and the public New York and s, on the 1st of do., on the 1st . Call and see kinds of GARarhionable style, He warrants all one according to thanks to those ustom, and soli-

W. C. L. Sm) IRNESS ORY.

ck room of Mr.

ly return their of their friends ed exertions to They still man-BRIDGE, CAR-PTION. And CPAIRING, at best manner. ellent workmen vill make Carri-good and cheap Shore or elseinvited to give C. & S. CAMBRIDGE new and splen-JOHN D. TURit the corner of ESDAY MORNs, for the above ng terms.

o Baltimore. RIVER. The ew wharf, on o'clock, for the to Baltimore.— E AND EASeave Baltimore ven o'clock, for ATURDAY to CHESTERvill leave Baltie 12th, inst., at d return same 1. The above er notice. All

. TURNER. KER

rms his friends e has Opened a TUATED ON osite the Camthe Presbyterito carry on the Branches. He as Side-boards, istands, Workrate. All warals, and Workown or county, terials Mahog. dd'ed) for $16; pular do. $6; hildren do. in SE to any part ere the money of 6 per. cent ive general sa-Cash, or coun e patronage of serv't. ABBOTT. N. A.

hions. m his numer-ceived the lad would invite m, if they want ne is prepared e surpassed on made in his tyle, and done all kinds cut nake them. STREET.

ats!!

rom Baltimore of the latest ds of the arti-K AND RUS-ALTO HATS

st rate fashion assortment; as s good an artine price. call and see ill be pleased

HARPER. ed a fresh lot

jv. 7th.

AND DORCHESTER ADVERTISER.

$1.50 IN ADVANCE, YEARLY.

"RESISTANCE TO TYRANTS IS OBEDIENCE TO GOD."

$2.00 DURING THE YEAR.

CAMBRIDGE, MD.—WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 10, 1847.

[NO 51.

PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY MORNONI BY WW. H. BOWDLE, Jr. EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

--:0:---TERMS .- The price of subscription is $1,50 per annum, if paid within two months from the time of subscribing, otherwise $2 will be charged. No subscription received for a shorter period glistened in his eye. His whole appearance was There is nothing more appalling to a modest and look well to his movements, lest he should come than twelve months; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearages are paid up.

the three first insertions, and 25 cents for each rect—that he really did not know whither he was nature and custom have made them the responding enough, were all born in 1782, and of course are subsequent insertion. (12 lines or less make a going. He was the son of reputable parents in party. square.) Where the number of insertions are Boston, and had left that city a few weeks before In a matter which men have always found so in 1790. Polk is about the same age. Dallas 2 not marked on an advertisement, it will be confor the purpose of visiting Louisville, 'which place,' terrible, yet which, in one way or other, they have years younger yet, born in 1793. Gen. Taylor is

All letters to the editor must be POST PAID.

POETRY.

THE MISSING GIFTS. BY MRS. OSGOOD.

You send me back my gifts, you say-And some return, I own-But those are paltry trifles, sir! Why come they thus alone?

You keep the costlier tokens, then? The diamond ring is here, But with the ring I gave-if I Remember right—a tear!

The rosy riband, too, that bound My braided hair, returns; But the warm blush 'twas yielded with No more beside it burns!

This golden locket-round your neck You vowed the gift to wear; You lost the blendid smile and sigh With which I hung it there!

And here's a little, dainty note-A playful school girl billet; But where's the wild, impassioned kiss With which I tried to seal it. Nay-nay; I wrong your beggar state, Twas to a soul I sent them; In vain my lost gifts sought, in thee, The shrine for which I meant them!

"A LITTLE MORE GRAPE, CAPT. BRAGG,"

The Captain was working away at his gun, His aim was full steady and true; And where the bright lancers reflected the sun, His death shot unerringly flew!

While the enemy's balls whistled close to his ear He felt there was work to be done; So undaunted by numbers—a stranger to fear He calmly reloaded his gun!

And waking the thunder again!

And fell on the battle scarred plain! And as the loud echoes came thundering back, From many a far frowning crag. He smil'd as he heard the low voice of old Zack,

'A little more grape, Capt. Bragg.' 'A little more Grape'-again spoke the gun, And the shot did its errand so well, That the mighty rejoieings of victory won Went up as the enemy fell!

Then here's to the chieftain who urged on the fight, liness and wretchedness of his condition. He was The happy day when we shall be married? When hundreds deserted his flag; And said as he marked their inglorious flight, 'A little more Grape, Capt. Bragg!

SICILIAN SONG.—BY MRS. BUTLER.

I planted in my heart one seed of love, Blossom nor fruit was there to crown my pain, Tears, cares, and labors, all had been in vain; And yet I dare not pluck it from my heart, Lest with the deep-struck root my life depart.

MISCELLANEOUS.

[From the Philadelphia Inquirer.] The Young Victim. A SAD STORY OF GAMBLING.

|nity, and wait for another boat. Shortly after this so remarkable, that even Green became excited and sensitive young man, than asking the girl he loves down.—Lowthian's visit to Jerusalem. interested. He sought the youth, and asked him to marry him; and there are few who do not find whither he was going? He replied that he "knew their moral courage tested to the utmost. A failure to notify the editor of a discontinuance not where," and as if to shun further notice, left Many a man who would lead a forlorn hope, public men, John Quincy Adams, born in 1767, is phia, should be think proper, and also gave him There is one maxim of universal application.— Whys and Whens.—Why is a pig in the parlor about two hundred dollars in money.—All went Never lose an opportunity. What can a woman like a house on fire? Because the sooner its put which he was familiar. Several days and evenings to the roof of his mouth, yet the awful task must becomes a woman and the other don't. were occupied in a similar manner. He then de- be accomplished. exhausting the ordinary topics of the day, the game tremblingly supports her. of whist was again thought of and renewed. They My dearest Julia, be mine forever. first played for the cards, then for liquor, and final- This is a settler, and the answer, ever so inaudily for small sums of money. The youth became ble, makes or undoes him quite.

letter, in which was enclosed a bank note for $100. ther; so when shall it be?

Still tempted by the demon of gambling, and still Cornered in this fashion, there is no retreat. ter hour, lost the money, then staked and lost the would be short and sweet for an answer. but how could he meet his sister? How could he I should be cruel not to speak it then, unles it is corned.—N. Y. Miraor. explain his folly, his infatuation and his crime? - a very hard one. He had left his home with a good name, on a mis- It is a word of three letters, and answers the He wiped the huge sweat-drops that stood on his sion of sacred duty, and he was now a thief and a question, Will you have me?

Beheld the proud foeman spring high from his place deed desperate. Confused and perplexed, he at No. follow the fortunes of the gamblers, who had temp- hundred ways, according to the circumstances and her flowers." ted and betrayed him, in the hope that they would the various dispositions. sequence of there being too many of the fraternity How would mine suit you? he was noticed by Green, and that hence a tear to know? forced itself to his eye, when he realized the lone- Yes, if I can. days, from having ventured upon what he called the world evidently expects we shall. an infrocent game of whist, and thus he truly said, All the world is very impatient. in reply to the question that had been put to him I know it, but it can't be helped. When shall I money, as well as love affairs. -that he knew not whither he was going. Green tell the parson to be ready?

> Two years rolled by. Green was again on the Mississippi, a passenger on the steamer Mediterra- STREETS OF JERUSALEM.—I went this day to hands." nean, on her way from Orleans to Louisville. An see one of the principal streets in the centre of the ceeded to the spot designated. He there beheld from the level of the street, to which there are no five men in chains-convicts, on their way from steps. There are no windows, either with or with-New Orleans to Baton Rouge, where the State Pen- out glass, but the door fills up the entire front; half itentiary of Louisiana is located Among them was of it down, and extending a little way into the it is to pay rent." A few years since, Mr. Green, the reformed gam- young Melmont—(the name of course is fictitious) streets, serves for laying goods upon. The shopbter, took passage on a steamboat at Louisville, -the wretched youth whose unfortunate journey man sits cross-legged on the floor, and never raises of civilization discourseth thus: "Its course is onbound for New Orleans. A short time after the from Boston to Louisville, we have here so hastily to serve his customer, who stands in the street ward—onward, like a slow intrepid tread of a jackboat pushed off, it was discovered that there were described! He had but a few days before been without; nor need he, for all his goods lie upon ass towards a peck of oats." no less than twenty gamblers on board, and much convicted of forgery, and sentenced to the State shelves within his reach. The streets are not more Official.—An honest German Sheriff of Penndissatisfaction was expressed, because so many had Prison for five years! This, gentle reader, is no than from six to eight feet wide, so that when the sylvania, lately made an endorsement by way of re-determination was carried into effect, and it was The following from "Every One's Book," con- are laid some large flat stones for the people to while Mr Green was standing on the hurricane tains some useful suggestions on a subject in res- walk or step upon in wet weather; which are worn deck, noticing the landing of a portion of his old pect to which good advice is particularly desira- so smooth and sloping by the number of naked feet friends, that his attention was arrested by a young ble. It is to be regretted that some set form of which tread upon them, that no one can walk safeman, looking anxiously upon the departing gam- words has not been adopted by general consent, to ly and look at the shops at the same time; for beblers. He was pale and agitated, and a tear drop save lovers from the agency of circumlocution. tween slippery stones and deep holes, one has to still more curious, followed him, and by the ex- even in the cannon's mouth," trembles at the idea comes next, being 70 years old on the 15th of A-. ADVERTISEMENTS inserted at $1 per square for som himself. He said that his first rools woman the question which is to decide pril. Martin Van Buren, R. M. Johnson, J. C. som himself. He said that his first reply was cor- his fate. Ladies may congratulate themselves that Calhoun, Lewis Cass, Daniel Webster, singularly he continued—"you perceive, we have just passed." always contrived in some awkard way to accom- nearly 60. The rest of our prominent public men death of that sister's husband had induced her to a woman he admires. If she be serious, he will Peel corresponds with that of Gen'l. Taylor, as that Postmasters will please give us prompt notice write for her brother to come on, to protect her in approach the awful question with due solemnity— of Lord John Russel does with that of Dallas. of any refusal to take the paper from their office. her widowhood, and assist in settling up the es- if gay and lively, he will make it an excellent joke Broughan is the youngest of the first grade of pubtate. His parents provided him with all the ne- -if softly sentimental, he must woo her in a strain lic characters, being barely born in the last century. Office—3 doors above Mr. Bradshaw's hotel. cessaries for the journey, gave him permission to of high-wrought romance, and if severely practical, Single copies can be had at the office for 61 cts. tarry for a few days at New York and Philadel- he relics upon straight-forward common sense.

Popping the Question.

> smoothly and pleasantly, until he arrived in Phila- think of a lover who neglects one? Women can- out the better. delphia. Here he took lodgings at a leading hotel, not make direct advances, but they use infinite tact Why is the sun like a good loaf? Because its and soon formed an acquaintance with two young in giving men occasions to make them. In every light when it rises. men of genteel exterior, plausible manners, and case it is fair to presume that when a woman gives Why is a bird greedy? Because it never eats captivating address. Accompanied by them, he, a man an opportunity, she expects him to improve less than a peck. during the day, visited several of the leading insti-it; and though he may tremble, and feel his pulse When is a fowl's neck like a bell? When it is tutions, and at night, accepted an invitation to play throbbing and tingling through every limb—though rung for dinner. a game of whist, the only game of cards with his heart fills up his throat, and his tongue cleaves Why isn't a boy like a bounet? Because one > by taking passage in one of the lines for Pittsburg. walk by moonlight, with the lady of his love—talks tress the present of a five pound bank note for her On appearing at the depot the next morning, he of the beauties of the scenery, the harmony of na-marriage portion. Her mistress wished to see the was delighted to find his two companions. They ture, and exclaims, Ah, Julia, how happy would object of Susan's favor, and a very diminutive felalso had business west, and they regarded it as a existence prove, if I always had such a companion. low, swarthy as a Moor and ugly as an ape, made pleasure to have so agreeable companion. After She sighs, and leans more fondly on the arm that his appearance.

lost every dollar that belonged to him, with the ex- a manner which may be either jest or earnest; mar- pect for a five pound note?" ception of a sum just sufficient to pay his passage ry me at once and put me out of my misery. from Pittsburg to Louisville. But again the stran- With all my heart, whenever you are ready, re- Gobblers.—The following valuable information is

On arriving at Cincinnati, he was nearly mad .- tions to a lady, says, Well Mary, when is the hap-He then bethought himself of a package which his py day? What day, pray? she asks, with a consithe moon is in Taurus, Leo, Virgo, Capricorn or anxious to regain what he had lost, he returned to Jane, I love you! Will you marry me? would his vile companions and whist. He played hour af- be somewhat abrupt, and a frankly given "Yes!"

necklace. At this point the horrors of his situa- Ellen, one word from you would make me the When the moon gets into Capricorn is also a good last determined to rush from the boat, leave the ri- And so this interesting and terrible process in thank you to keep your cheek away from that rose: fled package at the house of his sister, return and practice, simple as it is in theory, is varied in a ye'll put the lady out of consait with the color of advised him to return to his sister and make a frank As a general thing, a gentleman need never be re- a coat to his tailor, because it did not exactly fit accident happened by which she was induced to city. They are five or six in number, and from one of our wharves the other day, "what is wood stop near Plaquemine. While there, a fellow pas- 150 to 200 yards each in length. There are no now?" senger remarked that he had just witnessed a hor- private houses among them, all being shops and rible sight upon the forward deck of the boat. places of business. The shops are generally about trees cut down and chopped up." "Ah!" exclaimed Green-and immediately pro-six feet in front, and the floors are raised 3 feet

The streets are neither flagged nor paved, but there at the expiration of the subscribers old year, will the deck and descended into the cabin. Green, mount a breach, and "seed the bubble reputation the Nestor. He is 80 years of age. Henry Clay By the year, ten dollars per square; and larger ones The reasons for this course were sad ones.—He plish, it is not easy to give instructions suited to e- are generally younger by years. If we cross the had a sister at Louisville, who had married and very emergency.

Atlantic we find a statesman in Wellington, unim-YEARLY advertisements must be paid for within 3 moved thither, while he was yet a child. The A man naturally conforms to the dispositions of paired in intellect, at the age of 78. The age of termined to continue his journey, which he did. In the country, the lover is taking a romantic girl desirous of matrimony, received from her mis-

"Ah, Susan," said her mistress, "what a strange choice you have made!"

"La, ma'am," said Susan, "in such hard times as excited, and ere they reached the iron city, he had Take pity on a forlorn bachelor, says another, in soldiers, what more of a man than this can you ex-gers made their appearance on board an Ohio river plies the laughing fair. A joke carried thus far is from a Philadelphis publication called "Hague's" lost the deluded young man played again, when A point is often carried by taking a thing for be invaluable, if they but make out to understand sought for it in his trunk, found and opened it. It Why, everybody knows that we are going to get You should trade in ducks, geese and other water fowls when the moon is in good aspect to the other planet from the signs of Cancer, Scorpio or Pisces."

When Virgo is in the Great Bear Market will also be an excellent time to purchase chickens; when Aquarius gets into a tea-pot then is the time time for corned beef, but a very bad time for getting

AN IRISH COMPLIMENT .- A lovely girl was bending her head over a rose tree which a lady was ber. He had misemployed funds given under hallowed circumstances, and his condition was inpens to prefer a word of two letters, and answers don, young lady, but if it's pleasing to ye, I'd robber. He had misemployed funds given under The lady, of course, savs Yes, unless she hap-purchasing from an Irish basket-woman, looking

A newly married lady, being very fond of not be so heartless as to throw him off. But this One timid gentleman asks, Have you any object her husband, notwithstanding his extreme ugliness hope was of short duration, for they were among the tion to changing your name? and follows this up of person, once said to a very witty friend, "What party that left the boat as above described, in con- with another which clenches its insignificance,— do you think? My husband has gone and laid out fifty guineas for a baboon, on purpose to please on board. It was while they were returning that Another asks, will you tell me what I most wish me!" "The dear little man!" cried the other; "well, it is just like him."

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT .-- One of our exas an outcast and a robber-had become so in a few Another says, My Eliza, we must do what all known among the ancients by the name of Cupid, changes announces that the distinguished personage has recently changed his name to Cupidity, and will hereafter devote his attention to matters of confession—but his heart failed him—he had not fused. Every woman, except a heartless coquette, him. The tailor, afterwards seeing the doctor at a Water'd with tears, and watch'd with sleeples care; the moral nerve. He could not meet the being he finds the means of discouraging a man whom she funeral of one of his patients, said to him, "Ah It grew—and when I looked that it should prove had so bitterly wronged. He gratefully accepted does not intend to have, before the matter comes to doctor, you are a happy man.—"Why so?" inquired the doctor, "Because," said the tailor, "you never have any of your bad work returned upon your

"What is wood now?" replied the wag, "Why "3 Dick, where were you vesterday?" "Oh, moving." What, moving again?" "Yes, I find it is cheaper paying a hand cartman for moving than chosen the same boat. It was soon agreed that ten fiction, but a true story, and the moral it conveys shops are open it is rather difficult for people to turn on a writ placed in his hands. "Dere ish no pass each other in the business part of the town.— gutz (goods) found in my bellywack." (bailiwick)