimore, on tress inronghout the land. And when such enorts as these failed to frighten those who may have been thought timid, or drive the wavering from their land. And when such enorts are the subject of the debt of Maryland, and State liance from Maj. Kellogg, chairman of the meeting, rethe subject of the debt of Maryland, and State liance failed to frighten those who may have been repeatedly echoed in ciple of popular sovereignty, and extending to every questing its publication. The sentiments so elophibities generally, have been repeatedly echoed in thought timid, or drive the wavering from their quently expressed by Mr. Van Buren in approbatic the columns of the Morning Post. The hopes of individual equal personal liberty, and to all the larposts, they tried the influence of song over the gest measure of that liberty, consistent with peace tion of the resolutions, and in gratitude for the un-this gentleman, that justice would, eventually, be thoughtless, and within an impudence, equalled on- and order and personal security, present a cause watering support of his political principles, and done to the creditors of his native State, have, been ly by the ridicule with which they covered them- for devout thankfulness to the Ruler of Nations, faithful friendship to himself, by the republicans of sanguine, even in their darkest days, and, much to by the ridicule with which they covered them.

selves, they cried out "Hah!! Hah!!! such a The plentiful fruits of the earth, which in our ponding sensibility, and abiding good will.

The plentiful fruits of the earth, which in our ponding sensibility, and abiding good will. nominee, as James K. Polk of Tennessee." All State and country furnish an abundance for the Lindenwald, Oct. 25, 1813. of suspension. It must be no less gratifying to these various efforts to defeat a fair expression of wants of all, call for daily thankfulness, and render Dear Sir:—I have had the honer to receive the him, therefore, than to the stockholders, to learn, the popular will, however, signally failed. And it peculiarly appropriate that, annually, as these proceedings of the Democracy of Bradford county, at length, that his anxious exertions in their bethough these people said in the bitterness of their to me by their direction.

The following letter, from the able pen of Mr.

The following letter, from the able pen of Baltimore

The which you have had the goodness to communicate which you have had the goodness to communicate to me by their direction.

The following letter, from the able pen of Mr.

The which you have had the goodness to communicate which you have had the goodness to communicate to me by their direction.

The following letter, from the able pen of Mr.

The exemplary patriotism by which the other speed, addressed to a landholder of Baltimore.

The exemplary patriotism by which the other speed, addressed to a landholder of Baltimore.

portions of these proceedings are characterized, county, as well as the commercial information genthis great nation. It is hardly worth while to com- In addition to these universal causes of thankful- is in honorable harmony with the well known erally received of late from the city of Baltimore, pare their predictions, made previous to the elec-ness, if each individual will sommon up the recol- and long established character of the true hear-would appear to leave no doubt that payment of the tion, with the present prosperous condition of the lection of the almost innumerable personal and so-ted Democracy of Bradford. I feel that I may State dividends of Maryland will be resumed on an

We shall not, at least on this occasion, add argument to sustain what the right thinking portion of the community deem already proven and the comm temporal and spiritual blessing.

do so with unabated zeal, they are doubly valuable. over the Canton Course. He accomplished the 10½ I respectfully recommend the day I have named, I beg the Democracy of Bradford to be assured miles, in 57 minutes and 30 seconds, having 2 mi-The election being over however, and the busito be thus set apart for this grateful service and that I so regard them, and that as such proofs of him the busito be thus set apart for this grateful service and that I so regard them, and that as such proofs of him the busi-Dess of the country returning to the prosperous duty, and that the people of the State suspend their the confidence and esteem of my fellow citizens is lieve the greatest feat of the kind on record. A > Trotting Againt Time Previous to the foot race on Monday, over the Canton Course, the grev mare "Queen," belonging to Mr. Edward Woods, of Pennsylvania, was driven in a sulky round the the track, 15 miles, in 54 minutes and 22 1-2 sec-DEPLORABLE ATTAIR -- We learn from the onds-5 minutes and 37 1-2 seconds within the

J Brunnan Gime. T mue says: Too much gin a man's cuin, but in the p those aguers may cause s vidual who played off a r days a ago on Messrs. L merchants in Common st son above alluded to wen ranged to have a hogshea puncheous of "gin" ware The hogshead and pa and were stored; drayage frayed by the Messrs. L., ples, came up, sold the a in advance on account. turned, according to pro receive the balance of th goods; a trick was sus puncheons were opened, contain a light sprinkling sand, the lauter predomin I over the former, and th tin vessels, holding abou the bungholes-and the sippi water. The gent sloped, but has been tra MISSISSIPPI ELECTIO The last "Mississippia have again won a glo We have elected the en ty ranging from eight t all four members of C vote. The whigs even despaired of electing to all their energies to the bers of congress. To ed, and to some extent But the strong arm o opposition.

In the Legislature joint ballot, will be ab the senate 12.

GEN. WELCH. Ru ted popular manager of this country arrive

HURRA FOR THE L in Washington have s pended in the purcha amongst the poor du WHAT NEXT? A arrested at Cincinnati bery, picking pockets A wendeman residi ed this vear, in his mense size. One ef in circumference and ounces, and was of were grown from se GRAND FOX HUN rk True Sun, tha tome off over Be of December no

> As the co es are to be turi ikely to be fast an FROM TEXAS. et McKim, Capt. L papers to the 15th Some of the Tex the conduct of Ger annexation speech in connection with Three colonists ed by Indians a Wrede and Von C sells, the third ma The suit of Ale

s intended to

the Republic of T for seventeen tho acres of land, emb was decided at th of Von Augustine BALTIMO CLIPPER

GRAIN. The week was light, prime reds at 13: 132c; but within increased consi now quote sales and ordinary to family flour at 1 down. We note white wheat at day at 128a129 Corn at 70c for is a slight decl at 39a40c, with is drooping.

> Of the smal town in this C BESPETCH, in In Easton, o ANDER GRAH

Editor of the Suddenly o at her Grand PHINE, eldest A. Muse, in t

With heart O'er the lo For Death Hath stric

No dew Was brigh Yet this flow Was extin

> We weep Her hear Her child Will the

> > She site

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc6044_1_51-0002.jpg