DIED.

At Cabin Creek, on Tuesday last, Uriah Medford, Esq., aged about 40 years.

On the same day, at his residence, near East New Market, Henry W. Hicks, Esq., aged about 60 years.

Lines Sacred to the Memory of Samuel Corkran, who died in the 62nd year of his age on the 7th Instant.

Our Father's gone away, he has fled,
He now lies numbered with the dead;
The silent tomb where darkness reign,
And where the Pilgrim rests from pain
Has now become his dwelling place
The destined home of Adam's race,
The Christians race he safe has run,
With life's dull care he now is done,
The battle's fought the conflicts won,
His aking head will ake no more;
Those eyes that once were seen to weep,
Are calmly closed in death's cold sleep,
His anxious breast that used to heave,
His throbbing heart that used to grieve
Has found a place of calm repose,
Far from a world of hostile foes;
His weeping friends may cease their fears,
And wipe away their falling tears,
The spirit freed from cumbrous clay,
To distant worlds has soared away
Where sun and moon and stars and light
Are left beneath far out of sight,
Farewell farewell, to Earth he cries,
Farewell I mount the upper skies;
I mount, I fly with Angel's speed,
The Throne appears the world recede;
I soon shall join the Church above,
To sing my Saviours dying love;
Adieu my friends, we'll meet again
Far beyond this world of pain,
Adieu. adieu, I cannot stay,
My Saviour calls I must away;
Farewell, thou randsomed one farewell,
The sacred grief my bosom swell,
I'll give thee up, oh yes I will,
And say to murmuring thoughts be still,
Be still and know it is the Lord,
Thy sure support, thy great reward,
And while we feel the chastening rod
We'll love, revier, a chastening God.

PROSPECTUS.

THE NATIONAL PRESS.

A JOURNAL FOR HOME;
A REPOSITORY OF LETTERS: A RECORD OF ART; A MIRROR OF PASSING EVENTS.
To be Published every Saturday, at Two Dollars a Year, in Advance.

GEORGE P. MORRIS, Editor and Proprietor.

A NUMBER of the most eminent literary persons of this country, have proposed to the nnder signed to publish, under the above title

A REFINED AND VALUABLE NEWSPAPER,

Upon a plain combining the highest resources of National Talent with the best elements of extensive popularity, and at so trifling an annual cost, as will place it within the convenient reach of

ALL CLASSES OF SOCIETY.

The control and management of this publication will form the exclusive and undivided attention of the Editor—Whose long experience, ample facilities and practised care, will be exerted to select unite and harmonise the various skill which is willing to seek development under his direction. The will differ from those of any journals heretofore established, while it will comprehend all that they cantain of importanse to the community. The contents will be fitted to engage the attention of the men of business, and be a source of elegant instruction and entertainment to the.

SCOPE, DESIGN, AND CHARACTER OF THIS PAPER

DOMESTIC FIRESIDE AND FAMILY CIRCLE.

The leading characteristics of this paper will be as follows:

1. Early and Copious Intelligence of all interesting occurences in Literature, Society, and Art, both at home and abroad.

2. A Foreign Correspondence of tried popularity and acknowledged merit has been engaged, and will be commenced with the first number.

3. Productions in fiction, romance and historical narrative; Sketches of the taste and manners of the time; Essays, after the manner of the Tattler and Spectator, on subjects connected with social interests; biographical notices and anecdotes literary and professional; bon mots, epigrams, and elegant trifles of every kind; the rumors of the day, and the comments that float upon the conversation of the hour—materials of this kind will form the ordinary staple of the work.

4. The department of Criticism will exhibit a discriminating and popular survey of the Literary Productions of the day. There will be a thorough and careful chronicle of every thing of value accomplished in Painting and Sculpture, and a candid and patrotic estimate of the National productions in comparison with other countries. Such exposition of the character and special excellencies of what is exhibited in Music will be constantly given; as may lead to the more intelligent enjoyment of that most imaginative and deticate branch of the Fine Arts.

5. No original papers will appear but those of obvious and decided merit; and the selections (which will commonly be from the foreign journals the least known in this country) will be made with the utmost attention and care.

The predominant design of the Editor is to add to the Republic of Letters a Weekly Journal, distinctly and decidedly national in tone and features, and at the same time, to avoid all connection with mere party politics. THE NATIONAL PRESS will, in brief, combine the striking and novel attractions of the newspaper, with the more abiding interest of the higher class of periodicals. It will be printed in the folio form, on large and superior paper, on a new and clear type, obtained expressly for the purpose, and will be, in its whole arrangement and details, a favorable specimen of the best typographical skill of the country. In addition to thase, and as one of its most valuable peculiarities, it will be, in reference to the diversity of talent that will be employed upon it, the cheapest paper in the United States.

TERMS—Two dollars a year, or three copies for five dollars, invariably in advance.

It will be sent by mail to all parts of the United States, and to the British Provinces, done up in strong wrappers, with the utmost punctuality and despatch.

Postmasters are requested to act as agents, receive subscriptions, and make remittances.

The first number will be issued on SATURDAY, the fourteenth of February next.

That a probable estimate may be formed of the number of copies that will be required, subscribers would oblige the Editor by sending in their names at as early a period as possible.

Newspaper and periodical agents and newsmen supplied on liberal terms. Burgess, Stringer & Co. 222 Broadway, wholesale agents.

Subscriptions, orders, remittances, and all communications, to be addressed, post-paid, to

JAMES M. AAINES & co.

Jan 3, 1846.

Friends and Fellow-Citizens,

I come before you as a tried servant, but before unfold to you my future course, allow me to allude to the past. I have been engaged actively, diligently, yet honestly, for the few years past in an effort to purchase that most inestimable of all blessings, freedom. In that effort I have been aided by the kind patronage extended to me in my line of business, by many citizens. To particularise, when all have been so kind, would be invidious, but my feelings of gratitude will not permit me to let this opportunity pass, without thanking the ladies of Cambridge for their patronage and punctuality, I have never called upon them, and departed from their doors, empty handed; and I hope the time may speedily come when these ladies all, and these good gentlemen and their children, and their generation out, will all stand in the first frontier of pleasure without end, forever; and my feelings tell me that such will be the destiny of those who have acted such a good and noble part. I am sorry however to be compelled to say, that there are a few gentlemen who have been so delinquent in paying, that had all acted like them, I should not only now be a slave, but involved in a heavy debt.

I have changed my Oyster establishment to the Office lately occupied by Mr. Daniel M. Henry, opposite the Store House of the Messrs. Straughn, where I intend to keep a peaceable, calm and decent House, and I hope no person will come to my house, who is not willing to conduct himself peaceably and quietly, to be satisfied with my best exertions to please, and to pay as he goes. The kindness I have heretofore received from the ladies and gentlemen will cause me to redonble my exertions to give satsfaction. My housto will be open from 8 (A. M.) to 10 1-2 (P. M.) The Public's obedient servant,

JOHN HAWKINS.

Dorchester, County to wit:

ON application to me the subscriber one of the Justices of the Orphan's Court of Dorchester County by John Mobray, Jr. and James B. Thompson, of said County, stating that they are in confinement for debts which they are unable to pay and praying to be relieved therefrom agreeable to the Acts of Assembly for the relief of Insolvent Debtors, a schedule of their property and a list of their creditors and debtors on oath, so far as they can at present ascertain the same being annexed to their petition, and the said John Mobray Jr. and James B. Thompson being in actual confinement and I being satisfied that the said John Mobray Jr. and James B. Thompson has resided for two years last past in the State of Maryland, and they having taken the oath prescribed by the Act of 1805 and given bond with sufficient security for their appearance before the Judges of Dorchester County Court to be held at Cambridge in said county on the Tuesday after the first Monday in April next, and at such other time or times as the Court may direct, to answer the obligations of their creditors and having complied with the requisitions of the Act of December session 1825 and the several supplements thereto by executing a deed of all their property, real, personal or mixed, to Solomon Robinson and George W Low appointed by me as trustees to the said John Mobray Jr. and James B. Thompson and the said trustees having given bond with approved security for the perfor mance of the trust and certified in writing that they are in possession of all the estate of the said John Mobray Jr. and James B. Thompson mentioned in their schedule—I do therefore order and direct that the said John Mobray Jr. and James B. Thompson be discharged from their imprisonment and that they be and appear before the Judges of Dorchester County Court on the day above mentioned, and the same time is appointed for their creditors to attend and shew cause if any they have, why the said John Mobray Jr. and James B. Thompson give notice to their creditors by causing a copy of this application to be inserted in a newspaper published in Cambridge three months before the said day and to be continued in such newspaper once a week for four successive weeks, also a like copy to be set up at the Court House door three months before said day. Witness my hand this 28th day of October 1845.
