An Act supplementary to an act for the general valuation and assessment of property and to provide a tax to pay the debts of the State, passed at March session eighteen hundred and forty one, chapter twenty, three.

WHEREAS, much doubt has existed in regard to the true interpretation of the Act of eighteen hundred and forty-one, chapter twenty-three, whether the twenty cents on the one hundred dollars, thereby directed to be levied as a "Direct Tax" included the commissions allowed to Collectors, or wether such commissions were to be paid by an additional levy; and whereas, the Court of Appeals has recently decided, that the said act designed, that the clear sum of twenty cens on the one hundred dollars should be paid into the Treasury; therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland That the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, and the Levy Court or Commissioners, as the case may be, of any County or District, where a levy has not been made for the payment of the commissions to the several Collectors of the Direct Tax, as recited in the foregoing preamble, be and they are hereby authorised and directed to levy a tax for the purpose of paying said collectors, according to the provisions of the forty seventh section of said Act of eighteen hundred and forty-one
