under foot, and the like.

The bulk of the survivors have fled to the adjoining firm determination to perform their duty. A search hunt to their homes, and proscribe to political country, which has also endured its trials. Those that the Secretary of the Treasury had been guilty of voices, like their forefathers, in opposition to the ment, or poor people, who still cling to the wreck of trusted to him—that public officers have been permit- ernment. their little means. Till more permanent provision Executive in making appointments selected men of can be made for the citizens, they are encamped un- notoriously loose morals, bad character, and entire der tents upon the Savanue, one of those agreeable | want of responsibility. The short period remaining | public lounges which the French establish in their of the session prevented the committee from pushing vention represents truly the wishes and principles colonies, as well as in the towns of the mother coun- Washington, and bringing to light further misman prevented that a party professing to be the true try, and which must tend so materially to the amuse- agement. That task will devolve upon the next Con ment and health of the people. On the same spot di- gress, and it is therefore the duty of the people to vine service is now performed under a canvass cov- spare no efforts to send men to the House who vine service is now performed under a canvass covering, but it appeared to be attended by few male de- of the Administration, which feels a deep interest in votees. Every tongue is loud in praise of the Gov | shielding from exposure the conduct of the numerous | public good, are engaged in the low and grovelling | ernor and the heads of departments, for their inces officers, who derived their appointment, under the occupation of prying into the private affairs of the sant zeal courage and humanity; and they have been present dominant party, more from their warmth and minor public officers, ascertaining whether they nobly seconded by the military and seamen of the Buren, than from the possession of any good moral and reason, whether they have the indenpence to fleet, upwards of 1000 of whom landed to dig out the character or capacity for the faithful discharge of sufferers. But for them, still greater fatality must their duties. have ensued, for the native laborers and slaves were either overcome with terror, or refused to give their isted among the latter to fire the town on the night of France; but among the many inscriptions upon those a party professing to despise any approximation to All JOB WORK, done at this office, must be with combustible materials for the purpose. He is supposed to have been crushed under the walls of the prison.

king a fact with numerical exactness—I read not more than four or five inscriptions in the whole of prison.

king a fact with numerical exactness—I read not more than four or five inscriptions in the whole of irresponsible members of a self-styled "Demotric" Convention. We have indeed fallen upon ter at Louisville, Ky., has speculated largely upon

Frem the Philadelphia U. S. Gazette. HENRY CLAY IN OHIO.

and laying by, from time to time, the expressions of the proud mausoleum, where friendship, companion- lution, whose plan of espionage and proscription some of the conductors of the public press in Ohio, | ship, love, had deposited their holy relics, it was conupon the Presidential question, and as much has been stantly written, "Her husband inconsolable," "His is only excelled by the ingenuity and fierceness said about Mr. Clay's want of popularity in that disconsolate wife;" "A brother left alone and unhap- of a Loco Foco Convention in Baltimore, State, I send you the following paragraphs, which py has raised this monument; but seldom, so seldom, may serve to open the eyes of a few of those who pro- that scarcely ever did the mournful record close with fess to prefer him to any other individual, to admire a word of hope; scarcely at all was it to be read his talents, honesty, and manly independence, but amidst the marble silence of that world of the dead. who throw out doubts about his "avaliability."

Our doubts are traitors, And make us lose the good we oft might win, By fearing to attempt."

The Ohio City Argus says:--"We are satisfied on one point, that of the three candidates in view, but two will be available. decision of a National Convention, we have no doubt, will be, to present either Henry Clay or William Henry Harrison before the Whigs of the country as their candidate for the Presidency. Of the two, our individual preference is for Henry Clay." From the Cleaveland Herald, is the favorite of our party in Northern Ohio; nay, such a step was deemed indispensable. we are greatly mistaken if the voice of the Reserve, with her majority of seven or eight thousand, is not more clearly in his favor than that of Hamilton or Franklin, or any of the Southern or Southwestern counties, in benalf of Harrison. The opinions of our will be the fiercest that has ever been konwn in to General Jackson's military achievements—to Dorchester, redeem the promise he made last sum- vigating that, as well as the older portions of the fellow citizens, however, have been withheld, or rath that State. The Administration appears to have his having fought the Indians successfully, and to mer, to demonstrate the illegality of the proceedings line.

Clay subject to the decision of a General Convent would have no ground left in the Southern States. beyed! Well gentlemen, said the Governor, I light upon the subject which would redound to the light upon the subject which would redound the light upon the subject which would redound the light upon the subject which would redound the subject which would redound the light upon the subject which would redound the light upon the subject which would redound the subject which was the subject which would redound the subject which would redound the subject which was the subject which would redound the subject which would redound the subject which was the subject whi

From the Akron (Portage county) Balance. "Of the three distinguished statesmen, who have is brought to bear on all the candidates who will approached, jumped into his pocket. I have with disgust in what manner he has been dictated to salt, and other merchandise, from this District. been named as candidates of the Whig party, our choice is Henry Clay. We have no eulogy for him, not "sink or swim with Van Buren. Never did a known him long, and met his displeasure before by, and tamely obeyed the orders of different commit- have passed through this one hundred and thirty." for volumes would not contain all that might be said paper labor harder than the Richmond Enquirer now. If my competitor can boast of having rode tees delegated to wait upon him and require the re- seven miles of canal, to points, on the river above in his praise—his history is his country's history; and —never was so much activity displayed in the smoothly upon the billows of the Old Chief's pomoval of sundry officers of the government and the the 6th dam, which is at the mouth of the Great pursuant to authority deriv ous, we have every reason to believe that if his coun state at the coming election, his hope of re-elec- stem the buffetings of his wrath. pursue her former successful career towards wealth this season of the water at the between the hours of 11 and

The truth is, we believe that Henry Clay will by machinery have been put in motion, and the ment and attack the enemy in his strong holds—that surveillance. They have seen, with an eye of con- land, lately, during a small rise in the river, but by the said Colston, under an exect any other candidate. We wish an expression of see if Virginia will stoop from her lofty position as we were ordered, while Gen. Jackson tempt and abhorrence, the Chief Magistrate of this three reached the Canal, the others being lost.— by the said Coision, and the State use of James Hooper and public opinion on the subject—and if it appears that the unterriefied Commonwealth, and bow to the lay on this side in security—that we suffered great and growing nation,—who should scorn the This fact shows how important the completion of Evans late of Dorchester County.

I believe, Mr. Editor, that a large majority of the common with the sentiments of the people or the pose we had been beaten, cut off, slain, how long Whigs of northern Ohio, would prefer to see Henry Clavin the presidential chair to any man living, while prosperity of the State. Hitherto Virginia has would it have been before Gen. Jackson would and driven whenever the interests or caprice of his ment of that event.—Nat. Intel. Clay in the presidential chair to any man living, while at the same time, I believe that they will corlially despised the shackles of party, which would re- have been found on this side of the Tennessee? I despised the shackles of party, which would re- have been found on this side of the Tennessee? I despised the shackles of party, which would re- have been found on this side of the Tennessee? support General Harrison or Daniel Webster for that | quire to sacrifice of her public men on the altar of I may be mistaken, but I have always thought | tion is rotation in office; a principle fraught with danstation, should either of these gentlemen receive the party idolatry. Hitherto the people of the "Old there was a motive which governed the selection ger to this republic, and, more than any other, threa The Tiffin Gazette says:-- individual most likely to unite the force of the great on particular measures, from the party to which phatic finger, my competitor loves so well to des but for the support of individuals at the public ex- driven out by the flames, discovered that one of Whig party of the country—and as others have named the man, we will name the individual upon the party to which phatic individual upon the party to which ph whom we believe the Whigs of all the States will the present time, they would say to many of their to try, in Williamson, old Mr. Magnus, on a from time to time, so that the people generally may vet asleep in the upper part of the House—the more cordially unite than upon any other.—That man is Henry Clay of Kentucky. We must recollect servants," and honor them again with their conson's friend.) We were sworn to bring in a true of the situation of her child, rushed through the flames and seized her sleep that the north, the south, the east, and the west are to be consulted in this matter; and from Mr. Clav's Power and from Mr. Clav's property of this destructive doctrine is to arouse the cupidity of ing boy, and no scoper had she gain with their consulted in this matter; and from Mr. Clav's property and to be consulted in this matter; and from Mr. Clay's Buren and his party at Washington. They have and when I handed the verdict in, General Jack- all the idle and ambitious in the land—to turn them for which she was willing to risk her life than it cituation in the country, we have no doubt that a well decreed that Virginia independence shall be bro- son pointed that "long, significant finger" at me from every consideration of patriotism in forming was discovered that all means of escape was cut represented National Convention would more easily ken, and that she must be bound hand and foot to and said, in his peculiar manner,—"I'll mark you, party attachments, and to substitute for it, a blind off, save that of leaping from the second story in the district of country in which we live, would pre- and vote for, the measures of the party. Hence ed his movements on many occasions—seen his make the most of an opportunity given for the purfer Mr. Clay to General Harrison—and we are of the the design was started at Washington that a Gen- various plans of operations, when he had his clans ty of the people of Ohio would prefer Mr. Clay."

From the Baltimore Chronicle. Whatever may be the wish of a few partizans of York, the Richmond Regency was to be formed The State of New Jersey, our readers are aware, ition of their selfish and lustful avidity for office. the Administration as to the concealment of abuses to curb and control the spirit of the freemen of is entitled to six Representatives in Congress, We are led to these remarks in consequence of the Byus of this County, to Miss Valeria Victoria, and defalcations in public officers, it must be apparent that State. The design was consummated by the recent removal by the President, of John Hooper second daughter of William Gist Esqr. of the to every one, that as it is the interest, so it is the design was consummated by the sire of the people at large, that investigation should assembling of a convention which took upon itself Congress, last autumn, the contest was so close Esq., keeper of the Light Boat in Hooper's Straits, former place. sire of the people at large, that investigation should the name of the "Democratic Republican State as to throw a doubt for some time over the result; and the appointment of Robert Griffith in his place.

In this town on Wednesday morning last, by Many which have the result; and the appointment of Robert Griffith in his place. be made and reform take place. The majority of the people in a Republican government undoubtedly deRights Convention," and declared it to be their but in the end the Whig candidates obtained the duty to proscribe all and oppose all who did not returns as being all duly elected. It being un
In this change, as in most of the others which have the Rev. Mr. McKenny, Mr. Nicholas B.

Worthington, of Annapoli's city, to Miss Soof their institutions. They may support a particular subscribe to their views. The Washington Globe, derstood, however, that the election of five out of been made, a worthy and faithful officer has been reparty, it is true, but that support is based upon their the organ of the administration, has entered with the six members returned would be called in moved, and his place filled with a man whose only phia K. only daughter of Doct. Joseph E. Muse confidence in the correctness of the measures of that spirit into the contest, and we suppose that the question before the House when it shall assemble, merit consists in his blind devotion to Loco Focoism. of this town. party. They are not the eby expected to wink at or State has already been deluged with Extra Globes, (upon grounds which we profess not to have ex- A few years ago he was elected to the Legislature uphold the gross misconduct of public officers, & that of state has already been deluged with Extra Globes, (upon grounds which we profess not to have ex- A few years ago in the filled with denunciations against the Independent amined,) those five Whig members, though they from this county as a Whig, was voted for by the

When the defalcations of Swartwout and Price were discovered they were so astounding and alarming in their character as to force the President to recommend an enquiry. This recommendation was based upon the belief that the investigating committing to the five late election, and instead of delay the public based upon the belief that the investigating committing to the five the Globe to the columns of that paper, and engentlemen who claim their seats, proposing that to his friends, and a traitor to the party to which he gument is no longer resorted to, but vulgar abuse to his friends, and a traitor to the party to which he gument is no longer resorted to, but vulgar abuse to his friends, and a traitor to the party to which he late election, and instead of delay the public business by a troublesome and expensive contest the White are weight in dissipating the mist which had entered to the five the trust reposed in him, and proved himself recreant to the five the trust reposed in him, and proved himself recreant to the five the trust reposed in him, and proved himself recreant to the five the trust reposed in him, and proved himself recreant to the five the trust reposed in him, and proved himself recreant to the party to which he gument is no longer resorted to, but vulgar abuse to his friends, and a traitor to the party to which he gument is no longer resorted to, but vulgar abuse to his friends, and a traitor to the party to which he gument is no longer resorted to, but vulgar abuse to his friends, and a traitor to the party to which he gument is no longer resorted to, but vulgar abuse to his friends, and a traitor to the party to which he gument is no longer resorted to, but vulgar abuse to his friends, and a traitor to the party to which he gument is no longer resorted to, but vulgar abuse to his friends, and a traitor to the five trust reposed in him, and proved himself recreant to his friends, and a traitor to the five trust reposed in him, and proved himself recreant to his friends. see would be appointed by the Speaker, who would During all this contest the Whigs are moving stea- in the House of Representatives, submit the mattake care to appoint a decided majority of six to three dily forward. Without making any vain boasting ter to a full and fair trial before the People at the veloped his faculties, and was one great cause of the foreign the solutions. The committee thus or extravagant calculations they have zeal in the support of the cause of Jackson and Van dare to exercise the proud prerogative of thought that far famed cemetery, that overlooks from its subsistence. This is truly a patent system of star- on Monday the 6th day of May. services; may it is even added, that a conspiracy ex | mournful brow the gay and crowded metropolis of ving a man into the support of a cause worthy of the 10th and 11th; and that one incendiary was taken tombs, I read scarcely one-I read-to state so stri despotism, and yet compelling public officers to PAID for at the time of its delivery. the lamentations of bereavement, in every affecting evil times, if a mere junto are to dictate to the the public funds for the purpose of applying them to variety of phrase. On the tomb of youth, it was President, who shall be removed from public of his own use. written that, "Its broken hearted parents, who spent fice, and who shall be appointed to places of pubtheir days in tears, and their nights in anguish, had lic honour and trust. Such a system is even an Mr. Chandler—I have amused myself by noticing laid down here their treasure and their hope." On improvement upon the clubs of the French Revothat there is a life beyond; and that surviving friends hope for a blessed meeting again, where death comes warmer. Governor Cannon and Colonel Polk no more,-Rev. Orville Dewey.

Norfolk Beacon of Saturday that a duel was fought ed himself a candidate for the office of Governor, motion, and their course will be backward, as long as The on Friday near the North Carolina line, between J. | Seawell Jones, Esq., of N. C. and H. Wright Wilson, Esq. of New York, in which the latter was shot to be a candidate. We think here he spoke the for this delusion; -some evil hobgoblin must haunt through the body and died on the spot. The ball of honest sentiment of his heart. Cannon follows their dreams and inspire them with false hopes. Mr. Wilson grazed the temple of Mr. Jones. We have reason to know, says the Beacon of the chance to call him to account. We extract the mong them feel dim impulses of future exaltation, high appreciation in which the character and worth following from Cannon's speech delivered at Mur of the deceased was held by him by whose hand he freesborough, and reported for the Nashville Ban-"We have no hesitation in declaring that Mr. Clay has fallen, and the bitter regret which he feels that duced into Virginia. The Albany Regency be- his tool and his slave." ing extinct by the voice of the people of New

From the Baltimore Chronicle.

was made for the streets. Where almost every report, abusing the two defaulters, and exonerating principles they have at stake and as fully deter- turn have personal worth, nor party services, but for his personal worth, n individual was seized with stupor, struck by the the Secretary of the Treasury from all blame by rea- mined to do their case upon the House of treachery to the party that warmed him into life, and falling embers, blinded by dust, or choaked by un- son of omission or neglect. There would then have forts that honorable men can resort to will be neg- Representatives to trusting it to the decision of the believing him a fit instrument to work a revolution wholesome efficiency to say that we ourselves were sensible of a Treasury system as the only security against small lected by them to enlighten the people as to the haps cause a great and very unprofitable waste of true questions upon which the present contest is haps cause a great and very unprofitable waste of true questions upon which the present contest is haps cause a great and very unprofitable waste of true questions upon which the present contest is haps cause a great and very unprofitable waste of the freement to work a revolution of the freement to w still offensive smell among the ruins. Various defalcations, through wholesale peculations could to pass, and to induce them as of yore to come time at the next ensuing session of Congress. ienomena were remarked, as preceding and fol- easily be perpetrated. But, to the surprise of the par- forward boldly and vote their true sentiments, un Nat. Intel. lowing the earthquake—sparks of fire thrown up ity, a motion was made and carried, notwithstanding terrified by threats and unseduced by promises. through crevices in the earth, the growl of thunder | the opposition of the Van Buren members, that a A full vote will doubtless be polled, and a full disittee should be raised by ballot. The Speaker cussion of the principles of Loco-focoism will, we was thus deprived of an opportunity of packing a com- trust, put the seal of condemnation forever upon The population of Port Royal previous to the fatal mittee to suit his own views. A committeee was the designs of Mr. Van Buren and his Cabinet, to ing investigation was made and resulted in a report | death, the Representatives who have raised their who remain are either functionaries in public employ- gross neglect of that supervising power which is in- waste, extravagance and corruption of the Gov.

From the Balt. Chronicle.

prevented that a party, professing to be the true Republican party of Jefferson-professing to adhere to the principles of the Democratic patriots of 1776, instead of directing their attenton to matters of national policy and in furtherance of the vote their sentiments at the polls, and if so to re- | Subject to the decision of a National Whig Convention. commend that they be punished by a removal PERE LE CHAISE.-I have wandered thro' from office and the deprivation of their means of The Orphans' Court of this county, will sit

From the Balt. Chronicle. TENNESSEE.

The canvass in this State waxes warmer and him every where and avails himself of every We almost admire their perseverance. Many aner, in relation to the "old chief." The character of Generel Jackson is freely descanted upon in his own State.

"You observe, fellow countrymen, that my com- spill." Since every means has been resorted to to en- been admitted into the twenty seven miles of this ting of a variety of The political battle that is waging in Virginia petitor appears to take pleasure in referring you sure success, suppose the champion of democracy in Canal lately finished, and that boats are now not be constant. Included and I the manner in which he pointed that tong carrying the Old Dominion.—

The utmost importance of a later neighbor of the same paper of a later neighbor of the manner in which he pointed that tong carrying the Old Dominion.—

The utmost importance of the manner in which he pointed that tong carrying the Old Dominion.—

The utmost importance of the manner in which he pointed that tong carrying the Old Dominion.—

The utmost importance of the manner in which he pointed that tong carrying the Old Dominion.—

The utmost importance of the manner in which he pointed that tong carrying the Old Dominion.—

The utmost importance of the manner in which he pointed that tong carrying the Old Dominion.—

The utmost importance of the manner in which he pointed that tong carrying the Old Dominion.—

The utmost importance of the manner in which he pointed that tong carrying the Old Dominion.—

The utmost importance of the manner in which he pointed that tong carrying the Old Dominion.—

The utmost importance of the manner in which he pointed that tong carrying the Old Dominion.—

The utmost importance of the manner in which he pointed that tong carrying the Old Dominion.—

The utmost importance of the manner in which he pointed that tong carrying the Old Dominion.—

The utmost importance of the manner in which he pointed that tong carrying the Old Dominion.—

The utmost importance of the manner in which he pointed that tong carrying the Old Dominion.—

The utmost importance of the manner in which he pointed that tong carrying the Old Dominion.—

The utmost importance of the manner in which he pointed that tong carrying the Old Dominion.—

The utmost importance of the manner in which he pointed that tong carrying the Old Dominion.—

The utmost importance of the manner in which he pointed that tong carrying the Old Dominion.—

The utmost importance of the manner in which he pointed that the utmost importance of the manner in which the utmost importance of the pointed that the utmost importance of the utmost importance of the utmost Hence the Globe is filled alternately with with- and some of you had something to do in fighting advantage of the democracy. ering and blasting denunciations of the Whigs and the Indians also. As you well know, I never "Henry Clay is our first choice, we confess, as we Conservatives and humble supplications and ear- have been a favorite with my opponent's highly Reform -Our readers are already aware of the we believe him to be of a great majority of the nest appeals to the Loco-Focos to write hard, eulogized 'Old Chief." His popularity never numerous removals which have recently been made nects with the national road at Hancock, at which work hard, and it may be-die hard. Everything bore me along to smiles and fortune. I never by the Fresident "by and with the advice and conthat personal or private malice can conceive of clung to the skirts of his coat, or, when danger sent' of Loco Foco Conventions. They have read Already several boats, freighted with potatoes, fish, pursue her former successful career towards wealth and happiness."

The van Buren party are ever likely to succeed after a warm contest in Virginia now is the time. All the elements of party and described as the ropes of again, and the point to which the ever likely to succeed after a warm contest in Virginia now is the time. All the elements of party and become the pliant tool of a levelling cabal.

The van Buren party are ever likely to succeed after a warm contest in Virginia now is the time. All the elements of party and become the pliant tool of a levelling cabal. ginia now is the time. All the elements of particle that Gen. Jackson deputed my regitive, and become the pliant tool of a levelling cabal Canal is finished is very dangerous; so much so, The truth is, we believe that Henry Clay will ty machinery have been put in motion, and the ment and another to cross that turbulent stream who avow no other consideration than that of party so that out of seven coal boats which left Cumber he is not the candidate of the people, why then we power of Van Burenism—to see if her independent of the candidate of the people, why then we power of Van Burenism—to see if her independent of the Canal is to the People of Maryland, as well as will be cash on the day of sale.

H. Y go for the man that is, provided he is a good Whig." dent yeomanry can be seduced into the support of the enemy strong and powerful, but beat him trithe "welfare of the people, and the diffusion of social the advatanges which the People of this District A correspondence of the Razenna Star says:— an administration, which possesses no principle in umphantly—and returned conquerors! But sup-happiness,"—blindly suffer himself to be trammelled may reasonably anticipate upon the accomplish-Dominion" have rallied to the support of their re- of who should cross the Coosa on that perilous tens the permanency of our institutions. Its advo cupants of one of the buildings in Rose Alley, in presentatives, who have been true te their inter- occasion. I have been opposed to the Old Chief cates contend that offices are not established as the the bustle and confusion of saving their little et-"We differ with many of our brethren as to the ests, no matter how much they may have differed, on many occasions, I remember the time that em-And all will acknowledge him pre-eminently qualified for the situation."

ken, and that she must be bound nand and toot to the car of the Loco Foco party. They are not safely devotion to powerful demagogues. These are not tisfied that the representatives from Virginia shall he has kept his promise pretty faithfully to this the only dangers to be feared from the ascendency of hesitation was done, without any material injurygive a general support to the administration, but day. He used to think that Gen. Jackson was a this principle. Under this system (rotation in office,) to herself or child.—Philada. Inq. "We are of opinion that three-fourths of the Whigs require that they shall in all things conform to tyrant by nature and education. He had witness- the momentary incumbent is aware that he must opinion that between those two men, a large majori- eral Convention should be formed, and that the about him—and he always would have clans, but po tactics of the Albany Regency should be intro- no man in them to follow him who would not be fraud and corruption. These propositions will not be administration will be looked upon with suspicion by the people, which throws obstacles and difficulties in the way of a full and thorough investigation of the way of a full and thorough investigation of the last month, (on which day their term of office because of the people. What the editor are returned duly elected, have, since the 4th of last month, (on which day their term of office because of the people. What the editor are returned duly elected, have, since the 4th of last month, (on which day their term of office because of the people. What the editor are returned duly elected, have, since the 4th of last month, (on which day their term of office because of the people. What the editor are returned duly elected, have, since the 4th of last month, (on which day their term of office because of the people. What the editor are returned duly elected, have, since the 4th of last month, (on which day their term of office because of the people. What the editor are returned duly elected, have, since the 4th of last month, (on which day their term of office because of the people. What the editor are returned duly elected, have, since the 4th of last month, (on which day their term of office because of the people. What the editor are returned duly elected, have, since the 4th of last month, (on which day their term of office because of the people. What the editor are returned duly elected, have, since the 4th of last month, (on which day their term of office because of the people. What the editor are returned duly elected, have, since the 4th of last month, (on which day their term of office because of the people. What the editor are returned duly elected, have, since the 4th of last month, (on which day their term of office because of the people.) once transferred by the unscrupulous editors of gan,) made a proposition in writing to the five he trust reposed in him, and proved himself recreant of John N. Steele Esq. of this county, and daughin favour of the administration.—The committee thus or extravagant calculations, they have gone quiet- next fall election. This fair and generous propo- "change which came over the spirit of his dream." posure, leaving a large circle of relations and friends

"Constans et lenis, ut res expostulet, esto."

CAMBRIDGE, MD.,

SATURDAY MORNING, May 4th 1839.

FOR PRESIDENT, OF KENTUCKY.

From the movements of the Loco Focos, it would seem that they are determined to ride over the Whigs, at the coming election, rough shod. Every Monday brings forth some new candidate before the people .-This, we suppose, is to supersede the necessity of a convention, and give full time to the disappointed to cool their choler. We have no doubt that their forces will be well organized, and that they will marshal their utmost strength for the strife, yet all will be useare traversing the State, delivering speeches and less. Old Dorchester is yet erect,—is still as proud electioneering in western style. Mr. Polk, in and unbending as the giant oak, and deses the blast FATAL DUEL.—We regret to learn from the one of his speeches, stated that when he announc- of Loco Focoism. The democracy of Dorchester is in he had understood that Governor Cannon was not they show a front of opposition. We cannot account > which, doubtless prompt them to deeds of noble daring in the political war. Like the daughters of Danaus they are tormented with perpetual and unprofi table labour, and "hourly fetch the water that they appointment of others. They have seen him cast Cacapon river. pose of enriching him, and it consequently begets have got them, they want every thing. denied by any but office seekers who are willing to sacrifice the welfare of the country to the gratificasaised would enter upon the solemn farce of writing a ly to work, fully impressed with the important sition, it is understood, the opponents of the 1e- He has been appointed to office not in consideration to mourn her loss.

tration of the position that notorious want of men and qualification, is, with that party, no impedime in the obtainment of office.

People of Lakes' district! think of this and prov ly sourn the reptile that has been sent among you poison your feelings, and emhitter your happiness. We ask, of the intelligent freemen of Dorchester, not the tendency of the principle of rotation in offic NE to throw open the floodgates through which corrul tion will rush in a torrent that will deluge our coul try, and shake the tabric of our government to "THI very centre? The freemen of Dorchester will no cannot tolerate so shameless and destructive a sy If it be true that the present Van Buren Con- CHRONICLE & REGISTER. tem, but will lend their energies towards hurling from E. power, the corrupt and imbecile administration will TI which the American people have been cursed. were not, heretofore aware of the existence of a Lo Cra ! Foco reforming committee within the limits of o Subs county, and are unable to divine whom it can mont composed of, that their aictum should be a sure pas sears port to office, though the applicant be steeped in mo to the alor political depravity. Doubtless, other victor will have been singled out for proscription, of all which shall take such notice as circumstances may seem "4" require. At a proper time, we shall comment up the language of a certain federal officer, who sal five "Mr. Hooper should be turned out, he had held the ones! office long enough." We never draw a bow at In venture, and when we discharge an arrow there co be no misapprehension as to whom it is aimed.

For the Chronicle. To a Mint Julap. A PARODY

JULAP! experience might have told me, That all must love thee who behold thee, Surely, experience might have taught, The dangers of the pleasant draught; But, placed in all thy charms before me, All I forget but to adore thee; But how much carsed by every lover, When ice is gone, and summer's over. How throbs the pulse, when first we view The mint that's wet with morning dew, And sparkles bright, or mildly throws A fragrance sweeter than the rose! How quick we bear it to our lips, And, to enjoy it, drink by sips! Fondly we hope 'twill be infinite, When, lo! 'tis gone in half a minute. The dandy with his huge long nine, May quaff his glass of champaigne wine; But of a Julap, strong and cold, The delights are tasted, never told.

Cambridge, Md.

THE CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO CANAL We learn with great pleasure that the water has ceased's personal estate (negroes ex land with tide-water, by the most perfect cana one lot of pine boards and stocks, and navigation which this country can boast of.

We may now expect a great increase to the place between the hours of 10 and 1 trade of the Canal, because the portion in use con and terms made known on the day of

A NOBLE HEARTED MOTHER.

During the fire in Albany on Saturday the oc-

Maids want nothing but husbands, and, when they

MARRIED.

In Baltimore, on Wednesday morning last, by the 25th April, Mrs. ELIZABETH FITCHETT, aged public Sale, on THURSDAY he 16th residence of Mrs. Elizabeth Fitchett, deceased's personal estate, (negroes e sisting in part of

House hold & Kitchen I ONE FIRST RATE FAMILY G AND ONE GIG, CATTL ONE YOKE OF OXEN. OX CART, AND ONE P OF MILL STONES, TO

THER with a variety of other articles too nu tion. The sale will take place betwe 10 & 12 o'elock, A. M. and terms, s al, will be made known on the day tendance given by. JEREMIAH C. WI

LOUISA BYRN, Ada of Elizabeth F May 4 1839.

Y virtue of an order of the Or Dorchester County, the Subser public sale in Vienna, at the late resid Byrn deceased, on Tursday the 14th

ANDRODUS articles too tedious to enumerate. T JEREMIAH C. LOUISA BYRN

May 4th 1939.

CHANCERY SA

of Thomas E

Chancellor of Maryland, I wil title and interest of Jeremiah Colst

May 4th, 1839.

CHANCERY S

Y authority derived from the Maryland, I will sell to the h der on Monday the 27th day of M. the hours of 11 and 12 o'clock House door in Cambridge, all the one fourth cash on the day of sale and twelve months from the day est from date, all secured by bon proved by the Trustee.

May 4th 1839. (tds)

SHERIFF'S

DY virtue of two writs of Ve D sued out of Dorchester Cour directed, at the suit of Isaac and Ja the goods and chattels, lands and liam A. Wheatley and Nathan writs of fiera facias—three issued son Esq. at the suit of William issaed by Luke Messick Esq. Wright, against the goods and tenements of the said William a directed, I will expose to public 27th inst. at the Court House do tween the Hours of 10 and 4 o' and best bidder for cash, the t

All of the said William A. W and interest to the farm, whereo the name be what it may; it I whereon his father William Wh and died. The above property and will be sold to satisfy the tioni exponas, a d fieri facias ar come due, also for office s fees a me from said Wheatley. By virtue of the aforesaid wr nas, I will expose to public sale place before mentioned, all the title to the following tracts, or to wit:-A tract or parcel of Venture," "Race," & "Hog acres more or less. Taken as Vickers, and will be sold to sa venditioni exponas, and cost.

JAMES A May 4th 1839.