[From the Philadelphia Inquirer.] IMPROMPTU ON THE DEATH OF MAJOR RINGGOLD.

BY A LADY. Turf of Texas, softly lie thee, On the gallant soldier's breast; For our Ringgold died to save thee, Country of the bright South-West.

Youthful sister of our Union, Where so late thy lonely star Shone upon the land and river, Now our banner waves in war.

Where its glorious folds protect thee, Oh! forget not, while thus blest, That for thee, our best and bravest Bled, and sleep within thy breast.

When the dove of Peace returning, Rests its wing upon thy field, Point where Ringgold and those heroes Made their generous hearts thy shield.

Pleasing Miscellany.

A GOOD STORY.

"A young wag who had made 'going, going, fame to be gained in the undertaking—don't you where the battle of the 9th was fought, means the gone' his profession—a great favorite among the do it. knights of the buskin, and all good fellows, be- When you have any buisness to transact with a sides being a chosen favorite among the ladies modern financier, and he asks you to go and dine Mr. Joseph Weed, manufacturer of fancy laces, plaints, Bronchitis, Influenza, Coughs, Colds, Bleed piece of furniture. He was well conversant with Should you happen to catch yourself whistling Kensington, Philadelphia, on Monday presented weakness in the side, breast, &c. and all other disall the best dramatic productions of the day, and in a printing office, and the compositors tell you Mrs. Polk, the President's lady, a beautiful bonnet, eases of the among the rest the 'Hunchback,' then the rage in to whistle louder—don't you do it. made of glass and silk, of which there are several Boston, where the joke occurred. Fanny Kemble If on an odd occasion your wife should exclaim others like it exhibited at the Manufacturer's Fair, A very important disease over which this "Balwas at the time delighting the town with her Jul'a to you, "now tumble over the cradle and break now open at Washington. Mr. Weed was introdu-

"Clifford, why don't you speak to me?" "O, Clifford, is it you?" &cc. &c. which are ranked among the favorite points of the fifty-three—thank you, sir—fifty-three dollars— dently anticipated by somebody who wants to bor- nion. any more? fifty-three—going on, gentlemen—fifty- row from you—don't you do it. three dollars—last call—once, twice—any more? When you are offered a great bargain, the value HANCE'S SARSAPARILLA VEGETAmanent cures after ever known remedy had failed dy answered. 'Who is it? who bid fifty-three?' are to get at half price "being as it's you"—don't ly the safest and best medicine ever introduced for Besides its astonishing efficacy in the diseases. Clifford is it you? exclaimed the auctioneer, dropping his hammer and clasping his hands a la Fan-bor comes, requesting the loan of your morning dy recognized it and catching the catching the spirit of the loan of your have sat down to read it—do it lowness of Spirits, and all Diseases arising from an lowness of years standing.

Curing Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Singing in the Ears, remedy in ASTHMA, a complaint in which it has been extensively used with decided success even linear to the loan of your morning lowness of Spirits, and all Diseases arising from an lowness of years standing. thing, the audience followed up an ecstasy of laugh—
When a young lady catches you alone, and lays and ask, in all cases, for Hance's Genuine Pills;

A compound Balsamic preparation of the Prince of The of The Pri ny. 'Clifford, did you say, sir? Clifford?' said the auctioneer, when the merriment had a little subsided. 'Is it cash, sir?' Clifford, the purchaser, it General Rusk, the associate Senator of Gen Sam. COMPOUND SYRUP OF HOREHOUND,

The universal celebrity which this medicine is amused with the following report of a most extraunon the enemy's entrenchments, and carried the many after all other means of relief, had been tried been admitted into the family with the clear cercine suitable to persons of all ages and sexes; and lieves. "There is no such thing as fail" in the The evidence was in writing, and the facts proved tificate of a legitimate daughter, Gen. Rusk was f taken out the appearance of the first symptoms history of this wonderful Balsam. Evidence the were, that "in a public assembly of both sexes, the elected one of the Senators to represent the new which are a cough or pain in the breast, will, in most convincing—evidence that no one can doubt, prisoner appeared dressed in a gown cut so extreme-commonwealth at Washington. Gen. Rusk is a nine cases out of ten, afford relief, and effect a fully establishes this fact. by low before and behind, that many things which ought to have been concealed, wholly or in part, is a cotton planter of the Red River country. He were exposed to public view, and also that the residence is at Nacogdoches. His history is more by SETH S. Hance, corner of Charles and Pratt-sts, sumption and Pulmonary diseases in general, the sumption and Pulmonary diseases in general, the great solely by the great

General, founded on the statute against nudity.—

First: With regard to the first charge relative to the fashion of the gown, he contended that the evidence was too indefinite to convict the prisoner:

"many things were exposed, which ought to have been accorded to the first charge relative to "Hem—a—yes mum!" he replied, felling as if he had a pint of vinegar between his teeth, "but, mum—I doesn't squeeze my gizzards out with to have stays now tick my head a pint of vinegar between his teeth, "but, mum—I doesn't squeeze my gizzards out with the stays now tick my head a pint of vinegar between his teeth, "but, mum—I doesn't squeeze my gizzards out with the prisoner." been concealed." The word "things" is the most stays, nor stick my back up with bags of meal-1 indefinite word in the languafis; it means anything, doesn't." and therefore means nothing, the jury had no right to give it a meaning in this case. Besides, how FRIGHTENING A ROGUE.—In the St. Louis Re- have bred mares to his horse TOM, or may here- that its surprising efficacy will enable me to furcould the witness determine and swear that the corder's Court, recently, Alexander McManus, was after breed to him. That they are forwarded from nish such proofs of its virtues as will satisfy the think differently from him, and decide that the gown th-th-the p-p-pewter, your Honor." was not a criminal one. When it was made, the "Are you a married man?" inquired the Recor- May 20th 1846. lady might have expected to be married soon, and der. then it would at least be, a convenient one. Secondly: With regard to the two last charges, "Well, I will have to send you to the workhouse," the prisoner could not be convicted upon the stat- said the Recorder. ute relative to nudity, as the evidence was clear that "T-t-t-taint nothin' t-t-t-to go th-th-there," said she was in full dress. However thin and improp- Alick' "I-I-I-'m used to it; b-b-but when you t-t-ter her dress might have been, this was not the le-talked about m-m-marriage, old fellow, you f-f-f-But the court over-ruled these objections. They said enough was proved of the first charge to satisWhich End!—A lawyer once addressing a jury, YATES Esq. Where the subscriber will be found tators to palm off spurious mixtures, of similar fy the jury, (and they were the sxclusive judges of was very much annoyed by some of them putting using every means in his power to make you comit,) that the lady was so nude, as to be properly their feet on the bar in front, so as to raise them fortable and contented.

Be careful and get the genuine Daisant.

Be careful and get the genuine DR. WISTAR'S

Be careful and get the genuine DR. WISTAR'S

BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. None gen long settled, that whatever was indecent destroyed turned and asked the court which end of the jury ket affords, and good servants in attendance. His uine unless signed by I. BUTTS. Address all cond point, they said, it was not the intention of An Irishman in writing a letter to his sweetheart, ber hopes to receive a liberal share of public pa also by J. CORNWELL, Vienna; P. ROADINE, world was not yet bad enough to require such a not, write thus:-"If you don't love me, plaze prohibition. But the statute was intended to pre-send me back the letter without breaking the seal! Cambridge, November 26 1845.

|vent that gradual increase of transparency of dress | Going it with a Rush.—A chap went into a aud nakedness, which threatens in the course of Confectioner's shop the other day, with his five time to terminate in the wearing of nothing but daughters, ane called for one ice cream and six HAVING returned from New Orleans, I will gauze or crape apparel, or in the absolute indecen-spoons. After the cream was duly devoured, the now pay the highest cash prices for all likely necy of wearing no clothes at all; a circumstance ve-old fellow asked his darters—"Well, gals, ain't groes that are slaves for life and good titles. All virtuous and decent people. The objects of the statute were the preservation of modesty, the res- TABLE CIVILITIES .- "Shall I help you to the toration of genuine love—now almost unknown—butter?" said a landlady of a cheap boarding-house N. B.—On the 7th day of June 1844, Jonathan and the protection of the natural decency which to one of her guests. "Don't trouble yourself," M. Wilson, (my former agent) by mutual consent seems to be almost laughed out out of countenance was the reply, "the butter is plenty strong enough withdrew from my employment and is no longer was in direct violation of the spirit of the statute. and she therefore must recognize to make appear-DUEL WITH AN ODD WEAPON .- A few days ago, ance here to-morrow to receive sentence.

WHOLE POTATOES BEST FOR PLANTING.

The next day the court sentenced her to wear key on a wager. The result was, one died on the two men, near Chicago, drank a quantity of whisfor two months wild bore gowns, made to tie close spot, and the other is not expected to live. round the neck, and not less than two flannel petticoats at a time; and also to find two sureties to An editor out West wears out seven pairs of and the public generally, that he has on hand a

DON'T YOU DO IT.

you, "you had better eat me up hadn't you;" don't weather, and rottonn ss in wet weather, which cut potatoes are so liable to.

The following excellent story loses no interest start a paper to forward a particular set of views; PALO ALTO, where the battle of the 8th was WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

GENERAL THOMAS J. RUSK, and corner of Charles and Pratt streets. seems, was a bashful person, unacquainted with theatrical things, and had become somewhat alarmed at the unaccountable good humor of the crowd, so that he was afraid to open his lips again, lest he should excite another burst of fun. Is it cash, of age. He is a South Carolinian by birth and educated and perpendicular. He is about forty-five years of age. He is a South Carolinian by birth and educated and perpendicular of the Lange of the Lange capacity at the battle of San Jacinto, April 21st, to bestow. The bills of mortality exhibit the almonths previous. 1836. At this battle Gen. Houston was wounded arming and melancholy fact, that the number of We will not assert that this BALSAM will cure A Petticoat Case.—Our lady readers will be early in the action, and taken off the field, when deaths by this disease are as five to one. Inas-consumption in its worst form, but it has curee amused with the following report of a most extraordinary case, which we find in an old paper, the Boston Gazette, for 1804. The sarcasm is of course not applicable now.—New York Sunday Despatch.

Report of a Case argued and determined in the Report of a Case argued and determined in the Report of a Case argued and determined in the

One. Rusk and major wharton headed the carried the spreading so widely and fearfully, and bidding defiin vain. And why not? It seems that the WILD nent physicians, it is a gratification to the subscriber to be enabled to offer to all of consumptive haLet not the desparing in the

Let not the desparing invalid waste his money and things alluded to ought or ought not to be conceal- fined $5, for stealing wood from the Stermer Han- paying any person or persons, for said horses ser- most incredulous that CONSUMPTION may ed; that is a question of law; he was not a judge of nibal, and was asked to "fork up" by his honor. vices except the subscriber. Persons disregarding and "CAN BE CURED," if this medicine be

"N-n-n-not exactly s-s-s-so far gone yet, sir."

frightened me!"

fectly at home, will be to call at the old stand for- large and increasing demand for it. This fact has stable's comfortable, and attended with hostlers at orders to SETH W. FOWLE, Boston, Mass.

NOTICE.

NEGROES WANTED.

communications will be promptly attended to.

Baltimore, November 18 1845.

Hats and Caps.

recognize with her, that she shall not appear inde- boots a year, regularly, in kicking loafers out of his handsome assortment of Hats and Caps. All of which he will warrent to be equal to any in the State

His hats will consist of Nutria, Brush, Casemere These generally insure a tolerable crop in all sea- and Silk. Country Merchants will be accommoda-When a petulant individual politely observes to sons, and are said to prevent the dry rot in hot ted, on as reasonable terms as they can elsewhere.

> THE GREAT REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION.

ced to Mrs. Polk, at the President's mansion, by "DISEASED LIVER." In this complaint it When a horse kicks you, and you feel a strong Mr. Chas. J. Ingersoll, representative of Kensington, has undoubtedly proved more efficacious than any disposition to kick the horse in return—don't you and presented her this elegant speciman of the remedy hitherto employed, and in numerious infine arts, which was most courteously accepted.— stances when patients had endured long and severe When you are shining very expediously round Nothing can surpass the the brilliant whiteness, suffering from the disease, without receiving the town, in search of somebody with something over, smoothness, and lustre of this wanderful imitation least benefit from various remedies, and even when "Going, going—last call—fifty-two—any more! who can assist you with a loan, and you are sud- of the finest muslin or cambric.—Washington U- MERCURY has been resorted to in vain, the use

For sale by SETH S. HANCE, 108 Baltimore st. ical process, approved and recommended by the

"All eyes were turned upon Clifford, who looked anxious about him, but still he made no answer.

The merry auctioneer would rather lose his customer than his joke, and he suddently exclaimed, still imitating the fiery-eyed Fanny, of age. He is a South Carolmian by birth and education. He studied law in that State, and in 1824 perhaps there is no Medical Observation better established, and none more generally confirmed by exclaimed, and none more generally confirmed by experience of the best Physicians of all ages in all doches, in Texas, (the Red River country) where the resumed the practice of his profession. In the lected colds. In a climate so variable as ours, case in so short a time, yet, from the produce the same salutary effect in every ease in so short a time, yet, from the produce the same salutary effect in every ease in so short a time, yet, from the produce the same salutary effect in every ease in so short a time, yet, from the produce the same salutary effect in every ease in so short a time, yet, from the produce the same salutary effect in every ease in so short a time, yet, from the produce the same salutary effect in every ease in so short a time, yet, from the produce the same salutary effect in every ease in so short a time, yet, from the produce the same salutary effect in every ease in so short a time, yet, from the produce the same salutary effect in every ease in so short a time, yet, from the produce the same salutary effect in every ease and the produce the same salutary effect in every ease in so short a time, yet, from the produce the same salutary effect in every ease in so short a time, yet, from the produce the same salutary effect in every ease in so short a time, yet, from the produce the same salutary effect in every ease and the produce the same salutary effect in every ease and the produce the same salutary effect in every ease and the produce the same salutary effect in every ease and the produce the same salutary effect in every ease and the produce the same salutary effec formation of the Provisional Government of Texas, where the changes of weather are frequently sud-rity it has acquired, we find many persons are apt "The assembly now fairly screamed with laughappointed. President. General Rusk was chosen to expect too much at the commencement, while ter, and amid an uproarious burst of applause, Secretary of War. He was present in this official to expect to much at the commencement, while others expect a Single Bottle to afford them greater Clifford made a precipitate bolt for the door and capacity at the battle of San Jacinto. April 21st to bestow. The bills of most blist the all the medicine they had taken for

Report of a Case argued and determined in the mer of '45, he was chosen President of a Convenbits, or those afflicted with distressing pains in the lose time, to him so all important, in experimenting Supreme Court of Cupid. Hymenial Term—tion called for the consideration of the resolutions of annexation, proposed by the United States; and lungs, a reasonable and almost certain prospect of once a medicine that will cure if cure be possible This was an information filed by the Attorney adopted an acceptable constitution, and having The Compound Syrup of Horehound is a medi-of experience have demonstrated that it always remainder of the dress was so thin and transparent like a chapter of the Arabian Nights than of an and No 108 Baltimore, and in Camproprietor has benn actuated solely by the great After verdict, Recamier, sergeant of counsel for A Severe Retort.—A Mrs. Bleak wanted to son, Church Creek; John S. B. Woolford, Loom-wish particularly to impress upon the public mind, Agents for Dorchester County. Jno. Richard-sire to benefit the afflicted, and would therefore After verdict, Recamier, sergeant of counsel for the prisoner, moved an arrest of judgment upon two that you're a temperance man, yet you chews termara, Buck Town; Levin H. Campbell & Co, Vinance of the prisoner, wish particularly to impress upon the public mana, Buck Town; U. Todd, Tobaccostick; Cowart & McNathat it is entirely different from the nostrums daily ushered into notice by boasting quacks, as it not only emanates from a regular Physician, but has also been well tested in all the complaints for which it is recommended. It is not my intention, therefore, either to cloak it in mystery or in any on the contrary, I shall simply endeavor to give a resorted to in time.

WILLIAM HENRY. NO QUACKERY! NO DECEPTION! All published statements of cures performed by this medicine, are, in every respect TRUE.

SP-BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS AND IMITATIONS .- The unparalelled and astonishing efficacy of Dr. Wastar's Balsam of Wild Cherry in all the diseases for which it is recommenced—curing many cases after the skill of the ALL that is necessary to make yourselves per-best physicians was unavailing—has effected a

> Salisbury; J. L. SEARS, St. Michaels, and by deal-ALGERNON HURLEY. ers in Medicine's generally, in Maryland and Del-

By William H. Bow

THE DEMOCR IS PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNEST

-:0:---TERMS .- SUBSCRIPTION. The scription is $1,50 per annum, if months from the time of subscribin, ADVERTISING. Advertisement inserted at $1 per square for the tions, and twenty-five cents for each sertion. Twelve lines make a squ number of insertions are not mark tisement, it will be continued until ged accordingly. By the year, square; and larger ones in prop advertisements must be paid for v after first insertion.

83-No paper will be disconting rearages are paid up. All letters to the editor must * * Postage free on the Democrat

the office. POET'S CORN From Graham's Magazine fo

MY HOME IN CONNEC Home of my childhood! I cannot for Though here I am happy, surrou Deeply and warm in my heart hav And holiest thought with thy m

Darling old homestead, quietly nes Under the tall trees that shelter th Where with the shadows sunlight i On the short greensward in front Shaggy old house-dog-playmate o Oft have we wandered together a To where the low strawberry redd wood

And loitered beside the still wate Gnarled old apple-tree, near to the Maples that rise to the blue of the Mulberry, where the bright oricle b Still do ye toss your strong bran Still grows the damask rose, in the

Flues-de-lis mingles its blue and Currants and raspberries bend with Neighborly standing with peonie Where stretch the meadows, of sno The Pomperaug river is hurrying With elm trees and willows dark sh

The pool where the trout is accu On those gray rocks, with dark hem Many an hour have I lain at my To watch the brisk squirrel chirp o And listen the soft, mournful wai

Lowly red school-house, close by the Many a year hath it stood where Curly-haired girlhood, and stout rue Throng its worn threshold in mis Church of our forefathers, silently p

Thy tapering spire to the infinite There the dear pastor of God's own Labored to teach us to live and to Reverend bell, in the belfry still swi Many a time have we shrunk at the For we knew when the sexton was

That one from among us forever Grave-yard of centuries! head sto

Side by side stand with the mound Cherished and lost ones sleep sound Heedless of footsteps above them Friends of my childhood! while fond

Lingers around my old haunts wit I would never forget how your price Hath gilded them all with a glory And oh the dear faces around the old

Where the wood-firt burneth warm Father and mother and dark-eyed yo That home were a desert, unless ?

MISCELLANEC

Out of Hear BY ELLEN ASHTON.

'Why so sad, Ernest?' said the you husband, affectionately twining her his neck and kissing him. He looked up with a sad smile, 'I am almost out of heart, Mary,' pursuits a profession is the worst. been week after week and month a may soon say year after year-waiti yet without success. A lawyer ma a celebrated case, and so make himse sician must sit patiently in his offi known, see men without half his acq ing in wealth, while he perhaps, is s it will soon come to that," he added do not get employment." An unbidden tear started into the she strove to smile, and said-"Do not despond, Ernest. I kr been unfortunate so far, but you ha start. And depend upon it," she cheerful look, "that will come when knowledge to make your way, as soc