

THE EASTON STAR.

Easton, Md.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

FOR TALBOT COUNTY. FOR THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES.

PHILIP F. THOMAS,

BENJ. M. BOWDLE,

RICH'D, ARRINGDALE.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONERS. For District No. 2. DANIEL LEONARD. For District No. 3.

THOS. H. LEONARD. [Day of Election, Wednesday, October 4th.]

of a United States Senator, and to cut the Justice. chanics are toiling from sun to sun to earn him. Beware of political trickery. an honest livelihood; while taxation, never-ending taxation, stares them in the face, an effort is being made to divert their attention from their real condition, and make will be slow in believing that those classes of our fellow citizens will shut their eyes to the real issues presented, and blindly follow the lead of men who are evidently seeking to promote party interests rather than the public welfare. We have had enough of public debt, taxation, and wasteful extravagance. The success of Democratic men and measures is the surest guarantee the people can have for a correction of public abuses. We rely upon their known intelligence; their devotion to sound principles, and their desire to be relieved

DEMOCRATS TO THE RESCUE!

bestow upon you the blessings of government and an undisturbed possession of the fruits of your industry. Quail not before the marshaled forces of your enemy-you have heretofore defeated them and can do it again if you make the effort. Will you Long time in a state of suspense we have not do it? Will you not show to the world We find you don't mean to 'fork over the tin.' quered and unconquerable? Let the res- Our pockets are empty, no work can we get, members. Of these SIXTY-TWO were Merrick twenty thousand dollars, Thomas found wanting. ponse be, yes! and let the result of the vo- By clamorous duns we are daily beset, ting prove you worthy sons of old Mary- We've found all promises worthless and vain, 'Twas far better times during little Van's land, who are ready to stretch forth a helping hand to rescue her from the embarrassments into which she has been so unwisely plunged. Then let all hands go to work to save the ship-

"Fling out the flag from the gallant mast, -Let the shout of the crew be heard-While the barque that rides is flying fast O'er the sea, like a mountain bird! Let it rest on the breast of the glorious sun,

When the sky grows calm at noon-And on let it float when the day is done, In the sheen of the silvery moon!"

Whig party during the memorable campaign of 1840 made no avowals of its principles, and the consequence was that after we presume, but it is shrewdly suspected the smoke of the battle had passed away, that Messrs. Harper and Bowdle will supthe different divisions began to compare port the late incumbent. notes and calmly look at the fruits of their Bank, and the West expected their peculiar Taxes. all others. Congress became a political crease of the Direct Tax. Babel, and Whigery was divided and split up into factions, each portion claiming to We understand that the Whigs on be the legitimate exponents of the doctrines Goldsborough for the House of Delegates, of Harrisonism. The people, becoming and Charles Bowdle, Esq. on conditions. disgusted with the course of the Whig The Colonel declined the honor of being party, have, in nearly every State in the beat, and Mr. B. is forthwith ready to take Union where elections have taken place his place. during the past year, placed the seal of condemnation upon it, and permitted its suphas been appointed Minister resident at tronage indirectly from the Government.
S. Stoddart, John F. Gardiner and John H. ent. The 4th is the anniversary of the bat-private life." How could we expect them | A Confession.—The Augusta Age, a What have I to no with Politics. | A Good Hit.—While our people are which was promised him in return for his some violent and radical change by break- answer:labor, or does he receive more for his pro- ing it up and remodeling it, the country is ward for his labor, or the workingman an increase of wages? Let them answer .-The truth is, experience has sadly taught the people the fallacy of relying upon whig TUESDAY MORNING, OCT. 3, 1843. promises, for they have found that such reliance neither conduces to their prosperity nor to the interest of the State. Will they again go hoodwinked to the polls and support men who have not avowed their opinfuture welfare of us all as a political community? If they do, and the Whigs are successful, let them bear their burdens without a murmur, and kiss the hand that smites them most

STOOPING TO CONQUER.—Our worthy ciously assailed by some of his political to co-operate with the House of Delegates | the advocacy of those principles? opponents. He has been charged with ha- in the election of U.S. Senator. The Whigs Voung Democrats you have much to the street—hoping the alarm would absorb edness of man ever conceived. The Genving voted for General Harrison in 1840, of Talbot (we mean the wire-workers) are of the attention of the Court: 'How came you eral Government is to be required to issue, THE ELECTION ving voted for General Harrison in 1840, of Talbot (we mean the wire-workers) are as if it were a trade or profession, to be under the proceeds of the public pursued by a particular class of the compute the Justice: "there's a fire! there's a fire!" lands, stock to the amount of $200,000,will elect their representatives to the next (published in another part of our paper) to conceive men to be. When the Nine- munity and of interest to them alone.— screamed out Long-fingers, with the most 000 to be distributed amongst the several General Assembly of Maryland. Whatev- and declares his vote was given for Mr. teen Senatorial electors refused to go into God forbid that such should ever be the commendable self-possession, as he made States according to their several represener may be the result of the voting—which- Van Buren. Those who know him will the electoral college, the cry of anarchy and case in this country. Where the people for the door. "Never you mind the fire," tations in Congress, To say nothing of ever party may obtain the ascendancy in readily believe him. We are at a loss to revolution resounded in our midst! But large divided into two classes, hereditary ru- said the constable, as he put him back to the injustice which such a scheme should the popular branch of the Legislature—we divine the cause of Mr. Leonard's persecu- when a Whig Senate refuses to perform a lers and hereditary bondsmen, such ideas the stand—"they'll put it out without your operate upon the non-indebted States, let the popular branch of the Legislature—we can say with no spirit of vain-boasting, when a wing Senate refuses to perform a may prevail; but in a Government whose fundamental maxim is, that all power is are on trial before the country—but when to accrue to the State with the burdens it that we have discharged our duty, howev- ion which most men entertain for him, and nough to be found among certain politi- derived from the people, each constituent asked why they have squandered the pub- must necessarily be hereafter required to er feebly, in admonishing the people of the which must be changed to render the chanimportance of the crisis in which they are ces of his defeat even probable. Mr. L. involved. Should the Whig party succeed, has thus far in life sustained the character prove the Senate's course, say so. If you called to act in governmental matters, is of the locos are in trouble! the locos are gowe are lest to infer that the system which of an honest, upright, industrious citizen; disapprove it—speak out. But to the ex- necessity a politician.' has already beggared the State and oppres- and if these qualities have recommended tract. sed the people, is to be persisted in at ev- him to public favor, black indeed must be [From the Baltimore Saturday Evening Visery hazzard. We have no evidence-no the heart that would rob him of the least, public avowals, either by their press or merely to promote the success of some ri- the Democrats in Maryland, the "Whig" that we did not receive it in time to publish to escape the issue. their candidates, that any steps will be ta- val candidate. Democrats, we appeal to gives the following advice:ken to relieve their pecuniary embarrass- you to step forward in vindication of your "The Locofocos are shouting lustily o- dles some of our whig friends without gloves, ments, should the Whigs carry the elec- ticket, and teach the traducers of meritoritions tomorrow. The grand design with ous men that your honest hearts-like bled to elect a United States Senator of let them off for the present,-Ed. Star.] them appears to be, to secure the election your principles-are ever on the side of advance the political interests of a few de- any confidence in the charges which the Maryland will disappoint them, by decli- forth the champion of the war, and did all cially given, viz: signing men. While our farmers and me- enemies of Mr. Leonard may make against ning to go into an election at the succeed- the poor soldiers who were fighting to pre-

The Gazette of Saturday, after a twelvemonths snooze, arouses from its quoted advice meeting the approval of the Congress to defeat every effort to procure slumber, and like a testy old granny begins to quarrel with every body within its reach, loathe its author. The very idea of being money, and did they not in the public prints advise their friends not to loan money to the government? Did not Daniel Webster dethem subservient to mere party ends. We quarrel with every body within its reach, loathe its author. The very idea of being clare "if the British were battering down the into a passion with Mr. T. because he vo- movement, will startle the high-minded of dollar?" Those acts cannot be forgotten by Amount of outstanding apnot legislate specially for the rich contractor and let the poor laborer shift for him.

No. there will feel mortifed approval of the leading thousands are leading. The which they have so deservedly lost.—

During the renowned Federal campaign of the leading the renowned by the renowned for the poor laborer shift for him. bos-then it grumbles because he would tor and let the poor laborer shift for him- No-they will feel mortified-sorely mor- 1840 did their great orators who traversed Amount of outstanding apself. It first coaxes he mechanic to vote tified—to find any paper professing like the country (and at the same time received the Whig ticket, and then attempts to scold principles, avowing such villainous doc- eight dollars a day) declare their views and in a bad humor with itself and every body legislatures of other States, although many lic lands? No. Dumb as a beetle. Were not object to try their vocal powers on the that the party at large would approve it- they not promise a strict retrenchment, and from the evils of past legislation, for the subjoined extract, adapted to the times. triumphant success of our ticket on to-There's more truth than poetry in it-but the poetry is very superior to some of the log cabin ditties. Try it.

Democrats! young and old repair to the "For more than two years, you've held abpolls on tomorrow and sustain your prin- But still we don't get the 'two dollars a day?' ciples-those principles which alone can And as for roast beef-we've forgot how it

We've waited, and waited, and find its no use

Now, all ye coon dealers we bid you adieu. Tall Jim, and Black Dan, and the rest of You're welcome to cheat us again if you can."

to be sent to the Legislature "that he may frontery to assert that the Democrats are of our embarrassments. Have they not had They have not given us better times.

They have not given us better times.

They have not given us better times.

They have not given us better times. thencesend himself to the Senate of the Uni- equally responsible with themselves in a federal majority in the house for the last Farmer's Produce. ted States." May we ask, who will Mr. placing Maryland in her present deplora- sixteen years with the exception of three or Loockerman, if elected, send to the Senate Nothing for the Public Eye,-The of the United States. And who will his colleagues, if elected, support? Mr. Loockerman will go for himself against the field victory. The North supported Harrison VOTERS OF TALBOT, recollect that the and Tyler because they wished a high tar- Whig candidates have not avowed themiff and a National Bank, the South, because | selves in favor of the repeal of the Law uthey opposed a high Tariff and National niting the collection of State and County

Recollect, they have not publicly declarinterests taken care of to the exclusion of ed whether they are for or against an in-

Dabney S. Carr, of Baltimore city, hold office under the traitor or receive pahas been appointed Winister receive, hold office under the traitor or receive pahouse of delegates; and the democrats, John and Col. Johnson of Kentucky, will be presnothing to do with it then, we repudiate all

United States.)

The above paragragh is copied by the you? Easton Gazette of Saturday last. Did the publisher of the Gazette has read his will. exchange papers for the last week or two National Intelligencer, which paper origi- the ordinary course of nature, the cares and every other place:-

U. S. SENATOR.—The subjoined article

iter, a neutral paper.

their own political stamp, to oppose a protective tariff, and other measures of the "What was the conduct of the Federal Whig party in Congress. We most sin- party during the last war? when Clay, like Horse of Representatives, May 19th, 1843, additional debt of $5,000,000, to be paid State up into Congressional Districts to We caution the public against placing cerely hope, however, that the Senate of an honest statesman (as he then was) stood the following items of information are offi- in what time, no man can tell and an aning session of the Legislature."

and particularly with Mr. Thomas. It gets suspected of sanctioning such a treasonous walls of the capitol that he would not vote a ted to protect the journeyman as well as the the party. We warrant such suggestions the patriotic Americans;—and still those him into it; and in short it resolves to be trines-aye, and attempting to sustain principles? Did they then advocate a bank, else. Now as our scribes of the Gazette wrongs would not make a right. Did we the Democrats allowed to reply to their ar- Amount of the public debt were in the habit of discoursing most elbelieve the Whig Senator elect, entertained was applied, and not a word could be said in oquent music" in 1840, perhaps they will any such purpose for one moment-or, reply. Did they not promise reform; did it, and leave it alone in its infamy.

ity." We would say so of any party.nal-might take such a ground-we would ernment in debt millions of dollars. shout-DOWN WITH IT!"

are equally responsible with them for the They have spent all that was in hand, and ble difficulties. This is Whig assertion. In House of Debrotos. And how was this money spent? in borrow-Now for the facts. In House of Delegates, ing money at a large discount and pledging which passed this act, there were eighty the State for payment—by giving Joseph J. Upharsin—weighed in the balance and Whigs, and EIGHTEEN were Democrats. S. Alexander and Nicholas Brewer, jr. one What have they not done? ate at that session was composed of fifteen ment acts, and twenty thousand dollars to man Two Dollars a day and Roast Beef. but when they learn and become acquaintmembers, and that when this Bill of A Buchanan, Emory and Peabody to go to I hey

England to sell the State bonds; and up Labor. bominations came up before that body for wards of a million and a half of dollars to its final action, there were thirteen mem- officers and agents of the railroads and ca- ges. (But they have become uniform in We see through your tricks, and your mo- bers (all Whigs) present—and that ELEV- nals—all sunk and lost. What State can spite of them.) the face at every turn, the Whig editors drains upon their industry? But to cap the rency. (But it is growing sounder in The Gazette asserts that Mr. Thomas is and electioneerers have the unblushing ef- climax the Federalists have the audacity to spite of them.)

BALTIMORE, Sept. 27th, 1843.

To the Editor of the Frederick Citizen: DEAR SIR: - A friend of mine, a gentleman of the first respectability, whose atten- only be secured by the success of Democration was drawn to an article in the Fred- tic measures. erick Examiner commenting on an advertisement offering French Boots and Shoes for sale, called on the advertiser to examine the goods, when he was told by the latter that he had no French articles of that the turf. It will be the largest purse ever would have been to mercy. kind, that the advertisement was a misprint, contended for in this country or in Europe. he having intended to offer fresh and not Thirty horses have been entered, untried con, looking into his brutal face.

the Whig orators in this county as a Trait- ty thousand dollars. or to the Whig party. It is remarkable that in these days of Whig patriotism that any member of the "great Whig party" would Yet they do it. More of this hereafter. Diggs.

to do otherwise, when every promise pledged by Whigery has been left unredeemed.

Does the farmer enjoy the rich harvest which was promised him in return for his ledges no power and no guide, but the will and ask for relief, and they answer by tell- of dollars in the shape of fees for service not that paper know it was a gross false- of the people, and what have you to do ing them to "look at the "tumbling to pie- rendered in influencing the votes of mem-you may be called upon to direct?

cians to enable them to avow an opinion unit of that people, is in part a ruler, is lic money? or made a bankrupt law? or bear. either one way or the other. If you ap- called to think of governmental affairs, is pulled each others noses? they scream out, Maryland will be entitled to about 5,-

[COMMUNICATED.]

[We make an extract from the commun "In some comments on the success of cation of a "plain man," and have to regret coolly—for the people will not allow them for a sum exceeding $50 in the $100. it entire. The portion omitted by us. han-he could to procure money to pay and feed Amount of appropriations serve that independence which a Washing The "Vister" continues: "Happy are ton gained? Did they not curse and abuse we in believing, that so far from the above him from north to south; did they not vote in will not secure the approval of the leading friends of Great Britain wish to delude the them, too, by reference to the course of high tariff, and the distribution of the pubwe would say, let that party be crushed that thousands and thousands of public moforever-let every man of honor orsake ney should be saved! Yet no sooner had they obtained power than they called an ex-"No one need cry-"breach of neutral- tra session that they might pocket thousands and thousands of dollars travelling to and We don't care what party-or what jour- believe, 9 or 10 months, and run the gov-

Now let us see how our native State has Nineteen Millions of Dollars. been used by these Federalists. When they came into power they found the State FACTS vs. ASSERTIONS .- The Whig pa- clear of debt and about thirty thousand dolpers and orators assert that the Denocrats lars in the treasury. What now is the case? passage of the act authorizing the Eight run the State in debt upwards of sixteen Million Loan-that fatalact which has pros- millions of dollars, and every farmer and trated Maryland in the mire of inextrica- mechanic is taxed more than they are able about Thirty Millions. Now let us turn to the Senate, and see how thousand dollars each to aid and assist in parties stood there. We find that the Sen- procuring the passage of Internal Improve-EN of them voted for it and two against it. stand those outrageous extravagances? how And yet with these facts staring them in are the farmers and mechanics to stand such hle situation. Out upon such shameless four? When they passed the eight million People bill there were sixty-two Federal members and eighteen Democratic members, and still they say the democrats are to blame! But sir, the people know better, and will not be dential Election.

A few days will show, I trust, that the people are alive to their interests which can A PLAIN MAN.

GREAT RACE TO COME OFF.—The great | ing people if they wanted salvation. Near | diligence in the great cause of human rights Peyton Stake, to be run over the Nashville us sat a butcher's boy, of 19 years old, in which Democracy is engaged, than the course early in October, appears to be exciting unusal interest among the gentlemen of French goods. You will please notice nags four years old, and among them the this in your next paper, and thus destroy produce of Priam Eclipse, Black Maria, Le- the sexton won't let me take her out till viathan, Plenipotentiary, Lulfborough, and meeting's all over." other celebrated racers.—The entry is five thousand dollars, with a thousand dollars, forfeit, and, counting largely upon withdraw-JOHN TYLER is savagely denounced by als, the winning colt will take a purse of eight regiments, numbering in all of the passage of the Eight Million Bill.

ty have nominated John G. Chapman, Rob- Brig. Gen. Owen; Major Gen. Pratt will re-

he should have known that the Augusta are to enjoy in times to come, whatever of of union and harmony among the demo- Whigs introduced as a great financial meaions on measures involving the present and Age made no such assertions, and that reour free institutions, and what have you to The following from the New Haven Reg- system of internal improvement. They spectable Whig papers have acknowledged do with the support of those institutions? ister, shows that their trick is fully under- have plunged the property holders into a the error into which they were led by the Members of a society, upon whom, in stood in those parts, as we believe it is here debt of Sixteen Millions of Dollars, with ing to have a fight! hurrah!" Now we an interest of three per cent. The inter-ver the result, believing they will be ena- but as tomorrow is the day of race we will DEBT.—By a document (No. 185, of the between that sum and the 5,000,000 of PUBLIC EXPENDITURES AND PUBLIC add to the debt of the State the difference House of Representatives,) reported by the bonds, to wit: $2,500,000. To get then Secretary of the Treasury to the Clerk of $2,500,000 the State will have to incur an > from March 4th, 1839, to March 3d, 1841, by the list democratic Congress, during two years. the Coon Congress, du-propriations on the 4th day of March, 1841, the end of Mr. Van Buren's propriations on the 4th day of March, 1843, the end of the Coon Congressional administration, $31,589,337 on the 4th day of March, 1841, at the end of Mr. Buren's administration, Amount of the public debt on the 4th day of March, 1842, at the end of the Coon Congress adminis-

WHAT HAVE THE WHIGS DONE What have the Whigs done since they came into power? They have created a National debt of

They have made Bankrupt the Nation. They have dishonored the country. They have been Mene, Mene, Tekel,

They have not secured to the laborin They have not raised the Wages of

They have not Regulated the Exchan-They have not established a Sound Cur-

They have not relieved the Distress

They have not fulfilled a single promise made to the People before the last Presi-

"No, darn vou-I want Sal Skinner, and tion!

y thousand dollars.

Charles County.—The whigs of this coun
Charles County.—The whigs of this county the charles c the of the Thames.

POLITICAL.

WHIG HUMBUG.

The great scheme of borrowing money cry which is being raised against them by the to be invested in the construction of Rail oppressed, imitate the cunning of the ani- Roads and Canals by which the people "Sons of sires who died, that their coun- mal which they have adopted as emblemat- were to be relieved from all taxation whatduce than under Democratic protection? better off under Federal Domination," try might become the land of Freemen, ic of their party, and attempt to evade their soever and the treasury overflowing has Does the mechanic receive a greater re- (meaning by the term 'Federal' the friends and inquire what have you to do with the pursuers by doubling and placing them on at last turned out to be a complete humbug and upholders of the Constitution of the transmission of those blessings which, by the wrong track. With this object in view and from which the people are told noththeir exertions, have been conferred upon we find one of their organs yesterday morn- ing can be expected. That such men as ing attempting to direct public attention to Joseph I. Merrick and a few more might be Citizens of a country, which acknow- the Presidential contest. The people groan enabled to line their pockets with thousands hood at the time of its republication? If with the fair and free expression of that ces" in the loco foco ranks!" They ask bers of the Legislature, the legitimate obthem to account for the moneys they have jects for which they were sent to the Leg-Representatives of a generation, who wasted, and they tell them "there is a want islature were turned aside, and in 1835 the no other assurance of its extinguishment nated the paragraph. So much for Whig and duties of the government must descend, "The whigs are striving hard to attract than perpetual taxation, unless the bond and what have you to do with the preser- attention from their calamitous rule, as a holders can be persuaded to take the invation, in their pure state, of the elements party, to the imagined difficulties that terest of the State in the internal improvethreaten the Democratie ranks. However ment companies. Not content with this Firm adherents to principles, in whose ingenious they may think their plan, it scheme of utter desolation, they have startand estimable candidate for County Com- is a scorching rebuke to the advocates of ascendancy you believe, rests the safety of will not succeed. We were once present ed another which we predict will if ever missioner, Daniel Leonard, has been mali- the Senate's course in refusing last winter the country, and what have you to do with at the examination of a noted rogue, who adopted, prove more abominable and deseemed greatly relieved at a cry of fire in structive than any curse which the wick> reckon the "locos" can settle their matters est therefore which will annually accrue themselves; and the whigs may as well thereon, and which Maryland will have to keep their seats in the criminal box, and pay, will be $150,000. It' is not likely The value of the bonds to the State then in money will be $2,500,000 which will nual interest of $150,000. To meet this additional liability of the State, the Whigs are stumping it from one end of the county to the other, that the proceeds of the public lands will meet it. Why, fellow-$42,168,720 citizens, do you read? Will you believe such nonsense! The share of the proceeds of the public lands which Maryland would receive, if she were entitled to it at all, would not annually exceed $17,000. The $55,132,236 difference between that sum and the $150,-000 of interest on the $5,000,000 is 133-000, which must come out of you in the shape of direct taxes; besides some provision must be made by you for the payment $26,977,611 of the 5,000,000 principal, because it is clear the annual proceeds of the public lands won't pay a cent towards it. Look before you leap, fellow-citizens. We assure you it is a humbug—and if you want to enjoy the blessings of Liberty don't permit your Government to be a dealer in stocks and money speculations .- Frederick Citizen. LEAVING THE SINKING CAUSE.—In all parts of the country we hear of prominent and influential men becoming disgusted with the coon party and leaving it for the $27,394,261 pure and righteous cause of Democracy. Thus it will be seen by the showing of Now is the time to come out from among the Coons themselves, that they have in them; -let the old men set the example and two years increased the public debt over the young ones follow. We learn from the Indiana Sentinel that Judge LILLESTON, of Evansville, in a letter to the editor of the Indiana Statesman, has made a formal renunciation of Whiggery, of which party, in 1840, and previous, he was was a most zealous advocate and supporter. We select the following paragraph from his letter, which the Evansville Journal seems to take very much "to heart."

Now and Forever, I Renounce all allegiance to the WHIG Party. I know when I do this that I run across the feelings of my Whig friends, who have always supported me, and who I believe would again, were I to be a candidate for office; ed with the many things carried on by the leading Whigs, as I know and have learned, they themselves will do the same when fully informed upon this matter.

Now for the WAR .- A correspondent of the Bay State Democrat says:-"A revolutionary hero with heart overflowing with joy at the result of the Democratic State Convention, held at Worcester, sung out to me this morning, 'My friend, now for war. I fought the tories in the revolution with gun and bayonet, and now I will as cheerfully fight federal whigery at the ballot-box. I feel it to be a duty-aye, and a privilege too, as long as my weary limbs will support my fast decaying body to de-VERY ANCIENT BUT VERY GOOD .- We fend my beloved country against the inremember being once at a conference meet- roads making upon its liberty by the intering in Yankee land, says a Southern editor, nal enemy.' No word uttered by the lips when one of the deacons came round sak- of man could have inspired more zeal and about as amenable as a lamb in his hands words which came warm from the heart of this venerable soldier of the revolution." "Do you want salvation?" said the dea- There's an example that should arouse every Democrat in Maryland to vigorous ac-

There were 62 Whigs and 18 Democrats in the House, and 15 Whigs com-Great Military Review .- A brigade con- posed the Senate of Maryland at the time people, hence the Tax Party are eager to connexion with it now.

Embarrassm WHO ARE RI THEM?-LET We have already ling facts in conn used by several of t State to involve the those of internal in and we now prop same source others character. We yes Joseph J. Merrick solute and exclusiv mous sum of twen the people's money fluencing the judge at the session of 18 proceed to show th was distributed to 1 On page 5 of the tofore alluded to, mony of Mr. John of the Chesapeake and at present one swer to the quest money was paid by Ohio Canal Co., wi (1836,-7 and 8) to To Benjamin Price in the acqusition To Thomas S. A services in the c junction by a las To Wm. Price for s

To Clement Cox, fo To John Marbeny " service law suits. To Richard S. Cox in the controve claimants of wat the Canal Co. To Joseph J. Meri ces in the acqui For his services a &c. during the w and 5, in aid of th

acqusition of lan

of the Co. for a 000,000 from Maryland, For his sevices as sellor and solicit in its application lature of Maryla 1836, '7 & 8,

Making the enormo

Which was paid by

Whig lawyers in

Joseph J. Merrick

It will be sand and thirty dol we ask, after such people's money, th State finds itself em a reckless disregard eventuate in any v barrasements to th the grevious taxation dered? And yet, the developements the management of works to have been the whole of their of the public mone we here shown was and leaders, thousa dollars in the form extra allowances, 1 At the very time th pauper-like petitio Legislature for aid, tracts for the paym lars to Whig leade ney to come from ments were to be out of the private s pany-or, was it to of the people at la distress, and the 1 people are now c swer. Whilst the to pay the interes straining every ne tivity every expedi expenses which ar sary to support th those who were p members of the I lions of dollars of useless enterprises, selves upon the in ceived for the d The people knowi sing that they con and justly so too, tresses and emba brought about by can but view with those who have in > lic councils the m into difficulties and Nothing short of t but two sides of th agance and debt ar and a cessation of upon the other. I certainly doomed t policy and scheme taxation and dishe have been a nation power, either in th ernments, without a memorial of their wasteful extravaga They took possess State when there Treasury, and after years control of the idence of their cap debt of upwards of lars! So too, wa General Governme had control of the a year, before they it so low, that the to be hawked thro ble the General Go enough to keep its different was it w nomical administr

patriot Jackson?

hold the reins of g

affairs back to that in which they wer

had control, they r

If the people me