Old Grimes's Son. Old Grimes's son lives in our town, A modest lad is he; He's big enough if cut in half To make two men like me.

His father land and money has, Of acres many score, And dollars piles on piles has he, As I have said before.

He used to wear a long tailed blue When he'd go out to walk, And if his eye would rest on you, He'd watch you like a hawk. .

But all things sure must have an end, As you must surely know; So Grimes's spirit had to bend-To feel death's cruel blow.

So "Grimes is dead that good old man, We ne'er shall see him more, He used to wear a long tailed blue And buttoned down before."

So Johnny Grimes was left alone In this cruel world below; From town to town he had to roam, And many sorrows know.

But now he lives with farmer Giles, And sees much better times; The farmer travels many miles And takes poor Johnny Grimes.
