From the Baltimore Chronicle, NEVER DESPAIR.

selves Whigs, who profess a willingness to yield consideration of the people. the great contest in which the whole liberty of the press the scorn with which we listen to such a "The union of the Whigs-for the sake of the Union." bled to transmit to them. We want words to exproposition. Let us look back to the events of the last few years. Every whig must recollect the triumphant thrill of joy with which he heard of the victories of his party in 1837, in New York, Maine, Tennessee and elsewhere. So complete was the route of the administration that, had the Presidential election depended upon the votes of that year, Mr. Van Buren would not have chance of re-election. But his party did not descause, they prepared for a new contest, and in the on Monday the 5th of November. They are flushed with their success. They consi- to those indebted to us to call and settle their respec- qually reasonable. der and proclaim us over thrown. Let us, one live accounts. To our frequent calls many have resand all, cherish, ourselves, and inculcate in others ponded by promptly paying their accounts, and many ject, we deem it one of no inconsiderable magnitude;

of truth—who are fighting for the liberty and happiness of their country should never despair .- | "Burron's MAGAZINE."-We shall feel under History affords cheering evidences of the magic obligations to the editor if he will favor us with the influence of patriotic devotion and unsleeping zeal, October number. on the part of weak and dispirited patriots. At one period, whilst Bruce, the heroic chieftain of Scotland, was struggling against the tyranny of En- has been appointed Deputy Attorney General for Balgland, his army was dispersed-his resources ex- timore County. faithful followers, the sad remnant of a once gal- Whigs and seven Loco Focos. lant and chivalrous army, the leader of the Scots sought refuge and concealment from his pursuing WHEAT was selling in the Baltimore market on issued certificates &c. to supply the want of change and concealment from his pursuing sought refuge and conceanment from his pulsuing to refire from business—but what of that? Let field and fair play. And whoever shall be nominative in an old, dilapidated shed. Whilst lying Saturday last, from $1,25 to $1,32 per bushel, Corn and the woes which threatened his country, Bruce | 33 cents per bushel. Wheat scarce. spied a little spider in a corner, engaged in weaving its web. He listlessly watched the labors of As far as received the returns from the Georgia example inspired the despairing Bruce with new if the Loco Focos have succeeded. self—collected the scattered fragments of his army The elections in New York and Mississippi take of the land prohibits it, and the interests of the public, we. You have the power. Go on with your re-—gave the banner of liberty once more to the breeze—and upon the plains of Bannockburn. Daign is going on in both these States, and each party of the breeze and upon the plains of Bannockburn. sissippi the Bannockburn of the Union."

more value than numbers. We do not call upon spark of gratitude, S. S. Prentiss will be elected to views on this subject. Our business now is with the the Whigs to begin the work of preparing for the U.S. Senate in place of that most contemptible of Banks. next Presidential election, now. But, when they all politicians Mr. Walker. do begin, let the work monopolise their whole thoughts. Six months of consentaneous exertion immediately preceding the election, throughout the unanimity, would render the election of the Whig are satisfied the articles are of a character calculated of the election of the Whig unanimity, would render the election of the Whig candidate for President positively certain. But, to advance the well earned reputation of the Well suspenon the other hand, it will be equally unavailing Each successive number gives evidence of improveand silly to continue the contest. if any considera- ment, and it untiring industry and ability can avail ble portion of the party are ready to throw over any thing, we have no doubt the "Lady's Book" is - its fervid glories the icv chilliness of their despair. destined to take the lead of most of the literary publi-We feel an ever strengthening confidence that time, which heals the folly of disunion, will also opinions they express, to instruct the Attorney Gendissolve the weakness of distrust, and that, with tion of the "Aurora" to our article on this subject, eral to issue a scine facias or quo warranto against the strength enough for victory, every where, we will, quite insufficient to prove any gain to the strength of said Banks, and the Courts must, of necessity, proat the proper time, put that strength forward and their party from the result of the late election in this nounce their charters void. If the House of Delesecure it.

From the Inteligencer.

rouche, in the rear of the procession which escor-ted him to the Executive Mansion, one of the officers of the Bank called to another—"Here they prevarication of this "bright particular star" of Loco the people, and no such instructions will be given to come. Mr. S." "Ah, (said S.) who is the Presi- Focoism as indicative of a consciousness of its error, the Attorney General. They know that we are, emdent with?" "Oh, (answered the other,) he is in and "damn it with faint praise." very good hands; three of our Board have got | The ill-fated City of Mobile was visited by a terri- tributable. Every neighbourhood will furnish indi-or New 101k, but the lact is, the parties of the Cabinet a few days ago said to an ac- Mr. John W. Edmonds should contribute the community.— ber of the Cabinet a few days ago said to an ac- Mr. John W. Edmonds should contribute the community. public entry in the city consisted of the President house, Government Hotel, Planters' and Merchants' Gold and silver cannot be so expanded at will. To quaintance of ours that not one of the constitution- ditorial articles of the paper. With such politici-

Foco presiding officers. So soon as the organiza- to misery and want, merely to gratify their hellish tion was completed, Mr. Castleman, a whig mem- thirst for plunder. ny Wright, Robert Dale Owen, &c. &c.

sidedt."-[Albany Argus.

ing tour to New York.

in it a fruitful subject for contemplation. The to make up a just and proper verdict.

CAWIBRIDGE-WID.

SATURDAY MORNING, October 26th, 1839.

FOR PRESIDENT,

We are gratified to learn that J. Nevitt Steele Esq.

there and reflecting upon his miserable condition from 72 to 73 cents, RyE at 73 cents, and OATS at the industrious insect. Nineteen times it essay- election are too indeffinite to warrant any conclusion ed to accomplish its work, and nineteen times it of the result. The returns exhibit an apparent Loco failed. It presevered, however, and the twentieth Foco gain of 1539 votes, and the vote falling short effort was crowned with success. This humble nearly 6000 of that of 1837, we shall not be surprised made proud Edward rue the day, he attempted speak confidently of success. We have no doubt but them at the ballot box. That the present state of the enslavement of Scotland. Let us make Mis- the "Empire State" will remain true to her principles, things, in our monetary, system has induced by the and reject the prescriptions of her once honoured Son. mal-administration of the General Government, we irresistible. Fervour in a political contest is of Mississippi is doubtful, but if her citizens possess one think obvious, and hereafter we may present some

"THE LADY'S BOOK."-In advance of the other

We know this will shock our Democratic friends ble conflagration, on the night of the 7th inst., which widual examples of its salutary influence. The ob-We know this will shock our Democratic file advance him a certain sum of money upon the an exclusive currency of gold and silver. A memocratic file advance him a certain sum of money upon the an exclusive currency of gold and silver. A memocratic file advance him a certain sum of money upon the an exclusive currency of gold and silver. A memocratic file advance him a certain sum of money upon the an exclusive currency of gold and silver. A memocratic file advance him a certain sum of money upon the an exclusive currency of gold and silver. A memocratic file advance him a certain sum of money upon the an exclusive currency of gold and silver. A memocratic file advance him a certain sum of money upon the an exclusive currency of gold and silver. A memocratic file advance him a certain sum of money upon the an exclusive currency of gold and silver. A memocratic file advance him a certain sum of money upon the an exclusive currency of gold and silver. A memocratic file advance him a certain sum of money upon the an exclusive currency of gold and silver. A memocratic file advance him a certain sum of money upon the an exclusive currency of gold and silver. A memocratic file advance him a certain sum of money upon the an exclusive currency of gold and silver. A memocratic file advance him a certain sum of money upon the an exclusive currency of gold and silver. A memocratic file advance him a certain sum of money upon the an exclusive currency of gold and silver. A memocratic file advance him a certain sum of money upon the an exclusive currency of gold and silver. A memocratic file advance him a certain sum of money upon the an exclusive currency of gold and silver. A memocratic file advance him a certain sum of money upon the an exclusive currency of gold and silver. A memocratic file advance him a certain sum of money upon the account of the condition of the certain sum of money upon the account of the certain sum of money upon the certain sum of the certain sum of the certain sum of the certain sum of the certain and two Directors of one of our Banks. There Bank, the Market house, and many other valuable a small portion of the community the continuance of all advisers of the President agreed with Mr. Ben- and the undersigned cannot act, either directly of LOCO FOCOISM IN TENNESSEE.—We have already announced the organization of the Tennessee Legislature, by the election of Loco was a third Director in attendance, but not room buildings. The papers state, it is attributable to in- the "Banking system" is not desirable. The indi- ton in his extreme doctrines. But it is shameful indirectly.'

lution, to invite the ministers of Nashville to open the proceedings every morning with prayer.—

we comess we were somewhat surprised after a ter ruin. In 1835 the Banks issued about three dolors the proceedings every morning with prayer.—

we comess we were somewhat surprised after a ter ruin. In 1835 the Banks issued about three dolors the last "Aurora" relative lars in paper for every one in specie they had in their perusal of the remarks of the last "Aurora" relative lars in paper for every one in specie they had in their lars in paper for every one in specie they had in the lars in paper for every one in specie they had in the lars Contrary to all expectations, it was immediately to our proposition to discuss the legitimacy of their vaults. A purchaser of a farm in that year on credit, upon and leave loco-focoism to do its worse. opposed by a loco-foco, and on a final vote was assumption of the name of Democrats. Ahkough if the Banks were destroyed, would now pay three Here in Baltimore, the Loco Foco presses are indifinitely postponed, which is equivalent to a re- we felt convinced that paper was aware of the improindifinitely postponed, which is equivalent to a rejection. Wonder will our loco-foco House of Dewe felt convinced that paper was aware of the impropriety of their assumption of the name, we neverthesame quantity of wheat and corn which would sell for holds one of them in check. The influence of
holds one of them in check. The influence of
holds one of them in check. jection. Wonder will out to de less supposed they would make some argument in de- less supposed they would m in Tennessee? They could not do a better thing fence of their position, and not suffer judgment to be things, sell for more that 1000 dollars, all other things of the country to enter the proposition of the disciples of Fan- to propitiate the good will of the disciples of Fan- the farmer who purchased in 1835, the proposition and not suffer judgment to be things, sell for more that 1000 dollars, all other things of the country to enter the probability of the proposition of the country to enter the proposition and not suffer judgment to be things, sell for more that 1000 dollars, all other things of the country to enter the probability of the proposition and not suffer judgment to be things, sell for more that 1000 dollars, all other things of the country to enter the probability of the proposition and not suffer judgment to be the probability of the proposition and not suffer judgment to be the probability of the disciples of Fanthunder of this champion of the soi disant democracy 100 acres of land, at 75 dollars per acre, and paid one- diluted. It is milk and water. It dare not roar as their final success and a consequent apathy in the "THE TREASURY."—"Nearly every thing of Dorchester? "Has his hand waxed weak, or his half the purchase money, could get for his land, if the it does in New York.—[Balt. Chron. is now left to the discretion of the Secretary of heart waxed cold, that his war cry has not yet tingled Banks were destroyed, but 25 dollars per acre; and if the Treasury. The power of the purse and the in our ears?" Surely the "horn of Roland" will required to pay in 1839, could not borrow thereon a line of Roland will required to pay in 1839, could not borrow thereon a line of Roland will required to pay in 1839, could not borrow thereon a line of Roland will required to pay in 1839, could not borrow thereon a line of Roland will required to pay in 1839, could not borrow thereon a line of Roland will required to pay in 1839, could not borrow thereon a line of Roland will required to pay in 1839, could not borrow thereon a line of Roland will required to pay in 1839, could not borrow thereon a line of Roland will required to pay in 1839, could not borrow thereon a line of Roland will required to pay in 1839, could not borrow thereon a line of Roland will required to pay in 1839, could not borrow thereon a line of Roland will required to pay in 1839, could not borrow thereon a line of Roland will required to pay in 1839, could not borrow thereon a line of Roland will require the control of Roland will req sword is in effect, placed in the hands of the Pre- sound again. Will be suffer his laurels to droop and dollar, the balance of the purchase money being the wither on his living temples? Will he, who culogised full value of the land. The consequence would be, The friends of Mr. CLAY throughout the Union, the election to go by default. To those who may not know from whence the Gen. Jackson as the conqueror of Packenham's leabove unqualified assertion comes, we will mere ly say that the Albany Argus is the Court Gazette of the North, as the Richmond Enquirer is of the of the North, as the Richmond Enquirer is of the South, and the Louisville Advertiser of the West.

All these papers are close in the confidence of the All these papers are close in the confidence of the All these papers are close in the confidence of the All these papers are close in the confidence of the All these papers are close in the confidence of the All these papers are close in the confidence of the All these papers are close in the confidence of the Center of the West. These positions are illustrated in a de-black part of the whole pursued the confidence of the black papers are close in the confidence of the confidence of the black papers are close in the confidence of the conf An these papers are close in the confidence of the government, scarcely less than the Globe itself.— Cannot see any beneficial consequences to the public, bly ruined. These positions are illustrated in a debeen in any quarter, to our knowledge, any attogether with frequent reverses and defeats, discovered by the confidence of the public. The Argus particularly is under the surveillance likely to grow out of such a discussion." It seems gree by the late action of the Banks. By the unhap tempt to forestall public opinion or to urge the couraged them, and caused them to despond for and is the organ of the Albany Legency, who are strange to us by what sort of reasoning he can deduce py influence of the General claims of Mr. Clay, to the disparagement of those time. But the Whigs of 76 finally triumphed, and the special friends of Mr. Van Buren, and have such a conclusion. "The freedom of the press is esbeen his body-keepers during his late electioneer- sential to public liberty" as affording the means of free and full discussion of all measures and princi- sue their notes—to contract their issues to a ratio con-This quotation contains a truth which should ples which are suggested for the administration of the sistent with their safety. What was the conseclaim the attention of every Republican—a truth, government. Upon all such questions the people, tom an unexpected source it is true, but none the who are the source of all power, are called upon to although the Banks continued to issue to some every continued to from an unexpected source it is true, but none the less palpable, because of its paternity. The same thing has been reiterated again and again by the thing has been reiterated again and again by the thing press, but has been met by a stern denial.

Whig press, but has been met by a stern denial.

What is it to agree to whatever may be the decision of popular will the convention soon to be holden at Harrisburgh The union of the purse and the sword! what is it, the permanency of our institutions that all such ques-The union of the purse and the sword. We have always been the admirers of Mr. Clay. and flounces, feathers, robes, &c. of the ladies in duced by the American minister, at the Court of but the giving of absolute power to the executive? It is an encroachment on the spirit of the coasti- evil or beneficial tendencies illustrated, so that by so- of their issues, for a short time could depress the price In our boyhood we see him standing up and bar- James; all of which is vastiy edifying and gratify tution latal to that instrument. The advocates of ber reflection, and an intimate acquaintance with the state rights, in every section of this Union, have subject, in all its bearings, the people may be enabled be the consequence of a total inability, on the part of then came from the North-and we have seen zette.

the President, foretels a danger to the States indi- fold object in view. In establishing the illegitimacy lent, and those of moderate fortunes utterly ruined, if whether it came from the North or South. We bevidually and collectively, warranting the serious of their claims to the principles of Democracy, we they were involved in debt. All credit would be in lieve there is no man in the nation who unites so should have proven that the Loco Foco creed is composed in part of some of the most ultra notions of Alment closed against the poor of all classes. To all posed in part of some of the most ultra notions of Al- ment closed against the poor of all classes. To all people of the United States is involved, without further struggle, and to surrender, basely and dishoncrably, the very rights which their fathers government, if carried out, would have vested in him and increase their fortunes by the misfortunes of oth- even join the throng who shouted at his heels yesand that the better part of the metaphysics of the ers, the Banks are of course obnoxious; but to the far terday, and are willing to desert his standard to-Jeffersonian school of politics form an essential ingre- mers, mechanics, and all others of small fortunes, the day. We are made of sterner stuff than that.dient of the Whig creed. A discussion of this nature Banks are of obvious and incalculable advantage. - And notwithstanding our own decided preferences, would certainly be beneficial to the public, and would The suspension of specie payments was not made to if the good of the Great Cause demands the sacrisubserve the very purposes for which the framers of protect the Banks, but to shield the merchants, man- fice of CLAY,—if any other man, having suitable the constitution clothed the press with free and un- ufacturers and tradesmen, and through them, the far- qualifications, (for we never will vote for a man trammelled liberty. It would bring to light the fact, mers, from irredemiable ruin. The Banks were nev- who has not qualifications)—can better unite the that the principles of Hamilton which the new-fan- er in a condition more able to redeem all their issues, our favorite for the sake of driving from power the gled democracy denounce as subversive of all govern- but the constant demand for specie rendered it unsafe No sane man doubted that he stood not the least Subject to the decision of a National Whig Convention. Such have been advocated under the guise of democracy: The "Au- ers of our grain crops, unless they suspended specie our views, and we have taken frequent occasion pair. With an enthusiam worthy of a better The Orphans' Court of this county, will sit rora" had as well avow that virtue and intelligence payments. are unessential to the safety and perpetuity of our gov- We shall endeavour to shew at some future time, There are movements, however, among the friends OUR PATRONS.—The approaching session of ernment, as that no benefit results to the community that the destruction of the United States Bank was of other candidates, which we have some time past ob-

a speech lately delivered in Mississippi, by Serge- a winter supply to purchase, and as our untiring ex- the way of a discussion, we renew our proposition, ant S. Prentiss truggle in the cause of justice and we expect them in return to afford us the means. it has disburthened itself of the labours which now en with the who are fighting for the liberty and has feel disposed we shall most cheerfully meet them .-Upon this subject we are "semper paratus."

THE SUSPENSION .- Within the last few days nearly all the Banks South and West of Philadelphia individual notes, and as good as any Bank notes.— them go to work in some other employment, say ted, him will they cordially support. The corporation has determined at present to issue the Locos. There are too many merchants, acfive or six thousand dollars, and the redemption is secured by a bond, the securities to which are worth turn journeymen—but who cares for that? There from our opponents. The moment the Whigs nommore than one hundred thousand dollars. With en- are too many aspiring men, say the Locos, among inate their candidates no matter who he may be-as tire deserence to the better judgment of those who mechanics men who are growing fat, rich and Col. Johnson said, no matter 'if pure as the angele' administer the corporation, we regret the issuing of aristocratical. Let them be brought down. Fi- -that instant is the whole artillery of the VAN Buthese notes. We yield in our patriotic feelings to no nally, the Banks have forfeited their charters—say REN party levelled against him—and not a solitary one, nor in our attachment to the pe ple. The law the Locos-wind them up. Very well. So say man from their ranks is ever gained. We not only rich, and that their influence is adverse to the great commercial freedom. Banking by special incor- spirit in his declarations, that ought not to be forgot. ded specie payments, and thereby violated their char- monstrous misgrowth of a pernicious system; let it is not ever ready to sacrifice himself for the good of ters. The next House of Delegates is composed of a resolve to remain free. It is a dictate of wisdom his country? I have unaffectedly desired retirement.

majority of Van Buren men, and that House, as the commended by sad experience, to avoid those I yet desire it, when, consistently with the duties and great inquest of the nation, has the right, and it is guilty departures from first principles which lead obligations which I owe, I can honorably retire. No district. The material parts of our article are passed gates refuse to do so, but one of two conclusions can "An interesting and important crisis in the his- discharge." by sub silentio, and the reply is not designed to dis- be drawn; either they are recreant to their duty, or tory of our financial system has now arrived and prove our premises or conclusions, but to administer they have expressed opinions, in relation to the Banks, one which we have long waited for, as the CLO-A WASHINGTON INCIDENT.—As the Pre- to the gratification of that class who take the asser- which they do not entertain, in order to deceive the SING SCENE IN THE DRAMA OF PAPER tiful state of confusion. We lately announced phatically, a people of credit, and to this "credit sys- and IN THE ORDINARY AFFAIRS OF DO- "The publisher has announced, in the presence tem" is our individual and national advancement at-have contracted debts in trade, or in the purchase of Ponnsylvania now has the Banks in its power. — to do certain acts to serve their party—Where the property, the destruction of the Banks must work ut- Let us see if it will dare to take away the charters money comes from is-but we wont hint that the We confess we were somewhat surprised after a ter ruin. In 1835 the Banks issued about three dol- of the Banks and refuse to grant others. The government furnishes it. We will hear it all af-ers on the soil. Master mechanics will have to king up any man of our party in order to get votes remains among the Stockhholders. The New which are caily forced upon us by the events we see York Evening Post—the trusted organ of the Ex- passing before us—but they are any thing but pleasecutive-counsels this in the following language: ant to one who, desiring nothing but the good of the From the N. Y. Evening Post.

CREDIT."

"Is it not safer and more honorable to adopt Locke, the remaining editor, has shared his fate.

VER EXCLUSIVELY?"

the Banks, to issue at any future time, can scarcely him at all times true to his Country and her Conassumption of the power allowed by the Argus to In making the proposition we did, we had a two- be conceived. The rich would become more opu- stitution, in resisting nullification and usurpation, better qualified to restore order and harmony and mercenary and corrupt band of adventurers who to make them known.

and found the sure means of victory. They have beaten us, now, as badly as we beat them, then. our County Court will afford a convenient opportunity from public discussion. The assertion would be e-that in proportion as the means of victory. They have beat them, then. with a view to influence the decision of the Convention. It is to produce an impression upon the Deleand all, cherish, ourselves, and inculcate in others ponded by promptly paying their accounts, and many spirit of the subjoined passage which we take from have paid no attention to our solicitations. We have In several of the States, the friends of the Ad- which some other man would. The same game of it has disburthened itself of the labours which now en ministration have entire sway. In Pennsylvania nsidious interference by letter-writing and personal cumber it. We apprehend they can find time this they have the Governor and both branches of the influence, which lost us the election in 1836, is now winter, next spring or summer; and whenever they Legislature. Here they have the Governor and playing off a second time—and if persisted in, we unthe House of Delegates. We are curious to see what they will do with regard to the Banks.—
Banking is a poor business, at present, and, if the Banks.—

Banking is a poor business, at present, and, if the Banks.—

Banking is a poor business, at present, and, if the Banks.—

Banking is a poor business, at present, and, if the Banks.—

Banking is a poor business, at present, and, if the Banks.—

Banking is a poor business, at present, and, if the Banks.—

Banking is a poor business, at present, and, if the Banks.—

Banking is a poor business, at present, and, if the Banks.—

Banking is a poor business, at present, and, if the Banks.—

Banking is a poor business, at present, and, if the Banks.—

Banking is a poor business, at present, and, if the Banks.—

Banking is a poor business, at present, and, if the Banks.—

Banking is a poor business, at present, and, if the Banks.—

Banking is a poor business, at present, and, if the Banks.—

Banking is a poor business, at present, and, if the Banks.—

Banking is a poor business, at present, and if the Banks.—

Banking is a poor business, at present, and if the Banks.—

Banking is a poor business is a present, and if the Banks.—

Banking is a poor business is a present, and if the Banks.—

Banking is a poor business is a present, and if the Banks.—

Banking is a poor business is a present, and if the Banks.—

Banking is a poor business is a present, and if the Banks.—

Banking is a poor business is a present, and if the Banks.—

Banking is a poor business is a present in the Banks.—

Banking is a poor business is a present in the Banks.—

Banking is a poor business is a present in the Banks.—

Banking is a poor business is a present in the Banks.—

Banking is a poor business is a present in the Banks.—

Banks is a poor business is a present in the Banks.—

Banks is a poor business is a present in the Banks.—

Banks is a poor business is a present in the Banks.—

Banks is a poor business is a present in the Banks.—

Banks is a poor business is a present in the Banks.—

Bank country is to the convulsed every two or three any other candidate before the people, can make these years by a suspension, it is likely to get worse. - | demonstrations, without prejudicing the cause which The owners of Bank stock, if the capital they have all true Whigs have at heart. The friends of Mr. have suspended specie payments, and as a natural put in were returned to them, could use it more Clay will not improperly urge his claimes, to the dehausted-and his hopes of success almost lost in | The election of Councilmen for Baltimore City, consequence, specie is fast disappearing from the advantageously for themselves than it is now ema series of appalling misfortune. With a few held on Monday last, resulted in the choice of five channels of trade. Influenced by the most patriotic ployed, They will have, therefore, but little to main silent, while they beheld an improper influence motives, the corporation of the town of Cambridge has regret, if the Banks are compelled to wind up. - attempted to be exerted by indiscreet friends of other

Never was there a more idle hope than that of ta-cause at heart. "Recent events in Pennsylvania furnish the de- Mr. CLAY himself, in his admirable reply to the mocratic party of that state a fine opportunity of citizens of Buffalo, thus eloquently alludes to his own The Van Buren party contend that the Banks were created and are maintained for the advantage of the time to make a rigid assertion of the doctrines of created and are maintained for the advantage of the

If my name creates any obstacle to cordial union that Theron Rud had been kicked out of the New Era concern and now we see that Richard Adams to vote, and that in the former State they allowed

The Richmond Whig appropriately mind the remark of Benton in a letter th er suspension by the Banks may be ne carry through this great measure'-mea pension,' say they, 'and we carry the sury. They have succeeded in their and perhaps will succeed in obtaining ing measures. We shall at any rate so they can succeed in repairing the mis have accomplished. The people of all look anxiously for the result.

"Why are you like an annual, my de saucy lover, as he pulled Harriet into "I do not know." "Why, because you are so handsome

"Indeed!" said Miss Harriet. "Wh

Hike a law book?" "Really I cannot tell." "Because I am bound in calf."

CUSTOM HOUSE REMOVALS .- There other batch of removals from office in House, upon the infamous principle tha bents would not subscribe a per centage ries toward the Tammany election fund. stand that, after the gentlemen refused their removal required. The mandate, may, was obsequiously obeyed. We sa we mean what we say. The whole same spirit in which they were wont to proceedings of the French legislative the Legislature of Pennsylvania out of justified by the Government paper at 1 New York Com. Adv.

THE MORUS MULTICAULUS! A Connecticut paper states that the of Morus Multicaulus trees have been the last two weeks, viz: 20,000 in Ea 30 cents a tree; 50,000 in Wethersfield 13,000 in Glastenbury, at 40 cents; 20 37 1-2 cents; and a gentleman in Fa paid 45 cents a tree for a lot.

Moreover, 300,000 trees have actu this season in the vicinity of Hartford. 000 have been sold to go to Pennsylv Michigan, 20,000 to New Jersev, 50, chusetts, and 10,000 to New York.

On the 17th, ult., by the Rev. Da Mr. WILLIAM HOLLAND of Dorches Mrs. Sophia Donoho, Formerly of but late of Dorchester Co., Md. TEMPER.INCE ME

general meeting of the Tempera A Dorchester County, will be he odist Meeting House on Wednesda early candle light. Punctual attenda Oct. 26th, 1839. FARM WANTE GENTLEMAN now living wishes to engage in farming, a rent a good farm for one year, or a Persons having farms to let will ple

Editor of the Chronicle, who will give of the advertiser. Oct. 26th 1839. 3w VALUABLE FAMILI FOR SALE THE subscriber has a valuable sale, well broke, gentle to all l can be controlled by the most time five years old last spring, and suit singly in a light four wheel. JEREMIAH Oct. 26th 1839. N. B. I have also for sale a good tle to all kinds of harness.

BALTIMORE TYPE F THE PROPRIETORS of this and well known Foundry, no lane, between Calvert and St. Pau and are steadily making such addi ments to it, as will enable them to every variety of TYPE made of n Nonpareil to 40 lines Pica-Flow Cuts and newspaper Ornaments Leads and Quotations - PRINT all kinds-Printing INK, black, VARNISH for making coloured in and QUUINS-CASES and STA of wrought and east iron-COMP GALLEYS of all kinds-IMPOS ROLLER STOCKS AND MO MENT for Tympans, &c. &c. & A reduction in the price of ? place in other Founderies, the will furnish theirs at the same RE Pica 38 cents Small Pica 40 Long Primer 52 Bourgeois

These prices are on a credit of factory paper, or a discount of 5 on a credit of 3 months and a cent. for cash. Old metal taker

All orders will be promptl to in such a manner as to ensure warded in any way that may be

CHARLES TEACHER W.

THE Commissioners of Prin I na district wish to emplo charge of the school in Vienn teach the different branches of embracing the lower branches would be preferred. Testimon rity and competency, will be re he directed post paid to the sub Post Office.

By order, JAME

Oct. 19th 1839. MEDICAL M

THE Medical Society or I Convention held in E Dorchester county, on the sec vember 13th, 1839. Oct. 12th, 1839.

The Editors throughout the sert the above once a week u forward accounts to this office