GOVERNOR'S SALARY. - The Whig Legis. session or two ago, na violent fit of reent which suddenly seized them for some r purpose, reduced the Governor's salary per year—taking good care, however, not take effect until the expiration of Governor erm; so that he has been in the full receipt Oper year. It was known to be too low ey, doubtless, thought it would be an easy o raise it again after the election was over led the Whigs succeeded. They did not however; an inow, being fully convinced 000 a year is brough for a Locofoco, they esisted all attempts to raise the salary to a ole amount. The highest proposition, we was $3,500. It is a paltry affair. The or must go away in debt, if he undertakes and entertain visitors as becomes the dignihe State. It seems strange that a party, llow three times as much to at least two and Courts, and one Register of Wills, be so extremely niggardly in their allowthe Governor of the State. The measure ally lost in the House by a vote of 35 to 39. oll County Democrat.

VENTIONAL REFORM.—We have already aded our Democratic friends, that the stealhe appointment of the State Librarian from ect representative of a majority of the peoe Governor-has destroyed all hopes of ng Conventional Reform at the hands of the Legislature. Nevertheless, it behooves the of Reform in the two branches, to spare no o have the popular desire gratified, and the a large majority of the people carried out. Il for that purpose has been reported from nmittee to whom the duty was assigned, and refore congratulate the friends of Reform in arties, that the Whig members will be comto show their hands—to decide whether of their constituents—and whether they ill cling to the "ignus fatuus" of Legislative n, or grant the only Reform that is desirable ORM BY A CONVENTION, where the all our people will be represented .-- Balt.
