

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.
Episcopacy Voted Down—The Bishop Sustained.

The Episcopal Convention in New York had a highly interesting session on Tuesday. The Bishop in his annual address justified his own conduct, and condemned the action of the two presbyters (the Rev. Messrs. A. Atherton and Smith) in offering their protest against the ordination, and then leaving the church. The Bishop said he had examined the charges against Mr. Carey previous to the ordination, and had found no valid objection to Mr. Carey. It was therefore his duty to sustain him. In doing this he violated no canon or ordinance of the church. The Bishop could conceive no case except one of violation of law, which could justify public interruption of the order and solemnities of the ordination. He also disapproved of the appeal to the world in this controversy.

Several churches were admitted to the Convention on the subject of "Puseyism". The old members of the standing missionary committee formed the Puseyite ticket, at that which sustained Bishop was considered which was elected.

There was an opposition ticket, of 117 votes, 95 to 16 of the clergy sustained the Bishop. There was but a majority of the laity to support the other resolution, introduced by George Oakley, that the delegates to the next General Convention be instructed to present a canon for adoption by the Convention, to the effect, that if any two presbyters make objection to any candidate in being, an examination of the candidate shall be appointed, and the two presbyters to be invited to be present, and the question, to and answers by the candidate, to be put in writing, a warm discussion elicited. The vote by orders, was 95 to 21 in favor, and resulted in a vote of 95 to 21 in the clergy in favor, and of 49 to 35 by the laity, against laying on the table. The motion was thus lost. A vote was then taken to print the resolutions, and make them the special order of the next day.—Among the persons present, were Chief Justice Jones, Judges Oakley and Kent, Mrs. John Duer, John Anthon, William David B. Ogden, Stephen Cambreling, James Addis Enmet, D. D. Barnard, and Stephenson, James Fenimore Cooper, and others.

On Friday evening, Mr. Duer appeared in a protest against the language in the Bishop's address to the Convention, had referred to a religious paper, printed in this city, the "Cochranian". The Bishop had commanded the doctrines and temper of that paper; and, in referring to the protest he held respecting it, dissented from that opinion. He gave the paper, a brief protest, and desired it might be entered upon the minutes of the convention.

The Bishop expressed his surprise that a paper should have been presented, new of no right that the gentleman offer it. He should not allow it to be on the records of the Convention, and only pardon the person who presented it upon the supposition that he was conscious of its impropriety. It must be withdrawn. In refusing it he hoped to be supported by the diocese, but if this failed him he relied upon a higher power.

Mr. Duer attempted to speak, but confusion took place, and hissed, and with applauses, prevented him being generally heard. The Bishop called the disorder, and delivered a short speech, in which he alluded to the discussions of the convention, quite as amicably and concord. The decisions of the convention he hoped would be acquiesced in the harmony of the church present.

The convention, after an ardent sittings, adjourned without delay."

RIOS GRANDE.—Dates have been fixed from Rio Grande to the 12th of October. Political matters remain pretty much in the same state as at our last address. The insurgents against the Brazilian army were still in the same force in the interior, but from their want of arms they were unable to stand before the regular troops whenever they came in in the last rencontre 250 of the regulars still they give much assistance to the rebels and interrupt the trade of the present week.

Fish from England.—The New York Express says it may be mentioned one of the items of news of the day one of those delicious fish, of the English epicures are so proud, but, (and a remarkably fine one, was served up by the proprietors of the House to their guests, a present of Capt. Ryrie, of the Acadia. The fish in the condition—the flesh firm. It is in great demand.

Consumption.—The following interest is from Chicago Daily Express of the 13th. "Joe Smith's band of travelers traversing the whole State. It they are not altogether unsuccessful laborers. Recently at Bumble Hill place on the road to Danville, the Missourians, with the view of towing her into deeper water, or rendering any other aid; but unfortunately, she had already grounded which rendered it impossible to seutle her.

As soon as the fire broke out, the Governor ordered the water-port to be opened, and proceeded himself to the wharf from whence he despatched two engines under charge of the artillery and sappers, but in spite of the united efforts of the crew of the Missouri and her friendly auxiliaries, the progress of the flames was very striking.

The premium between this city and New York was the sum of the discount on our bank paper, added to the profits exacted by the shaving banks, the whole, in some instances, amounting to 30 per cent.

What is their condition now?"

Steam Frigates Missouri.—We regret to have to announce the total destruction, by fire, of the splendid American steam frigate Missouri, while at anchor in Gibraltar bay, on September 9th.

She had the Hon. Mr. Cushing on board, proceeding to Alexandria, en route for China, as minister.

The alarm was first given at eight o'clock precisely, and was immediately followed by such a burst of flame from the engineer's store room as to lead to the belief that it originated among the oil and spirits. Every exertion was made to subdue it, and the large pumps were instantly in operation; but the progress of the flames was so rapid, that it became necessary to flood the two magazines, which was done so effectually, that it was not until twenty minutes after 3 A. M., that any explosion took place, and then not to an extent to endanger the shipping in the bay, the nearest of which had already been removed by the exertions of the acting captain.

Assistance was promptly sent from the Malabar, under the personal superintendence of Sir George Sartorius; and the La-cugot got up her steam and ran alongside of the steamer North America, at

New York, on Sunday. One contained an elderly male person and a female packed in salt, and the other a male, also pickled in salt, and among the cattle are three yearling calves, and among the pigs, one yearling pig, and one yearling sow.
